The people will find Mr. Varner a progressive business man. Prof. Geo. E. Fisher of Susquehanna University on Saturday accompanied Mrs. Theodore Row of Kremer to Philadelphia where the latter has gone for treatment and perhaps an operation in the Medico Chirurgical Hospital. Quite a while ago Mrs. Row injured her ankle in being thrown out of a buggy. Recently it has grown worse and hence necessitates surgical skill. A correspondent from the Central Penna. College to the New Berlin News says: The Central Penna. College girls are small, tapering and beautifully shaped; their hair is brilliant as ***; and they are without a wrinkle in this or any other ***; their frowns are like +++ and their 1234-567890 excite !!! of pleasure. Read this ¶ closely, do not ? its reliability, and try 2 m. — the situation. Frank S. Reigle, the popular dealer in musical instruments and sewing machines, has purchased a gramophone—one of the very latest musical devices constructed. He very generously gave a free entertainment in the Lodge room of the Bank Building on Friday evening to a company of assembled guests. Every one was delighted with the music and all were amazed at the simplicity of the construction of the instrument and astounded with its accomplishments. Mr. Reigle has taken the agency for this instrument and we bespeak a ready sale for so desirable an invention. The "Social Propagators" met in the Lodge Room of the Bank Building on Tuesday evening of this week and determined to effect a permanent organization to promote sociability among the young people of the town. The following are the members already enlisted: Misses Margaret and Mollie Boller, Carrie, Bertha and Mabel Wittenmyer, Gertrude Kreeger, Rose Schoch, Alice Smith, Lillian Stetler, Laura Runkle, Libbie Dunkelberger and Mrs. Geo. The club will meet once a week regularly and at other periods at the pleasure of members.

W. D. HIMMELREICH DEAD. One of Lewisburg's Most Prominent Citizens. W. D. Himmelreich, of Lewisburg, one of the best known men along the West Branch, died of pneumonia at the Astor House, New York City, while on a business trip, at 11:20 o'clock Saturday. His body was taken to Lewisburg Sunday morning. Mr. Himmelreich was a prominent lumberman and banker. Together with his brother, Samuel, under the firm name of Himmelreich Brothers, deceased had long been prominent in the lumber trade of this section of Pennsylvania. The Himmelreichs were long engaged in boat building. Mr. Himmelreich went to New York City on Wednesday. He had been suffering with a severe cold for a week previous, but nothing severe was anticipated. Thursday his trouble developed into pneumonia, from which he died at the time above stated. He was about 54 years of age. He is survived by four brothers and one sister. Funeral services were held in his library in the Presbyterian church at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, that being his request. Mr. Himmelreich was teller in the First National Bank of Sunbury about six years, severing his connection with that institution in 1872. He had many friends in Snyder county. He was the most philanthropic man that Lewisburg ever had. Mr. Himmelreich is a son of Peter and Elizabeth (Charles) Himmelreich, whose father came from Germany in the 18th century and settled in Buffalo township, Union county. W. D. Himmelreich had ten brothers and sisters as follows: Mary married Wm. Nagel; Sarah married Simon Smith; James C. married Jane Cornelius; Margaret; George W. married Elizabeth Shear; John; Ann Caroline married Jacob Rengler; Samuel H. married Mary A. Roekey; Peter W. married Nettie Rightmyer; Thompson Linn married Lucy Louis Drake. The deceased was never married. "That the richest and largest deposits of gold that the earth has ever produced up to the present time have been found in the Alaska Klondyke country is now an established fact. We call your attention to the advertisement of the Alaska Klondyke Gold Mining Co. in another column." 10-7-6m. On and after Oct. 21st, E. B. Weidman will be ready for all her many customers, with a full and well selected stock of Winter Millinery Goods. Also the best line of Ladies' and Children's Jackets and Caps that you will find anywhere all come and see. No trouble to show goods whether you buy or not. 10-21-4t. Beaver Springs, Pa. I have a full line of Ladies', Misses and Children's vests and union suits, cotton and woolen hosiery, kid gloves, neckties, feather boas, girls' and boys' cloth and leather Tam O'Shanter's, caps, veils, stamped goods, embroidering, silks, silkalines, denium, curtains, curtain goods, embroideries, handkerchiefs, stationeries, soutache braids, and many other goods too numerous to mention. All these goods will be reduced on opening days. L. DUNKELBERGER.

Opera House Opening. The new Selingsgrove Opera House will be opened on Saturday evening, Oct. 30th, 1897, with a grand concert, composed of a chorus of fifty selected voices, cornets, a ladies' Mandolin Club, soloists from abroad and other musical attractions. Prof. William Moyer will conduct the chorus. The Lutheran and Reformed choirs of Freeburg will assist. New opera chairs, new gallery, new stage and new scenery. A grand program will be rendered. Turn out and show your appreciation of this new enterprise. Proceeds to be used to purchase a piano for the Opera House. Admission: Reserved seats, 30c.; General admission, 20c.; Children under 12 years, 10 and 20 cents. OPERA HOUSE MANAGEMENT. A Scheming Letter. Thursday last the Selingsgrove postmaster received a letter postmarked Camden, N. J., October 20 and signed by T. Mack which has caused considerable excitement in that place. The writer claims to have overheard a conversation between several parties from this place wherein a plot to set fire to stores and residences in Selingsgrove, Sunbury, Lewistown and Bellefonte for the purpose of robbery, was discussed. An old peddler from Middleburgh, whose name is given in the letter, was mentioned as the man selected to apply the torch. The postmaster was requested to warn Dr. Wagenseller to be on the lookout and the writer promised to write again from McVeytown. This letter was written not for the purpose of doing any good, but more likely for the purpose of injuring a man whose name was mentioned in the letter. The gentleman at present is in the south which at once proves the falsity of the story. COURT HOUSE CHIPS. Deeds Entered for Record.
