Senators Durham and Andrews Declare Hostility to Senator Quay.

A BIG INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT.

All the Anti-Machine and Anti-Boss Forces in the State to Unite-A Third Candidate For Governor - Senator Andrews Says Colonel Stone Is Not Quay's Candidate-A Case of Scare All Around-Still Gunning For Deals

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Harrisburg, Nov. 16 .- The danger that was feared by the Republican leaders has at last materialized. Dr. Swallow is a full fledged candidate for governor next year. He expects to take advantage of the disaffection in the Republican party and sweep up the steps of the capitol like a four time

The past week has been full of political surprises. Senator Durham, the personal lieutenant of Senator Quay in Philadelphia, came out with a declaration practically declaring himself independent of Senator Quay. In the newspapers he stated that no contracts or harmony deals which Senator Quay might make with Secretary of State David Martin would be binding on him. Privately, to his friends, he declared very emphatically that he was done with Senator Quay forever. He had not been consulted about the Senator's harmony visits to Secretary Martin, and he did not propose that Senator Quay should make a fool of him after standing up for the gentleman from Beaver as he had done.

LEXOW ANDREWS HOT.

Following closely on this came a declaration from State Senator William H. Andrews. As is well known, Senator Andrews is running the campaign of Colonel W. A. Stone for governor. Andrews, who in private declared his disgust and dissatisfaction with Senator Quay in attempting to patch up peace, also declared that he was through with the "old man." evidence of the way he felt he immediately gave out an interview in which he declared that Colonel Stone was not the candidate of Senator Quay, but that instead he was making the eanwass on his record as a Republican.

Of course the fact that Colonel Stone has as his principal supporter the man who became notorious as chairman of the Lexow committee; that this man, W. H. Andrews, is working the delegates for Stone, spending money in his behalf, and running a suite of offices in Pittsburg at his expense while booming him as Governor Hastings' successor, suggests the idea that Andrews, as Quay once expressed himself, would like 'o know how it felt "to own a governor."

IS STONE A STOOL PIGEON?

If this premise is correct the Stone candidacy represents either one of two things, the aspiration of "Lexow" Andrews, who is a man that was never known to do anything without seeing something in it for himself, or the desire of Senator Quay to control the next governor. Because it has been estabe, ers." But he accepted an article headed lished that over a year ago Senator Quay promised the gubernatorial succession to Colonel Stone.

But, as has already been pointed out in these dispatches, Senator Quay's desire is to use the nomination for gov-States senate. Senator Quay is ready one year ago he promised the governorship. Mr. Quay is quoted as saying in a recent newspaper interview:

"I am keeping my hands off the fight for governor. Too many of my friends are interested. As for Colonel Stone, he must take his chances with the rest. Stone has been well taken care of. I have kept him in congress ever since he went there."

STILL TRYING TO DEAL Senator Quay has not given up hope of making a deal with Secretary Martin and Senator Magee. No deal has been perfected. Senator Quay has not promised to do anything for David Martin, and David Martin has not promised to do anything for Senator Quay. The matter stands just where it did a week ago. Quay is badly frightened, and is trying to make terms with Messrs. Martin and Magee, but no terms have been made, because neither

The Eton jacket is usually considered and they are waiting an opportunity to throw him off. Messrs, Martin and Magee, to whom Senator Quay has gone on his knees and begged for reconciliation and peace, refused to make a deal, and so Senator Quay cannot claim their friendship or aid. The result is that he is ready to fall between the tubs ing beyond a book, some flowers, a

without a friend in either camp. But, more than this, Senator Quay must certainly see defeat in the next legislature. Ten countles in the state gave Swallow, the Independent, a plurality, and if the same counties next year return Independent members of the legislature Senator Quay cannot hope for re-election. Add to these the anti-Quay members that will be elected from Philadelphia and Pittsburg and the scattering Independents over the state and it will be a political im- field. possibility for Quay to secure his reelection to the senate without buying Democratic votes.

FIGURES FOR IT. A few figures are very convincing. In the last legislature there were 216 Republicans in senate and house. In the house alone there were 172 Republicans. Of this number 76 were staunch anti-Quay men, who represented anti-Quay constituents. In the counties which were carried for Dr. Swallow five of them were Quay counties, representing nine members. If these counties alone next November elect anti-Quay members to the assembly Senator Quay will have in the house only one of a majority, provided the old number of 76 is re-elected. But the terrible recerd of the last legislature will result in an upheaval, and instead of 76 antiof 96 being returned.

seats this year. Some of these are candidates for re-election, but their records are so bad that they will not be returned, and in their stead sena tors in touch with the people, and therefore anti-Quay and anti-boss senators to the core, will take their places If but 12 anti-Quay senators are elected the senate will be hopelessly gone, and the legislature on joint ballot will be verwhelmingly anti-Quay.

Senator Quay has figured this all out, and it is because of the danger impending that he has sought to make peace at any terms-to "throw down" all of his former friends, to trade off the governorship, or do anything that will permit him to retain his hold on the legislature. There is no doubt that if Senator Quay got deep enough into difficulty he would attempt to get help from the Democrats, but such a movement would involve so much scandal that he would hesitate quite a while before attempting anything so daring. BIG INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT.

Your correspondent has it on the best authority that a movement is on foot to unite all of the various reform and independent movements in the state under one head, and thus concentrate all anti-Quay forces in one gigantic movement. It is proposed to take a man of wide experience in statesmanship and of unassailable character as a candidate for governor. Such a man as Henry W. Palmer, for example, exattorney general of this state.

This movement hopes to draw into it either one of the Republican factions. both of which are now hostile to Quay. and thus strengthen its power. Ample funds will be forthcoming to carry on the work. The projectors of this scheme will not endorse a candidate of either party, but will put a third candidate in the field in the hope of electing anybody but the choice of the bosses and machine men.

It will be remembered that two weeks ago it was stated in these letters that a new movement was on foot among Senator Quay's own friends to get rid of him. This movement is now seen in the declarations of Senators Durham and Andrews. If you doubt the assertion regarding the new independent movement, just possess your soul in patience for a few weeks and watch it materialize as I have predicted!

Maude Adams has taken up golf and has developed into quite an expert player. This is especially appropriate nasmuch as she is now starring in a Scotch play.

Londoners are displaying a lot of interest over the forthcoming engagement in that city of Barnum's circus. Plans are progressing rapidly. Invitations will be sent the royal family and noted people.

E. Shaw, in advance of "In Old Madrid," gives an entertaining account of an experience he had in an Iowa town. He called upon a local editor, who is also a justice, and gave him some press matter regarding the coming engagement of his company. The article was headed "A Theatrical Treat." The editor solemnly handed back the copy with the remark: "That will never do in this town. We are all total abstain-"In Old Madrid Coming," which appeared in his next issue "An Old Maid Coming."

John Ray has been telling a New England newspaper about the "house sire is to use the nomination for gov-ernor as a trading power to secure to himself a re-election to the United joy their vacations. Said Mr. Ray: "We had the wagon made in Washto throw down Colonel Stone, to whom ington and it was sent to Chicago to be fitted up two years ago. It weighs 1,900 pounds, fitted with every convenience, including bicycles, guns, fishing outfit, domestic articles and an aluminum boat that takes apart in three pieces. The boat cost $160. In it we fish and many a fine catch have we made in the lakes of northern Wisconsin. You see, we are independent of the railroads, and can make 50 miles a day without inconvenience."
