I Love Her Still.

We have just received a copy of the above-named beautiful ballad composed by M. Dunham. The music is remarkably pretty and in polka time, very catchy. It is being sung in all first-class theatres in New York, Boston and Philadelphia.

FIRST VERSE.

I love her still, I love her still,
Tho' hard it is to say,
I saw her go with Jim last night
To see the last new play.
She gave me just a frozen bow
As she walked by her side,
But, ah! I dared to hope she would,
E'en yet be my sweet bride.

Price 40 cents per copy. All readers of our paper will receive a copy by sending 25 cents in silver or postage stamps to The Union Mutual Music Co., 265 Sixth Ave., New York.

CENTREVILLE.

The funeral of Mrs. Maggie Wagner (nee Walter) of White Springs was held in the Lutheran and Reformed church last Thursday. Her age was 20 years, seven months and 20 days. Rev. Schoch preached the funeral sermon.....

Rev. Bushong, the Reformed minister, held communion services on Sunday, Nov. 27th..... Simon Sipe of Troxelville and Mrs. Susan Musser of Centreville were joined in holy matrimony since our last report. Their friends now extend congratulations.....

The teachers of Centre District held their regular monthly Institute at Hartman's school house on Friday evening, Nov. 26. The teachers were all present except one. The next Institute will be held at Berge's school house, Dec. 17. The following subjects were given for discussion: "The difference between theory and practice in teaching," also Orthography. The teachers of the same school were instructed to arrange a program....

This is Institute week and our teachers are spending the week at Middleburg. The boys and girls are enjoying a short vacation....

Rev. A. D. Granly, who had been to Milesburg and also spent some time helping Rev. Shambach hold a revival, returned home.... G. W. Sheary, who was away to Shepton carpentering, came home on Wednesday.... Mrs. Sechrist spent a week at Adamsburg the guest of Mrs. P. E. Hackenburg..... Miss Mamie Lauer of Laurelton was the guest of Miss Lulu Bingaman....

Mrs. C. Mohn of Laurelton paid a visit to her many friends in town.... Bert Aucker of Michigan is spending a few days with his relatives at this place.... The friends of Peter Hartman will be glad to know that he is slowly improving.... Mrs. Julia Markle is very ill at this writing.

Dr. Schweigart wishes us to say that he has moved from Aline to Strouptown. The Dr. is spending the week in town.

GREAT MUSIC OFFER.

Send us the names and addresses of three or more performers on the piano or organ together with ten cents in silver or postage and we will mail you sixteen pages full sheet music, consisting of popular songs, waltzes, Marches, etc., arranged for the piano and organ. Address: POPULAR MUSIC CO., Indianapolis, Ind.

Don't Abuse the Confidence

The country newspaper man's real friends are those who pay every year. His best friends are those who pay at the beginning of each subscription year; or if that is inconvenient, when the time of receiving it is half out; or if any are unfortunate, and have not the money then, before the year closes. The city newspaper's friends are all real, for the publisher thereof will send no paper unless he gets his pay in advance. That's the difference in having friends who will ask for trust and those who will trust you; and confidence should not be abused.

DR. J. W. SEIP,

Office near the Lutheran church. Leave calls early in the morning if possible.
