The Miners' Convention.

Pittsburg, Dec. 21.-The coal operators and miners held separate conventions yesterday, preliminary to today's joint convention for the purpose of fixing the mining rate for 1898. Both conventions were largely attended, and the important questions which are to come up today were thoroughly discussed. Judging from the results of yesterday's work it would appear that today's convention will not fix the rate, and another general strike is one of the possibilities.
