ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was areated for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases. CHIEF CAUSE.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purposes. and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconveni-ence manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or would trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine asida for twenty four hours, a sediment or setting indicates kidney or bladder trouble. Annie and Mary Wilson are the names of two young women living near Wilmerding, Md., who earn a good living by splitting rails and getting out pit posts. They do all of the work themselves. YIE TRIAL OF M. ZOLA.

Famous Dreyfus Case.

M. Zola Declares That His Proof of Dreyfus' Innocence Is Absolutely Beyond Denial, But That He Will Not Be Permitted to Produce It.

Paris, Feb. 8.-The trial of M. Emile Zola and M. Perreux, manager of The Aurore, who are being prosecuted by the government as the result of a letter which the novelist caused to be published in The Aurore in December last, strongly reflecting upon nign officials connected with the Dreyfus case, opened yesterday in the assizes court of the Seine. M. Zola was represented by M. Laborde and M. Perreux was defended by M. Clemenceau. The most keen public interest was manifested in the case. Hundreds of people surrounded the court anxious to gain admittance. The police measures taken to insure order were most rigorous. No evidence was produced during the day. When the names of the witnesses were read it was stated that General Billot had not received the authority of the cabinet to testify. Ex-President Casimir-Perier sent a letter saying he could not testify except as to facts subsequent to his presidency. Colonel Paty du Clam was called to the stand, but refused to testify. M. Laborde, Zola's counsel, then made a long argument protesting against the absence of subpoenaed witnesses. He urged that General Mercler, ex-war minister, General Boisdeffie, Colonel Paty du Clam and others be forced to testify. The court postponed a decision until today.

M. Laborde also insisted that the depositions made before the examining magistrate in the Dreyfus case be read in court. This was opposed by the attorney general on the ground that the examination was concluded, and decision was reserved. David Christie Murray, the London novelist and playwright, had a column interview with Emile Zola, who, it appears, was anything but hopeful of the outcome of his trial. He said:

'We know everything about the Dreyfus case, but it is impossible to describe the pressure to impose silence upon the men who are able and ready to reveal the truth. Our documentary evidence is not even looked at, and our wit-nesses have refused to testify or have been ordered to be silent. There is no room for doubt. There is no question or a possibility of a question. The facts are clear and absolutely beyond denial. but the authorities refuse to allow us to produce our evidence, and then hold up the feebleness of our cause to the derision of the public."

JEALOUS WOMAN'S CRIME.

Killed Stepdaughter, Tried to Murder Husband and Seif. Brooklyn. Feb. 8.—Insane jealousy prompted the wife of William W. Place, insurance adjuster of this city, to kill her 17-year-old stepdaughter and attempt to take her own life and that of her husband. Mr. Place is 47 years of age, and his family consists of his wife, Martha, 37 years old, and adaughter by his first wife, Ida M. Place, aged 17 years. Mr. Place returned home from business about 6 o'clock last night, and eyes at a time when the bank depositupon opening the front door was con- ors had a right to believe he had them fronted by his wife in the dimly light- bonestly open, especially when the bank ed hallway. The woman appeared to was declaring dividends, one as late as be in a frenzied condition, and was armed with an ax. Before Mr. Place could recover from his astonishment she dealt him a terrific blow with the weapon on the forehead, and another which inflicted a terrible gash in his eft cheek. Mrs. Place then fied to another room, locked the door and turned on two gas jets. Place secured help, and the door was broken down. Mrs. Place was found unconscious. The door of a back room on the same foor was found to be locked, and was broken open. Here on the bed was found the daughter Ida. Her head had been split open with the ax, and there was also an ugly wound on her mouth. The girl had been dead about three hours. Place, though seriously injured, will probably survive. Mrs. Place is already out of danger. The father's preference for his daughter's society is said to have caused frequent quarrels between the husband and wife.

ANXIOUS DEPOSITORS

The Noted French Novelist and the Forcible Opinions Regarding Philadelphia's Failed Bank.

WITNESSES REFUSE TO TESTIFY, BUSINESSLIKE METHODS NEEDED.

ed "Plan of Liquidation" General Depositor Far in While the City Was to Be the Preferred Creditor.

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.-According to an article in The Ledger some of the creditors of the failed Chestnut Stree bank and the trust company show an aggressive disposition, and this spirit may soon make itself practically felt. These creditors assert that the gentlemen in charge of the bankrupt corporations are not frank enough in imparting information. One gentleman said: "It was a fatal error to have the bank and trust company under one roof and practically under one management, and yet in the final arrangement we see one of the assignees of the trust company made receiver for the bank, which would indicate something mutual in their respective settlements. The interests of the depositors, which were so long ignored by the officers and directors of these two concerns, appear to be still the thing least thought of by some of these who want to exercise a controlling voice in the matter.

"The pace set by ex-Comptroller Eckels, who either did not examine the periodical sworn reports which the bank submitted, or else-presuming them to have been honest-ignored their warning features, has been faithfully followed to an extent that leaves the general depositor, whose claims should be paramount, far in the rear.

"Under the plan of settlement, for whose acceptance the most strenuous efforts were made, the city would have been taken care of, because it was made a preferred creditor to the extent of its claims. Why the city should be made a preferred creditor, rather than a lot of poor depositors, whose entire holdings were, perhaps, swallowed in the failure, I cannot see, any more than I could perceive why we should acqui-esce in a proposition that gave the assignees practically unlimited discretion to issue, if they cared to, $5,000,000 or $5,000,000 in stock in a company which might not prove profitable on half that sum."

Another gentleman, a business man of excellent standing, said: "If Mr. Earle wants to secure a continuance of the silent forbearance that has thus far characterized the depositors he would do well to get down to a plain business methods of treating them. They have been treated like a lot of c'ildren, in my judgment, instead of those whose rights should be considered shead of any others. A few persons may have, in a confidential way, a knowledge of the real situation-what there has been lost in this tremendous failure, and what there is to pay it with-but there has been no information in it. From Mr. Eckels down we have had admonitions to the general effect that the best thing to be done was to do as we were told, and ask no questions.

"They even went so far as to delicately threaten, and not very delicately either, that those who declined to yield assent to the plan would be publicly exposed as some sort of marplots or malcontents. I have seen nothing about exposing Mr. Eckels, who as comptroller must have deliberately closed his Islands.

Young Magowan Arrested for Burglary

Trenton, Feb. 8 .- Frank A. Magowan Jr., son of ex-Mayor Frank Magowan, was placed under arrest yesterday afternoon on a charge of burglary. He is accused of having taken part in the robbery of the residence of Assistant Secretary of State Rickey, in September last. Magowan waived a hearing and gave $350 bail. The goods stolen at the time included $500 in cash, several hundred dollars' worth of jewelry and a lot of papers, only of value to Mr. Rickey. The boy is about 18 years of age, and the oldest son of the exmayor.

A Victim of Masked Robbers.

Delaware, O., Feb. 8.-Miss Nancy Fix, who was tortured and robbed of a fortune on Tuesday night last, recovered sufficiently last night to describe her assailants, four in number, two of whom were boys. She says they secured $15,000 in cash. They left her bound, nearly naked. Before going they built three fires in the house, with the intention of burning it, and then locked all the doors.

To Preserve Historic Battlefields. Richmond, Va., Feb. 8.-A bill was introduced in both houses of the legislature yesterday to incorporate a Memorial Park association to care for the Fredericksburg and adjacent battlefields. "Some few persons have learned, in a quiet way, just how these two con-cerns were wrecked, with resultant losses, I am informed, of about $6,000,-000, but I think it is high time that there should be definite and official information openly given out rovering the whole ground. I can understand how each creditor, fearing that he would be regarded as vindictive or anxious to air his grievance at the expense of the general body of creditors, hesitated to speak out heretofre, but I see no marked indication of a change from the policy of simply advising the depositors what to do, and I know there are a good many who have ar-rived at the conclusion that their feelings and their interests should also be Berlin, Feb. 5 .- The vigorous protests of Andrew D. White, the United States ambassador, were successful in securing a modification of the order of Dr. Miquel, Prussian minister of finance in wholly excluding American fruits. The bundesrath modified the order by providing for inspection of American fruits, they to be excluded only when diseased. It is believed, however, that this will be construed into practical prohibition, in retaliation for the American system of discriminating duties on sugar from bounty paying nations.

China Between Two Fires.

London, Feb. 8.-The Pekin correspondent of The Times, telegraphing yesterday, said: "I have reasons to believe that China will be induced to decline the British proposals in consequence of Russia's opposition, and, similarly, that she will be unable to accept the Russian proposals owing to England's opposition. The country is helpless and unable to pay the indemnity, except by instalments, but China nurses the hope that Japan will agree to an extension of time."
