the Massacre at Lattimer.

Christopher Brehen Swears He Was Urged to Join the Deputies and Shoot Down Strikers - Another Deputy Who Would Shoot Strikers at a Cent a Head.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 7.-Last Wedsday afternoon a jury was secured in the case of Sheriff James Martin and his deputies, charged with the murder of strikers at Lattimer in September last. The jury chosen is as follows: Ell Weaver, laborer; C. R. Shaw, carpencer; Aaron Follman, ropemaker; Alfred Stevens, clerk; A. S. Shields, carpenter: Herman Gregory, farmer; Adam Larvon, tinsmith; C. C. Ransom, contractor; B. M. Rood, farmer; Jonas Oxrider, carpenter; H. M. Wolfe, farmer; A. W. Washburn, carriage maker.

Before the opening of the trial last Tuesday, on motion of the district at-torney, the indictments against 14 of the deputies were nolle prossed. This leaves 63 men on trial, including Sheriff Martin.

In his opening address on Thursday Attorney McGahren, for the prosecution, asserted that it would be proven that the deputies had threatened the lives of the strikers.

John Siva was the first witness. The defense endeavored to show that this witness had been engaged in terrorising men to join the strikers; but Siva made a good witness for the prosecution.

John Mahala, the chosen leader of the Harwood strikers, testified to his reading the instructions issued by the actional union to avoid violence or disorder. He detailed the unwarranted interference with the strikers, and the shooting without warning.

Rev. Richard Aust, who conducted the funeral services of many of the victims, could not describe the nature of the wounds received.

Rev. Carl Hauser testified that he had examined several of the wounded. and all were shot in the side or back. The most important witness of the day was Charles Guscott, principal of the Lattimer school. He heard an un-

They lined the side of the road, with rifles ready. Soon the strikers appeared, marching in a quiet and orderly man-They were halted by the sheriff. He did not hear the sheriff say anything or see him read any paper. One of the deputies started to advance alone, when another shouted: "If you don't come back we will shoot you, too." The man jumped back, and almost immediately came a shot, then two others, and then a volley. The strikers started and ran in all directions, but 16 fell within a few feet. He saw one man shot while running a hundred yards from the road. He assisted several of the wounded to the schoolhouse and dressed their wounds.

Judge Woodward, however, allowed the defendants until today to furnish ball. Michael Nicholson was the first witness on Saturday. He testified, among other things, that when he denounced the shooting as a scandalous piece of work Deputy Alfred Hess said to him: "You .hut up, or I'll treat you the same way." On motion his evidence was stricken out.

John Egler, secretary of the Harwood Union of the United Mine Workers, was the only other witness Saturday. His testimony was corroborative of that already introduced.

On Monday of this week Judge Woodward severely denounced newspapers that published sensational accounts of the trial, and declared that "if the astounding falsehoods and misrepresentations continue the representatives of the papers will find the door of the court closed to them." He also rebuked opposing attorneys who engaged in wordy warfare after Saturday's adjournment, threatening punishment for contempt. The witnesses on Monday were George

Yeager, a Slavonian, who required an Interpreter; Thomas Hall, a hotel clerk, and Christopher Brehen, a miner, and John Costello. Yeager recognized a number of the deputies who had done shooting, and also a number of others who he said were among the deputies. He weakened his evidence by recognizing as among the armed deputies John Hampton, who was in Hazleton at the time of the shooting. Hall declared he had heard Deputy John Turner declare after the shooting: "I shot nine of them, and killed five." Brehen declared he had been urged by Deputy Bornheiser to join the deputies in order to "go out and shoot the strikers." A few days before the shooting Deputy Dodson said to him: "We ought to get so much a head for shooting down these strikers. I would do it for a cent a head, and make money at it." Cross examination failed to shake Brehen's testimony. Costello's testimony was interrupted by an argument and adjournment.

THE WORK OF CONGRESS.

House Defeats Teller's Resolution for Bond Payments in Silver.

Tuesday of last week in the senate little business was done in open session. In executive session Mr. Platt (Conn.) spoke in favor of Hawaiian annexation and Messrs. Pettigrew and White opposed it. Friends of the treaty are now confident of success. In the house Mr. Mahany (N. Y. Rep.) bitter-ly denounced Mr. W. A. Stone (Pa.) for his position favoring the immigration bill.

Wednesday was an extremely dull day in both houses. The house passed the District of Columbia appropriation bill and took up the fortifications bill. Mr. Fischer, of New York, urged the erection of a fort in New York harbor. The senate passed most of the day in executive session, discussing the Hawallan treaty.

In the senate on Thursday Mr. Caffery, of Louisiana, spoke in support of the committee report excluding Henry W. Corbett as senator from Oregon, declaring that the governor had no right to appoint, even though the legislature failed in its duty to elect a senator. The agricultural appropriation bill was passed. The house ostensibly considered the fortifications ap-Pridgeon, Miss Ella McMillan and Mrs. Flora Holliday, who were in charge of the deceased, and recommending that they be made to answer in court for their neglect. Rev. On Friday Schoolmaster Guscott completed his testimony and identified a number of the deputies.

Dr. H. M. Kellar, who attended many of the wounded, said that of 46 wounds a 39 men 5 were shot directly in-front, 9 indirectly in front, 15 r rectly in the side, 3 directly in the rear and o indirectly in the rear. Two of the men had wounds that could have been inflicted only while the man was runming at full speed.

Rev. S. E. Stafflett, of Hazleton, told of seeing the paraders en route to Lattimer, and of their peaceable and orderly demeanor.

Miss Grace Coyle, Mr. Guscott's asshatant teacher, was the star witness on Friday. She detailed the events leading to the shooting, corroborating Mr. Guscott, and insisting that the strikers were peaceable and orderly. After the shooting she helped many of the wounded to the schoolhouse and dressed their wounds as best she could. There was blood all over the schoolhouse floor, she said, and she described it as a horrible sight. She continued: "Thirlped about 12 or 15 of the wound-of and did not see any weapons on any of them. While I was helping them a deputy named Hess laughed at me as he walked about smoking a cigar. I said. 'You ought to go to Cuba.' Depsty Clark laughed, and I said to him, 'Do you think you've done a glorious deed today?' I called two more of them bums.

Miss Coyle stated that when she barned the strikers were coming she dismissed the class, deeming it best that they should be at home. This is seized upon by the defense as important testinony for their side, indicating fear of the strikers.

Dr. John J. Corrigan was the next witness, but his testimony developed nothing new.

Then the commonwealth called to the stand S. T. Adams, a traveling man, by thom it hoped to prove that some of the deputies while journeying to the scene of the shooting made threats that they would kill some of the strikers. The witness said he could not identify any of the deputies on the car, and objection being raised his evie was ruled out. Saturday there was a centrover

Mr. Dingley explained that the hat was made in New York, with a London trademark to please Anglomaniacs.

On Friday the house devoted mos of the day to the passing of 18 of the 24 private pension bills favorably acted upon a week before. There was a long discusion on the approaching sale of the Kansas Pacific road on the government's foreclosure. In the senate Mr. Lindsay replied to the resolution the Kentucky legislature demandof ing his resignation on account of his views in opposition to free coinage of silver. He declared that he was elected to represent Kentucky, rather than its legislature, and would continue to do 80.

On Saturday last the house passed the fortifications appropriations bill, carrying $4,144,912, against $9,157,141 last year. Senate was not in session. Monday of this week in the senate Mr. Morgan, of Alabama, offered an amendment to a previous Hawalian resolution. Mr. Morgan's amendment declares distinctly for annexation. The house passed the Military academy appropriation bill, carrying $453,540.
