Sad Death of a Student

Harry J. Smeltzer, a member of the sophomore class of Susquehanna university, at Selinsgrove, died Wednesday morning of jaundice and heart trouble. He had been sick about a week but it was not thought seriously and his death was very unexpected. His home is in Centre county and his parents were telegraphed the sad news.

Be careful in the choice of a school if you would avoid wasting time and money.

Going through books does not educate. Neither does getting in time.

The State Normal School at Bloomsburg, Pa. won its standing and reputation by the thorough work of its faculty.

It is a better school to-day than ever before; not simply because of better material equipment. (This is important), but because of a stronger corps of teachers. They are nearly all college and university trained. Recent additions have been made. Spring term will open March 9, 1894.

Write for information to J. F. Wilson, Ph. D., Principal.

To Our Graduates: Success. This is the motto of our school. We are proud of you. We are proud of the good work you are doing. We are proud of the good names you are making. We are proud of the good friends you are making. We are proud of the good life you are leading.

Obituary of Edwin Roush.

We are very sorry to chronicle the sad though not unexpected death of our young friend and neighbor Charles Edwin Roush. He was a son of the late Joseph Roush and Mary Ann his wife, a born Minium. He was born on the 24th day of July 1877 near Freeburg, in Washington twp. Snyder County Pa. where he spent most of his short period of useful life. He was confirmed and became a member of the Lutheran church at Freeburg on the 19th day of December 1896.

Not more than a year ago he was stricken with a heavy cold, ending in that dreadful disease known as consumption. From this he suffered more or less ever since until God saw fit to remove him out of time to eternity on Tuesday evening, March 15th, aged 20 years, 7 mo. and 21 days. He was a young man of rather quiet disposition and of a reputation such as many a 'one of his age might have just reason to envy. The funeral took place last Saturday forenoon at Freeburg. He was laid to rest in Fairview cemetery, in a very fine white embossed plush casket furnished by undertaker J. Howard Arbogast, who also directed the obsequies in a very fine and proper style.

The pall-bearers were William Charles, Frank Holtzapple, Alvin Keck, Theodore Gry, Wm. Dunkelberger and Martin Hass. Rev's Drukeomiller and Snable officiated. The church was well filled with friends of the deceased, all of whom deeply mourn his early loss.

Moving Notice.

All persons having business with this office please remember that we have moved our quarters from David Ooker's building to the new building on the Bank lot near the county jail where we shall be pleased to greet our many friends and patrons.

Their Scheme Defeated

A rather strange story comes Avonmore to the effect that a few nights ago a farmer living near place found an alarm clock in haymow. He took it from the and placed it in his house, V after a short time, the alarm to ring and automatically a was lighted. It is, of course, ed that incendiaries put it there the purpose of firing the hay, only the barking of a watch do to a thorough investigation, tho to the discovery of the clock match.
