 You need any trunks or satchels call on H. Oppenheimer, Selinsgrove, where they have a large stock to make a selection. 3-31-31
 You will need some spring shirts, stylish pants and if you drop in Oppenheimer's Selinsgrove, they show you bargains. 3-31-31
 Mel Bilger, one of the best known in the county, dropped in to us on Saturday. He believes in the advantage of special offers.
 D. Kramer has administered the estate of his father-in-law, Ward Miller. The legal notice is found in this issue.
 E. E. Corkins moved the one-story building from Robert Shamm's lot to Mrs. Smith's lot on our street and moved his jewelry into the same on Monday.
NEAT TRICK.—Fold up a one-cent bill, enclose it in an envelope addressed to us. We'll send you 10 columns of good reading material the Post for next year.
 C. Garman, of Mt. Pleasant, and J. F. Kerstetter, of Mes Half Falls, dropped in last Thursday to take advantage of our special offer.
 The directors of the Penn Telephone Company were here last week to make an effort to remove objections to having the poles along Sugar Street.

 Dr. I. G. Barber, of Danville and family spent a few days in town during the past week. The doctor is a successful physician enjoying a large and lucrative practice at Danville. While here, the doctor had no superior.
 On Monday Mrs. Harriet Smith and daughter, Alice, went to New Kensington, Pa., to make make their future home. H. Burns Smith, the former's son, preceded them, and is filling a pleasant position in that very active town only 18 miles from Pittsburg.
NEW GOODS! Easter novelties together with house hold articles which we wish to make a specialty April 9th. We will give to each purchaser an Easter gift worth having. Ulrich and Osmin, don't forget the time and place, Selinsgrove, Pa. 3-31-2t
 Last Saturday Andrew Wolfkiel completed his 44th year in the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. He has been a conductor for 34 years and has been over the bank 36 times. For faithfulness to the technicalities of his instructions he has no superior.
 A smooth, easy shave, genteel hair cut, or other tonsorial work, is always obtained at Soles' Barber Shop, in Wittenmyer's building, opposite Post office. Go to Soles and you will make no mistake, shaving soap, face cream, hair oil and egg-shampoo for sale. A. E. SOLES.
 The Snyder Co. Tribune came out last week in a new form—a seven-column quarto, much improved in appearance and in the amount and quality of its contents. The "young bloods" in Snyder county journalism seem to have awakened the time-tried journalists of maturer years. We agree with Bro. Lumbard that Snyder county needs better newspapers. He might have added that we don't need any more to add to the struggle for bread.
 You may publish column after column in laudation of a man or firm and they think it is only a duty you owe to the public to commend them, but print one line that can be construed as a reflection—no matter how true—and they are up on their high horse in a minute and all the good things you have said count for naught, and yet a majority of people will claim they like to see a paper fearless, independent and outspoken.

Harry Seebold of Sunbury was a Middleburg visitor last week.
 Cyrus Rathfon has received back pension to the amount of $216.
 H. H. Renninger bought the chickenery from C. H. Dunkelberger. Row's church at Salem will be dedicated April 24th.

 Snyder county is one county out of five that sent no prisoners to the Eastern Penitentiary in 1897. This county has one convict in the penitentiary at present at a cost of 22c per day.
 An Easter exercise will be rendered by the C. E. Society in the Lutheran Church next Sabbath morning at ten o'clock. A special collection will be taken to be devoted to buy books for the C. E. Society.
 Samuel Brower one of the prominent men of Lewistown was a Middleburg visitor last Thursday. For 21 years he was a successful merchant at Bannerville this county, where he has many friends and acquaintances.
 The council on Monday night voted against the removal of the telephone poles from Sugar street, by a vote of 4 to 2. Those favoring it were Reigel and Crouse, those opposed were Renninger, Ocker, Showers and Kern.
 John Stuck, who for several years was the obliging clerk at the Central Hotel at this place, left last Thursday for his home at McClure. He will spend some time there when he will embark for the West. John is an industrious young man and we wish him abundant success.
 The American Economist of March 25th presents in the form of a pictorial supplement an unique and interesting array of drawings and cartoons selected from the files of that paper for the past three years. The illustrations, several hundred in number, emphasize in a peculiarly forcible manner the strength of the doctrine of Protection as an active, living political issue, and also demonstrate with what vigor and aggressiveness this doctrine has been advanced by the American Protective Tariff League.

A charter has been issued at the state department, Harrisburg, to the Tuscarora telegraph and telephone company to run lines in Juniata, Perry, Franklin and Huntingdon counties. The capital is $3,000, all but six of the $10 shares being held by Carl G. Espenschade. The directors are Mr. Espenschade, James G. Thompson and J. Frank Patterson, Millintown; I. N. Grubb, Thompsonstown, and N. H. Sulouff, Patterson.
"When We Go Marching Thro' Cuba."
 We have just received a copy of the above-named great American Patriotic song. The melody of this song is even more stirring than that of "Glory Hallelujah." It is distinctively military and will at once become a favorite with all Regimental Bands. Every true American should be in possession of a copy of this great song. Can be played on Piano or Organ. It is now receiving from six to eight encores nightly in New York, Boston and Philadelphia theatres. Audiences rising en masse in their seats so great is the enthusiasm.
FIRST VERSE.
 Blow the good old bugle,
 Let it ring the tocsin "Maine!"
 Blow it, blow it louder,
 When the shot and shell shall rain;
 Blow it in the vanguard,
 Till it sounds the knell of Spain.
 When we go marching thro' Cuba!
SECOND VERSE
 Blow the same old bugle, boys,
 To still another song;
 Tell the world we're marching now
 Twice "fifty thousand strong."
 Tell them that we gladly give
 Our lives to fight a wrong,
 Tell them that we're marching thro' Cuba,
CHORUS.
 Hurrah! Hurrah!
 We'll make the tyrant flee!
 Hurrah! Hurrah!
 We'll set old Cuba free!
 No more upon that idle sea shall the tyranny hold sway,
 When we go marching thro' Cuba.
 The retail price is 50 cents per copy. All readers of our paper will receive a copy post paid by sending 25 cents in silver or postage stamps to the Union Mutual Music Co., 265 Sixth Ave., New York.
Martin—Kerstetter.
 Last Thursday evening at Milton, J. W. Martin, an employee of the Reading railroad Co. and a son of J. H. Martin of Paxtonville, was married to Jennie Kerstetter, daughter of David Kerstetter of Swinestord. The wedding took place at the M. E. parsonage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Ferguson. The couple spent a few days here and at Paxtonville with their parents and are now visiting some of the Eastern cities. Both young people are well known here. The Post extends congratulations.

Houser will move on the farm of Chas. B. Kline who intends to move into a shanty as he has embarked in the stave mill business.
 David Gift, Dr. J. W. Sampsel, Elias Hartman, Peter Shaeffer, Augustus Stroub and C. W. Fisher inspected our office on Wednesday morning.

QUICK NEWS.
 Last Thursday evening were received word over the phone from the Sunbury Evening Item that the operator there had caught from a message going over the wires that Spain had rejected President McKinley's ultimatum and that all Americans had been notified to leave the island of Cuba at once. The news was received at 8:47 and by 9:10 we had news boys on the streets distributing the "Extra" edition of the Post. The latter part of our message proved unfounded but the other was authentic as the dailies announced next day.
SELINGSGROVE.
 Rev. Breidenbach and wife of Gettysburg, parents of Mrs. Rev. Yutzky, are welcome guests at the home of the doctor, Dr. B. F. Emerick and son of Carlisle was in town between trains on Friday. John and Geo. Schoch spent Saturday at Bloomsburg. Geo. Getty of Catawissa, a former resident of this place, spent several days with his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Fenstermacher. Ed.
