It is claimed that the oyster and the strawberry has done its share toward evangelizing the world. They have built and furnished more churches, paid the salaries of more preachers and helped more heathen than any other two agencies in the world.

There is an item going the rounds of the press to the effect that the proper method to keep apples in winter is to wrap them in old newspapers so as to exclude the air. The newspaper, however, must be one on which the subscription has been paid, otherwise dampness resulting from what is "dew" may cause the fruit to spoil.

Church Dedication.

The beautiful church edifice recently erected at Salem, this county, was dedicated Sunday. A great many people turned out to witness the services. Rev. Frank of Schuylkill Haven, Dr. Fry of Philadelphia, Revs. Barb, Ochsenford, Haas and Snable of this county were present. The first named was the beggar and a good one he was for he managed to collect $1460, leaving only about $300 debt. The Lutheran and Reformed choirs of Selingsgrove assisted with the singing. This edifice is the third structure erected upon that site. The first was built by the pioneer settlers in 1775, when it was said to have been the first church West of the Susquehanna river, this probably meant North of Harrisburg and the Patriarch Henry Melchoir muhlenburg, father of the Lutheran church in America, was one of the earliest visiting preachers there. The second church was started in 1812, but was not completed until after the war. The third was erected last summer a most beautiful testimonial of the devotion of God's children to him. During the period of the century and a quarter of the church history, the various pastors, received into the church and carried upon the rolls some 5000 members. There are upon the records of this old church the names of nearly all the early settlers of this county. The people of Salem are to be congratulated upon their beautiful structure.

MIDDLECREEK.

On account of the continued wet weather, but few of our farmers are through sowing oats. If the blossoms are a criterion to the fruit then the cherries, peaches and plums will be abundant as the trees are all in bloom. Alvin Ulah was in the city last week and bought a large stock of Spring and summer goods. Mr. Frank from Phila. brother of Mrs. Joseph Wagner was in our village on Monday viewing the mill property.

John K. State of Lewistown was visiting Mrs. Ulah's over Sunday. We are glad to state that Andrew Ulah Sr. is able to be on the road again. Geo. Yeager who is working in Lewistown was called home last week on account of sickness in the family.

The first Quarterly Conference of the United Evangelical Church will be held at Kramer, April 30 at 2 p. m. Communion services Saturday evening. Communion services at Middleburgh Sunday morning at 10 a. m. Paxtonville Sunday evening. Rev. A. Stambos, P. E. will officiate. J. H. Harris, pastor.

Robbers at Kantz

Last Friday night at half past eleven o'clock two or three robbers attempted to break into M. Milliner's store at Kantz. They were trying to open the rear door and fortunately Mr. Milliner had a burglar alarm which went off. Mr. Milliner shot after them but they escaped. Some tools and a bag were found that the burglars left in their haste. These robberies and attempted robberies are becoming numerous and citizens in general should use all precautions to avoid the loss of their property by these bandits.

Kreeger—Rowe.

Herbert N. Rowe, an insurance agent of Millersburg and Miss Gertrude Kreeger of Swineford were married in the city of Williamsport last Thursday evening. They bought some furniture in that city, then went to Millersburg where the groom had a house in readiness for his bride. The groom is a polished young gentleman and the bride, one of our best Christian young ladies who has many friends here who join the Post in wishing the couple many happy years of married life.
