ADAMSBURG.

[Crowded out last week.]

Rev. Kautz, minister of the Beaver charge will preach his farewell sermon at this place on Sunday eve, May 1st. S. E. Romig visited friends in Sunbury over Sunday. Revival services are now in progress in the M. E. church. John Lloyd, wife and child of Wagner are visiting his parents. John Haeburg of near Middleburg is spending some time with his brother Palmer. Mrs. Banks Dreese has gone to Chillisquaque intending to stay some time with her sons at that place. Dan. Middlesworth of Beavertown is working in town at present. Mrs. Samuel Warner visited her parents at Thompsonstown last week. Mrs. Lewis Helfrich is seriously ill at this writing. Mrs. Alice Stumpf of Wagner spent Sunday at home. John Kitz of Reading spent a few days with his son Hayden. Some unknown persons attempted to enter the home of Mrs. Isaac Wetzel last week. They were unsuccessful. E. S. Manbeck and wife accompanied by Mrs. Wm. Dreese were to Phila. selecting a new stock of goods for the firm of E. S. and H. G. Manbeck. J. B. Spangler was in Phila., and selected some very fine goods. Stock is arriving daily.

WEST BEAVER.

At this writing there is still some oats to sow at this end of town. T. F. Swinford paid Snyder county a visit last week on business. W. H. Knepp and warriemcLaughlin made a business trip to Lewistown last week. R. H. Lance of Mifflinburg put up a monument at the brick church last week for Aaron Moyer, it is a master piece of work for which Lance has the name of doing. L. A. Jenkins and wife was called to Lewistown last Saturday to attend the funeral of his step father George Hambrick. Allen Peter is making preparations to build a house and barn on the tract he bought from his father. Our old veteran, Levi Treaster, says he is ready for war just as soon as called on. The report is, there has been a party traveling through here selling jewelry and made the remark at a neighbor's house, that the wished Spain would blow the United States to hell. Now all that party has to do is to call at my head quarters and can get an exchange for all he is worth, my mortar throws two pounds of buck shot to the second and never misses fire. Horse trading is a big thing at this end, there was a trade made last week and the next morning the party found his old horse back again, he said if he only knew who unlocked the stable he would give 50 cents cash. There was a party made the remark, if they only had the money that was paid for new hats that she saw at church last Sunday she could buy an outfit for Klondyke.

A Scholar and a Historian.

Rev. A. Stapleton, presiding Elder of the Evangelical church, was in town over Sunday looking after his official duties in connection with the church. On Saturday, the local pastor Rev. Hertz and elder Stapleton called upon us. Rev. Stapleton is a historian having at his command the history of hundreds of pioneer families of this state. He is a frequent contributor to "Notes and Queries" in the Harrisburg Telegraph and is now preparing a volume entitled "Huguenot memorial", a work that John Blair Linn, a voluminous historical writer, after examining the manuscript said, "It opens a new chapter in Colonial History." He is a member of the Penna. Historical Society. We need more historians of Rev. Stapleton's stripe.
