

enn
Telephone,
No. 32.

W. WAGENSELLER,
Editor and Proprietor.

Mrs. E. E. Pawling spent last week in Union county.

The town is filled with Sunday school convention delegates this week.

Rev. D. E. McLain and George Stetler attended conference at Liverpool last week.

Mrs. T. R. Hosterman of Selinsgrove spent Sunday with her father, Iron Renninger.

Steve Howell and wife of Cammalent a few days very pleasantly with friends at this place.

John Moyer, Jr. and family spent Sunday with John Renninger's family in Franklin twp.

Henry Moyer, one of Jackson township's reliable citizens, was a county seat visitor Monday.

In times such as these every man, woman and child in the United States will wear an American flag.

Pretty silks for waists at Weis Selinsgrove.

Miss Jennie Charles of Port Trevorton is visiting her brother, Edwin Charles, at this place.

Buy your dress goods at Weis Selinsgrove and save money.

Attorney M. I. Potter and wife in Philadelphia this week where the former is attending Supreme Court.

John H. Hughes, Esq. and son, James, and Harry Shotzberger of Selinsgrove were county seat visitors Sunday.

Mrs. D. W. Knouse of Sunbury here over Saturday morning to attend the funeral of Philip Spaid and returned Sunday with Mrs. H. R. Reigle.

"Army and Navy coat Buttons" mounted as hat pins are both appropriate and useful, call at L. Anklerberger's and secure one.

I have just received three new lots of millinery goods to day. I know I can give you just what you want. Call and be convinced.

Large variety of matting at lowest prices at Weis, Selinsgrove.

The members of the Reformed Church of this place celebrated the Lord's supper on Sunday morning, Rev. Kohler, their pastor, officiated.

A special service in commemoration of the "Heroes of the Maine" will be held next Sunday evening at the Lutheran church.

The Court House bell and all the church bells were rung on Monday morning and fire works were put off in commemoration of Dewey's unparalleled victory in the Philippines.

J. H. Hartman of Centreville in town last week. He informs that he has contracted a large lumber job in Cambria county that will require 3 or 4 years to complete.

Window shades, 10 cents and upwards at Weis, Selinsgrove.

The county commissioners on Monday closed the work of holding seals. They say Jackson twp. is a banner district as no one appeared before them with any advances.

Large variety of ladies shirt waists at Weis, Selinsgrove.

Pretty styles of linen warp matting at Weis, Selinsgrove.

It is said that Mt. Pleasant Mills has two Spanish sympathizers. The citizens are almost provoked to mob law on them, but they are considering the advisability of offering a purse to send them to Spain where they properly belong.

Smooth, easy shave, genteel hair or other tonsorial work, is also obtained at Soles' Barber Shop, Wittenmyer's building, opposite Court office. Go to Soles and you make no mistake, shaving soap, cream, hair oil and egg-shampoo for sale.

A. E. SOLES.

The court advertising appears in this issue.

Mrs. H. H. Leitzel of Mifflinburg is visiting her parents, James Ayres and wife.

Large variety of carpets at bottom prices at Weis, Selinsgrove.

M. Z. Steininger and wife and Mrs. Ayres will make an extended visit to Nebraska and intermediate points.

Mrs. J. A. Haine and Miss Bell R. Freed of Beavertown were the guests of W. F. Feese and family on Tuesday.

Laces and embroideries in abundance and very cheap at Weis, Selinsgrove.

Wilmer Ocker of Shamokin was a Sunday visitor in this place. Before leaving he dropped in to see us and paid for the Post a year in advance.

W. W. Rice of Meiserville dropped into town on Monday morning as the court house and church bells were ringing to note Dewey's victory.

Charles Erb and wife of Salem, visited Morris Erdley and wife on Sunday. The dog which he lost when he moved has not returned yet.

Mrs. John Gross and child and Misses Agnes and Mabel Lenig of Northumberland were the guests of Jesse Shelly's family in Swinford Sunday.

Chas. C. Seebold and son Harry of Sunbury were in town on Saturday to attend the sale of Christina Benfer's real estate, of which the former was one of the administrators.

A free education is a rarity, but the Post has already awarded six free scholarships and now it offers four more. They are absolutely free. Read the announcement in this issue.

The second team of Central Pa., College at New Berlin, defeated in a game of base ball on Saturday the second team of Mifflinburg by a score of 16 to 12.

George Clelan and Harry Specht on Saturday morning went to Milton where they enlisted in Co. C, 12th regiment, as volunteers in the Spanish-American war.

Miss Ida M. Wagenseiler of Selinsgrove is spending several days with her brother, the editor of the Post and wife. She is taking in the Sunday school convention.

Attorney Jacob Gilbert and wife have gone to Philadelphia, having stopped at Lancaster where their son, Francis, who is attending college, joined them. They will be gone about a week.

None of the tracts of Christina Benfer's real estate was sold on Saturday. The highest bid on the house and lot was $1180. A relic of 1802 was disclosed in the form of a ground rent subject to which the land was sold when the town was laid out.

On Tuesday afternoon we received a private message from Medical Chirurgical College, Philadelphia, that Allen A. Yodor of Globe Mills, this county, had graduated from that institution with highest honors; this is certainly good news and we are glad to hear that our young friend has been so successful in his researches for medical ability and surgical skill.

Horace Alleman, Esq., of Selinsgrove has presented to the Snyder County Historical Society the original manuscript as it was prepared for the History of the Susquehanna and Juniata Valleys. The donation is very highly appreciated by the society. Those who have any articles of historical value or interest are invited to contribute the same to the society. The society ought to have a number of members in every district of the county, to assist in gathering historical data.

Latest Telegrams Wednesday afternoon say that Madrid is again rioting owing to the return to Cadix of the Cape Verde fleet.

MARRIED.

At the Reformed Parsonage in New Berlin May 5, 1898, by the Rev. S. S. Kohler Mr. Edward J. Carl and Miss Maggie M. Dock, both of Dry Valley Cross Road.

April 30.—At Adamsburg, by Rev. B. F. Kautz, Spencer E. Romig and Nettie E. Felker, both of Adamsburg.

May 1.—At Adamsburg, Samuel Kauffman of Sunbury, and Miss Mary Smith of Adamsburg.

May 5, at Forest Hill, Union Co., by Rev. S. B. Boughter, Israel Shemery of Franklin twp. to Ellen Aikey of Forest Hill, Pa.

May 3, by G. M. Shindel, clerk O. C., George Mull and Sallie Knouse, both of Penn twp.

May 3, at Centreville, by Rev. John M. Price, Harvey Moyer of Beaver twp. to Annie Hackenburgh, of Centre twp.

Bring Our Heroes Home

The beautiful song "Bring Our Heroes Home" dedicated to the Heroes of U. S. Maine is one of the finest national songs ever written. The words ring with patriotism and the music is stirring and full of fire, and fitting the noble sentiment to which it is declared. Arranged for Piano and Organ. This song and sixteen other pages of full sheet music will be sent on receipt of 25 cents. Address, POPULAR MUSIC CO., Indianapolis, Ind. 5-5-2t

UNION TWP.

We ought to have more Dewey mornings like the one on May 1, it would make us feel better.

J. S. Aucker and wife were visiting at Richfield over Sunday.

Miss Sallie Scholl went to Northumberland on Monday to spend the Summer.

The Witness K. L. C. E. will have a festival at the Aqueduct on Ascension day May 19th.

Rev. S. Brillhart and Stapleton held communion services at the Witmer's church on Sunday evening.

H. M. Krebs came home last Saturday from Philadelphia where he was attending the Medico Chirurgical college.

FREEBURG.

George W. Fredrick and Frank Holsapple have been engaged at erecting a kitchen.

Calvin Miller, J. H. and David Arbogast are engaged in erecting an expensive and well furnished pig stable on the premises of W. L. Bassler.

Prof. Boyer attended Sunbury court last week as a witness for the Commonwealth vs. W. H. Goodling.

The Washington township S. S. Convention held two interesting sessions Sunday forenoon and evening.

They elected, Pres., Prof. Boyer; V. Pres., Harvey Pontius; Sec. H. B. Moyer; Treas. B. F. Arnold, Ex. Com. J. J. Pawling, Charles Kissinger and H. S. Stahl.

George Boyer has improved the Empire Hotel graining the doors and wainscoting of the barroom and had his name printed in large letters on the front side of the house.

Senator Ebly and wife of Lancaster Co., Mr. Dagus and wife of Elk Co., brought their daughters to attend the musical college; they were well pleased with the management of the school.

The Lutheran and Reformed S. S. will observe Children's Day and they have procured True Sight Exercises to be used on this occasion.

John E. Moyer has erected a convenient office near his meat market in front street.

The delegates elected to represent our Sunday Schools at the county convention are at Middleburg attending to their duties.

Latest Telegrams Wednesday afternoon say that Madrid is again rioting owing to the return to Cadix of the Cape Verde fleet.

Sunday School Convention.

Delegates from all parts of the County Assembled in Middleburgh.

The 28th annual convention of the Snyder county Sunday school association convened in the Lutheran church of this place on Monday evening. The address of welcome was delivered by Rev. S. B. Boughter, the pastor of the U. B. church of this place, the response on behalf of the association was delivered by Rev. G. D. Druckenmiller of Freeburg, Mrs. Barnes, a prominent Sunday school worker of the state, was introduced, who gave a very enlightening talk on practical Sunday school work. The services were presided over by Prof. Wm. Moyer of Freeburg and Rev. S. S. Kohler of New Berlin invoked the divine blessings upon this convention.

TUESDAY MORNING.

Opened by singing, Prayer by Mr. Heister, "Our County Organization" was the first topic for discussion, opened by M. L. Wagenseiler, remarks by Rev. McLain and Mr. Heister, A letter from John Wanamaker was read, Prayer by Rev. Chilote, "Benevolence how best taught in the Sunday school" was next opened by Rev. L. Dice, remarks by Rev. McLain, Wm. Moyer and others. The report of the President was received. The delegates were enrolled and in the various reports were handed in with the annual dues. Several committees were appointed and the convention adjourned for dinner.

U. B. Quarterly Conference.

The 3rd Quarterly Conference of Freeburg Circuit, Eastern Conference, U. B. in Christ, will be held at Salem in the U. B. church near Oriental on Saturday and Sunday. Rev. H. W. Uhler, P. E., of Lebanon, will be present to conduct the services which will be as follows: Quarterly conference business meeting at 2 p. m. on Saturday; English preaching at 7.30 p. m.; Sunday school at 9 a. m. on Sunday; German preaching and communion at 10 a. m.; and English preaching at 7.30 p. m. The public in general is invited.

O. G. ROMIG, Pastor.

BEAVERTOWN.

Death has again visited our village and claimed for its victim Mrs. Mary Aigler, relict of Reuben Aigler. Mother Aigler was in her usual health and going about her work on Saturday morning, some time in the forenoon she got a basin of water and went to her room. At noon her daughter, Mrs. Frank Beaver, with whom she had her home, called her to come to dinner, but did not get a reply, whereupon she entered her room where she found her sitting on her rocking chair dead. The deceased was a consistent member of the Lutheran church, her maiden name was Eisenhower. The funeral took place on Tuesday, her age was 71 years, 4 mo. and 10 days.

W. H. Coleman and wife visited their son at Jerseytown recently.

Charles E. Freed who had gone to Elkhart, Ind., about six weeks ago has again returned to his home.

Jefferson Kern has rased one of the old houses on the old Beaver farm East of town to the ground and has the rough wall completed for a new house.

J. S. Kauffman, living several miles East of town, has built a two-story addition to his house.

Our Supervisor is putting a new stone crossing down between Mrs. Fisher's and Dr. L. E. Wolf.

W. F. Feese was in town the other day making a record of the tombstone inscriptions of our cemetery which will form part of the Post's history in the near future.

WHO WILL WIN?

Four Free Scholarships
To be awarded by Eastman Business College.

The Best Practical School in America.

TO THE FOUR PERSONS
Who secure the largest number of votes in the contest explained below.

Get your friends to subscribe for the POST and secure a Free Scholarship.

We have just concluded an arrangement whereby we are enabled to offer each of four young persons a free scholarship in the celebrated Eastman Business College, Poughkeepsie, New York, the New York Business Institute, 125th Street, New York City, or the National Correspondence Schools through which they give instruction by mail. These institutions are known in every section of the world. Their graduates are thoroughly equipped for business pursuits, and are numbered by tens of thousands. They are found in every city and in almost every county and village in the United States. The courses of study given are short, inexpensive, practical and useful and afford a better training for business than can be had in any other school.

$110-IN FREE SCHOLARSHIPS-$110

The following statement by Mr. Clement C. Gaines, President of the College, explains what the different scholarships are and what their value is as prizes.

$37—FIRST PRIZE—$37.

A $35 SCHOLARSHIP—BOOKS, $2.

Good for a term of twelve weeks personal instruction (at the College) in the ACADEMIC, BUSINESS, SHORT-HAND, TYPE-WRITING, TELEGRAPHY and PENMANSHIP departments, and $2 for complete Short-hand books. If the student prefer, instruction by Mail in Book-keeping and Short-hand of the same value will be given.

$32—SECOND PRIZE—$32.

A $30 SCHOLARSHIP—BOOKS, $2.

Good for a complete course in Short-hand (with books $2) including Principles, with practical work in Correspondence and Reporting, instruction exclusively by mail; or personal instruction of the same value (limited to ten weeks) in any department of the College, with our Simplified Short-hand Instructor $2.

$25—THIRD PRIZE—$25.

A $25 SCHOLARSHIP.

Good course in Book-keeping (without books) including both Single and double entry, principles and practical work, instruction by mail or personal instruction of the same value (limited to eight weeks) in any department of the College, without books.

$16—FOURTH PRIZE—$16.

A $15 SCHOLARSHIP—LESSON, PAPERS, $1.

Good for a term of ten weeks, correspondence instruction, in Short-hand, including lesson papers but no books; or personal instruction of the same value (limited to five weeks) in any department of the College, without books.

These prizes are easily obtained and the four young persons who make the most telling efforts and appeal to their friends for help will win them. The POST wants to add 1,000 subscribers to its list within the next 4 months. To accomplish this end it offers the scholarships to the four ladies or gentlemen who secure the greatest number of votes in our

EASTMAN COLLEGE CONTEST

which is started to-day and will close with the last issue of the POST for August, 1898. Every ballot cut from this paper counts one vote. Certificates for votes acquired by new subscriptions and renewals with cash in advance will be issued with ballot annexed, which must be filled out and forwarded to be counted. No votes except those written on the printed ballots out from the columns of this paper or those allowed for subscription, renewals, job-work and advertising will be counted. Extra copies of the POST may be obtained at 3 cents per copy.

VOTES ALLOWED FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS.

For every new subscription or renewal for a year accompanied by $1.00 in cash one hundred votes will be given.

For every six months subscription or renewal paying 50 cents fifty (50) votes will be given.

For every dollar's worth of job work, legal advertising, business advertising or other printing brought to this office, we will issue a certificate, when work is paid for calling for 100 votes in the contest.

Scholarship Coupon.

This Coupon entitles to ONE VOTE in the Middleburgh POST'S contest for 4 Scholarships at Eastman Business College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., worth $110.

GEO. W. WAGENSELLER,
Proprietor.

Musical College

The Musical College located at Freeburg, Snyder County, Pa., situated in a charming valley, pure air and romantic scenery combine to make it an ideal spot. The building is admirably adapted to its purpose, new facilities being added from time to time in accordance with the most advanced ideas, yet the charges are very low as the management desires to put its opportunities within the reach of all. The teachers are specialists in their respective departments, none but the best methods are used and the instruction is given individually. The students range from beginners who are just learning to read music to the advanced worker in harmony and in composition. Summer term will begin Monday, July 18, 1898. Catalogue free. Address, HENRY B. MOYER, Director. 5-5-2t.

Obituary of Philip Spaid.

As announced in last week's Post Philip Spaid died May 4, 1898. He was born Oct 4 1833, hence aged 64 years and 7 months. He was married August 15, 1858 to Catherine Smith to whom were born 2 sons and 5 daughters as detailed in last week's Post. All of them survive with 13 grandchildren. He was converted 11 years ago and became a member of the United Brethren Church of this place in which he remained faithful to life's close. The funeral took place on Saturday at which Revs. Romig of Richfield and Boughter of this place officiated.

The K. L. C. E. of Witmer's United Evangelical Church will hold a festival at the Aqueduct in Union township on Ascension day. Refreshments of all kinds will be served at same time. A silk name quilt of 300 names will be sold. Come and encourage us with your presence and help the good work along. X