has been in Jail here for the last three months awaiting trial for breaking into Focht's residence near Mahantongo, plead guilty to the charge before Judge McClure, who sentenced him to serve a term of four years in the Eastern penitentiary. Sheriff Ritter took him to Phila., on Tuesday morning. Without under- piate adresses will be delivered by standing the character of Lawless, this sentence would appear very harsh for the offence with which he was charged. When we understand that he was sentenced by the Northumberland County Court to serve in the Eastern penitentiary a term of 7 years and one month for highway robbery and upon annother occassion by the same judiciary for a year and i weed in the Surdame full the day-light in Wilkesbarre, to serve a term of five years, we can see that the proper place for him is in the per-itentiary. On the seven year's sentence he served 5 years and 9 months and on the 5 year's sentence bars, or just one-halt of his life. Surely he has an unenviable record.
