A Patriotic Commencement.

The 48th Commencement of Bucknell University closed at Lewisburg this week. On Tuesday afternoon, Gen. Daniel H. Hastings, LL. D., Governor of Pennsylvania, attended the exercises and made a patriotic address. The music during the week was furnished by the Third Brigade Band, of Pottsville. On Wednesday morning the college department held its graduating exercises in Commencement Hall. Four members of this class in the U. S. volunteer service with Co. A., 12 reg't., now at Camp Alger. Three of these, Corporal F. C. Katherman, and Privates R. F. Koons and M. C. VanGundy were here on furloughs to participate in the exercises and to receive their degrees. They wore the army uniform on the stage whilst the rest of the class was attired in the conventional cap and gown. The fourth member of the class, Serg't L. T. Fetzer, could not be present, but a vacant chair, decorated with flags, represented his place and when his degree was announced his diploma was placed upon the chair. At the annual exhibition of the Bucknell Academy on Tuesday morning, Private L. R. Ranek, Co. A., 12 reg't P. V. L., was present and pronounced his graduating oration. Another member of the class in the same service, J. W. McCracken, was not present but he was also awarded a diploma. Bucknell has 20 of her ungraduates in the various branches of the service, the infantry, artillery and cavalry.

The graduates of all departments numbered 71 at this commencement. The total enrollment for the year was 433, of which number 255 belonged to the college department.

WEST BEAVER.

Some of our farmers finished cutting grass last week. Charles Wagner is able to be out and around again, but it will still be a few weeks before he will be ready for hard work. John Quay Stealy's father is giving free exhibitions on Lowell streets with his wheel. One point he claims to be master of is that every time the wheel becomes unruly he can lighten his head. W. H. Knepp, blacksmith, expects to have carriage works attached to his blacksmith shop in the near future. Some of our farmers think it will not pay to cut some of their fields of wheat on account of the fly. Prof. Bowersox, Sheriff Ritter and Prothonotary Shindel, all of the County Seat, were at this end of the county last week one night in search of frogs. Their reward was a few orphans, as Reedy Stealy had captured the heads of the family a few days before. The party that scined the dam last Saturday was well rewarded. They caught a fine lot of pike. Some were supposed to be 20 inches in length. The Long and Short Festival held at Crossgrove last Saturday evening was for the benefit of the Shoe String Band for a bass fiddle.

KREAMER.

Miss Carria Hilbish of Selingsgrove is visiting her relatives in this vicinity. Mrs. Dora Mench of Cowan is the guest of Miss Emma Wagner. Miss Edna Smith and friend of Selingsgrove were calling in this locality one evening last week. Miss Izora Walter has returned home from a few days sojourn in Selingsgrove. C. C. Seebold of Sunbury last week placed a piano in the parlor of N. C. Gutelius. Roscoe North and Chas. Walter of Selingsgrove spent last Sunday in our town. A. C. Smith and wife were to Sunbury last Thursday. J. E. Wagner and sister drove to Middleburg last Sunday afternoon. Quite a number of young folks attended the festival at Salem on Saturday evening. Misses Mable Gutelius, Carrie Hilbish and Nora Kreamer attended children exercises at Salem on Sunday afternoon. Alvin Keck of Freeburg was in town one day last week. S. A. App and wife of Selingsgrove spent Sunday afternoon with the latter's parents in this place.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results," says Mr. W. B. Cooper of E. So. Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by all Druggists.
