LODGED IN JAIL.

Three Men from Shamokin in Jail Charged with the Robbery of J. P. Kantz.

On Saturday Chief of Police Gilman and Constable Campbell of Shamokin and Constable Gemberling of Selinsgrove brought Wm. and Daniel Kehler and Wm. Snyder of Shamokin to the county jail at this place. They are charged by J. P. Kantz of Monroe township with having burglarized his residence on Friday night, July 22, and stole therefrom $100 in money, a government check for $30 and a note for $100. The men were first arrested in Shamokin by the police last Friday night. On Saturday they were brought to Selinsgrove and given a hearing before Squire Holmes and in default of $1000 bail each, were brought to the jail at this place.

The prisoners claim that they can prove an alibi. One of the Kehlers says he was working night shift in a mine and that three other men were working with him. Snyder says that Dr. Harpel was in his house attending his sick wife between ten and eleven o'clock and some neighbors were in his house later that night.

We know nothing of the facts in the possession of the prosecution upon which they base their charges. It appears from admissions made by these men that they frequently did some fishing in that vicinity. If they are the guilty parties, there will be no trouble to prove that they frequently visited Mr. Kantz's home having quite often eaten at Mr. Kantz's table and even sold strawberries for Mr. Kantz in Shamokin. The prisoners are trying to secure bail from Shamokin to secure their liberty.

LATER INFORMATION.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Shade, a merchant of Shamokin, who on oath stated that he was worth $21,000, entered $1,000 bail for the release of William Kehler. He was accompanied by Squire Unger. These gentlemen say that the Kehler boys and Snyder have excellent reputations at home and they have no faith in the charge against them. The other Kehler and Snyder will probably get bail in a day or two.

An Appeal of the Red Cross Society

TO THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA:—The Associate Society of the Red Cross of Philadelphia has, during the present war and the distress in Cuba, which preceded the breaking out of hostilities between our country and Spain, been actively engaged in its humanitarian work of ministering to the necessities of the men in the field and of the suffering Cubans. It has sent many articles of comfort, even of life-saving importance to our troops in their various camps, sometimes in response to most touching appeals; the appeal came and the Society was ready. It has besides made a large number of shipments of goods, provisions, clothing, medicines to the Cubans. In all its work it has been nobly upheld, notably by the people of Philadelphia, but also by those of other parts of the State and of New Jersey.

During the blockade and the siege of Santiago, one branch of its ministrations was necessarily suspended, but the Society was not idle, stores continued to be received, money to be collected. Among other things the equipment of a field ambulance and hospital service has been undertaken, and already has so far proceeded as to be properly regarded as an accomplished fact, and the Society will be able to put into the field six ambulances, with proper appurtenances and a properly equipped field hospital.

The fall of Santiago reopens the opportunity of merciful work in Cuba. The Society has already made arrangements to forward several tons of stores, which have been only waiting for a chance to be sent, and has appropriated in addition for this shipment, $1,200. But this is but a drop in the ocean of suffering. More must be done. The Society proposes, therefore, to charter a steamer, to sail from Philadelphia about August 15th, to convey the ambulance corps and equipment to the front and to load the vessel with stores, such as soldiers may need and which the government does not provide, and with clothing, food, and medicine and such other things as may be required by those wretched, suffering people, by whom we encouraged to resist Spain and to make a struggle for liberty, and whose suffering has been fearfully and necessarily enhanced by the war upon which we have entered.

The Society, therefore, appeals to what has never been appealed to in vain, to the grand old heart of Pennsylvania, the grand old Commonwealth whose foundations were laid in love to man, irrespective of race, and asks for contributions of goods and money to enable it to carry out its project—to save lives—to relieve suffering—to feed the starving—to clothe the naked. The Society makes this appeal in all confidence. Pennsylvania has never yet failed when called upon in the name of patriotism and humanity. She will not fail now!

Contributions in money may be sent to William Hill, Treasurer, No. 308 Walnut Street, Philadelphia; contributions of stores addressed to the Associate Society of Red Cross, Philadelphia, 1501 Chestnut Street.

WEST BEAVER.

The Sunday School Convention held at Baker's church on last Sat. was well attended and passed off in good order. T. F. Swineford and H. W. Knepp of Siglerville were here on last Saturday putting up a hydraulic cider press for Amos Weader. Joseph Knepp of new Lancaster says he can make about 10 Barrels of cider this season. The oats crop is about all gathered and reported to be good. Mrs. Aurand and Mrs. Hook of Beaver Springs spent Sunday with some of their friends in West Beaver. It appears that J. J. Steely is the only teacher in Snyder County that has any of his pupils in the Spanish-American war. F. C. S. Peter spent Sunday at Cross Grove. He has been working in Lewistown for the past few more weeks. West Beaver can supply a few more hucksters with hen fruit as we have only one huckster for every two eggs. W. H. Knepp paid new Lancaster a visit on last Sunday to see some of his friends.

SELINSGROVE.

Prof. Geo. I. Stahl of Pittsburg who is visiting friends in this section of the state spent several days in town. Capt. Thomas Hoffman and wife of Bethlehem are spending some time with friends at present. They are being entertained by Mrs. Harry Boyer, daughter of the Capt. Frank Good and wife left for a trip to Oklahoma to visit their son who is living there. Quite an excitement was had on Saturday by the report that three prisoners supposed to be those who were in the house and robbed J. P. Kantz were being brought to town to a justice of the Peace. In the afternoon they were taken before Justice Holmes and in default of $1000 each, they were taken to jail. E. R. Wagner, a former student, was in town for several days recently. Simon Cameron and grand-son of Arizona are visiting friends in town. S. Oppenheimer, M. O. Snyder and Beck attended the Masonic Lodge meeting at Northumberland.

KREAMER.

W. W. Roush of Paxinos was visiting his parents over Sunday. Charlie Landis, who has been working in West Virginia for about two years, has returned home. I forgot to state in my last week's items that Ralph Heintzelman of this place has joined the regular army and is at present located in Georgia. Mrs. Annie Hottenstein of Middleburgh is at present visiting friends in this vicinity. Smith Reihl of Lewisburg is enjoying himself with friends and relatives of this place. Chas. O. Lenig, the patriot of this place, who is a volunteer in the twelfth regiment, was home on a furlough. Charlie certainly looks like a patriot in his uniform. The citizens had a chicken and waffle supper at the hotel in his honor. The people of this place can well be proud of their reputation in the army; Charlie is a true, warm-hearted and patriotic American and will give a good account of himself in battle if he only has a chance. Miss Jennie Bollinger is confined to her bed with a severe attack of sickness. Mr. and Mrs. Wetzel of Selinsgrove were visiting in town on Sunday. Stephen Mench, wife and daughter of near Millfinburg were friends here on Sunday.

A smooth, easy shave, genteel hair out, or other tonsorial work, is always obtained at Soles' Barber Shop, in Wittenmeyer's building, opposite Post office. Go to Soles and you will make no mistake, shaving soap, face cream, hair oil and egg-shampoo for sale. A. E. SOLES.
