Misjudged Him. Zim—So you have made up your old enemy? You admit, then, that you misjudged him? Zam—Yes; I thought I could lick him.—Up to Date. There Are All Kinds. Some men are born to lead upon the field, and some to sway their hearers in debate. While some are born to stay at home and growl because they're taxed a bit to pay the freight. —Chicago Daily News. IN STRANGE ATTIRE. "Nurse! Nurse! Bobby's out of bed, and running about in his banana suit!"—London Punch. The Modern Stamp Act. Stamp, brothers, stamp. Stamp with care. Stamp everything you Eat or wear. —Chicago Daily News. War Feeling. "So your wife went without a new gown to buy a silk flag—what touching patriotism." "Well—partly that and partly because she wanted to outshine her neighbors."—Detroit Free Press. Frightened. "How did you happen to tumble off your wheel just as Miss Risky passed?" "Why, the wheel shied at Miss Risky's short skirt."—Cycling Gazette. Two Changes. She—I think men used to marry younger than they do now, don't you? He—Yes; but women used to be willing to wash dishes then.—Puck. Going Into Debt. Miss Ann Teek—I begin to feel younger every day. Little Willie—Yes; mamma says you are getting childish.—Up to Date. Both Happy. In holidays there is a reason. They always occur for the best. His wife is away for the season. And so they will both have a rest. —Judge. Makes the Best of It. Cholly—I rather like Erkenudboy, he always smiles when he meets me. She—Oh, he's an optimist.—N. Y. Truth. About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better, by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy. —C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Glimmer Co., W. Va. Speer's Port Grape Wine Nine Years Old, Burgundy Eight Years Old, and Claret 16 Years Old. Extensive Wine Cellars. Storing, Ageing and Racking Wine. A wine made one year and sold the next is not a proper wine for invalids; to get rid of its coarse and injurious elements requires years for it to lay in wood casks, and by frequent drawing off from its gross sediment, or the coarse parts it becomes rich and mellow and valuable for invalids. It is sudorific, diuretic and blood making from the iron in the soil of the Speer vineyards in Northern N. J. The principal varieties are the Port, Burgundy, Sherry and Claret and the Climax brandy. All these wines when stored for years and drawn off from time to time in fresh fumigated casks become vastly superior products and necessarily are more expensive. This is why Speer's wines and Brandy are more costly and so far superior to the California wines. They are absolutely pure; unexcelled by any in the world. Speer's wines are ordered by wealthy and refined families in Europe where they are prescribed by physicians and are esteemed for their superiority, velvety roundness, full body and refined flavor. The efficacy of these wines is wonderful. It has been a study and a pride during Mr. Speer's life to produce a wine of the highest grade of perfection—not so much to make money as to excel in getting a wine of the richest character. He has spared no labor nor expense in bringing his vineyards and wines up to the above high standard of excellence. The Climax Brandy twenty years old is equal to the finest French brands. To be had of Druggists and Grocers who sell high class wines.
