This Country of Ours. The cross-roads editor, in addressing the pupils of the village school, said: "The possibilities of progress in this country are great. When they first caught me and brought me to this town I hadn't a shirt to my back. But in two years' time I was wearing shirts, with bone collar buttons; and it was not long before collars were put upon me; then I climbed into a coat; and only yesterday my good wife said to me: 'John, I'm going to order cuffs for you, with gold buttons! And all this in the short space of ten years!'—Atlanta Constitution. Thoughtless Girl. "A most thoughtless girl," said her mother, in accents of despair. "What has she done?" asked her father. "She sat on the beach this morning so close to the water that the spray from a breaker unexpectedly reached her," explained her mother. "And took the curl all out of her hair, I suppose," suggested her father. "Worse than that," answered the mother. "It ruined her bathing suit."—Chicago Post. Sailed for His Health. "My name was Capt. Kidd, as I sailed, as I sailed." The famous adventurer sang he. "If I didn't keep on sailing," He added, never pausing. "My name would have been Dennis, don't you see?"—Detroit Journal. Settling Him Right. "I am delighted," said the old friend who had called, "to find that you agree with your husband in everything, Mrs. Henpeck. "Indeed!" answered that estimable lady. "If you will take the pains to investigate our domestic relations, sir, you will find that it is Mr. Henpeck who agrees with me in everything."—Detroit Free Press. Not Very Encouraging. Mother—Well, professor, do you think you will be able to make a musician of my daughter? Professor—Alas! madam, I fear not. Mother—Why do you say that, professor? Professor—Threescore and ten is man's allotted number of years and I am now 55 years old. The time is too short, madam.—Chicago Daily News. The Joys of Love. "The happiest thing in the world is having a maid so true," he said. "It is not to be compared," she answered. "With having a trousseau made."—N. Y. Truth. About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Glimmer Co., W. Va. Speer's Port Grape Wine. Nine Years Old, Burgundy Eight Years Old, and Claret 16 Years Old. Extensive Wine Cellars. Storing, Ageing and Racking Wine. A wine made one year and sold the next is not a proper wine for invalids; to get rid of its coarse and injurious elements requires years for it to lay in wood casks, and by frequent drawing off from its gross sediment, or the coarse parts it becomes rich and mellow and valuable for invalids. It is sudorific, diuretic and blood making from the iron in the soil of the Speer vineyards in Northern N. J. The principal varieties are the Port, Burgundy, Sherry and Claret and the Climax brandy. All these wines when stored for years and drawn off from time to time in fresh fumigated casks become vastly superior products and necessarily are more expensive. This is why Speer's wines and Brandy are more costly and so far superior to the California wines. They are absolutely pure; unexcelled by any in the world. Speer's wines are ordered by wealthy and refined families in Europe where they are prescribed by physicians and are esteemed for their superiority, velvety roundness, full body and refined flavor. The efficacy of these wines is wonderful. It has been a study and a pride during Mr. Speer's life to produce a wine of the highest grade of perfection—not so much to make money as to excel in getting a wine of the richest character. He has spared no labor nor expense in bringing his vineyards and wines up to the above high standard of excellence. The Climax *** Brandy twenty years old is equal to the finest French brands. To be had of Druggists and Grocers who sell high class wines.
