Grape and Bark Bitters for Malaria.
 Every one knows the value of the grape as a nutritious and healthy fruit. Angr. Reichen's Malaria Bitters is the essence of the grape juice in its properties, mildly drastic, sudorific and tonic. More than seven-eighths is the pure juice of the grape, simply made bitter by Peru-vian Bark, Chinoiserie Flowers, Snake Root, etc., and will cure Malaria if used as directed.

A Fellow Feeling.
 "Do you mean to tell me that you gave that horrid tramp any money?" asked one girl.
 "Yes," replied the other. "I hadn't the heart to refuse him. He said he wanted some cold victuals, and I have known what it is to suffer for ice cream soda water myself."—N. Y. Evening Journal.
Saraly.
 A physician was called in to prescribe for a new client. He listened to a terrible tale from the invalid, who, by his own account, was suffering from all the ills known to diseased humanity. The list so impressed the doctor that at last he exclaimed: "What splendid health you must have to endure all these maladies!"—Judy.
Just the Thing.
 "You need a short vacation," said the doctor, "and a rest."
 "With not a bit of toll in any mode," said the farmer, with a wink: "Then I'd better go, I think, and be working out my taxes on the road."

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY,
 The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. F. BUTLER, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23rd, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at a critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."
 The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.

Farmers Break the Buggy Monopoly.

It is estimated that for years buggy manufacturers have secured exorbitant prices for their goods, but recently through the combined assistance of the farmers of Iowa, Illinois and other states, Sears, Roebuck & Co., of Chicago, have got the price of open buggies down to $19.50. Top Buggies $22.75. Top Sevens, $18.75 and upwards, and they are shipping them in immense numbers direct to farmers in every state. They send a catalogue free, containing free, postpaid, to any one who asks for it. This catalogue is a big volume for the farmer, but a severe blow to the carriage manufacturers and dealers.

New Book Free.

A valuable book giving complete information how I successfully cure consumption and other lung diseases will be sent free to the readers of this paper. Address Dr. Bartz, A. Inter Ocean Bldg., Chicago, Ill. 8-15-0m.

GRAPE HARVEST IN PORTUGAL.
 THE PORT GRAPES CARRIED TO THE TREADING VATS.

Scene at the Vineyards of Boa Vista, valley of the Douro: Women cut the bunches of grapes into small baskets, carry them a short distance and fill large baskets holding near 100 pounds. Then men with sheepskins thrown over their backs, and plaited straw knots on their heads, shoulder the baskets and move off in single file down the rugged winding paths and flights of steps to large vats, where the grapes are mashed for wine. The soil containing a large amount of iron.

Speer's Port Grape and Burgundy Wines are made from the same grapes grown on an eastern mountain slope in Passaic valley, New Jersey, the soil also abounding in iron produces the real Blood-making, Life-preserving Wines of the World—the old, original Port wine grape of Portugal. No other wines equal these for invalids, weakly persons and the aged. None put in market until nine years old. For SALE BY Druggists and Grocers.

Also the P. J. Sherry, Burgundy, Socialite, Claret vin. 1881, and Climax Brandy vin. 1878, all used extensively in Hospitals and among the Medical faculty as the best to be obtained. The unfermented Grape Juice is extensively used in New York churches for communion service.
