

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

When the Blood is Pure a Wound Heals Quickly. The Fact Demonstrated in the Case of a Baptist Clergyman of Ashley, Ohio.

From the Times, Ashley, Ohio.

Elder A. S. Shoemaker has been a lifelong resident of Ashley, Ohio, and is favorably known by a wide circle of friends in every part of the state. For many years he has been a prominent Baptist minister. He has been Mayor of Ashley for three successive terms, holding the position with dignity and honor, and has held other offices of trust. He is sixty-six years of age, hale and hearty, and attributes his present healthful condition entirely to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

"For about twenty-five years," he says, "I was afflicted with rheumatism and was confined to my bed. I could not remain in one position for more than a few moments at a time and could not sleep but little at night. I was dragging out a miserable existence. Especially during damp, lowly weather I would be very miserable. I frequently remarked that I was a traveling barometer, as I could always tell when a change in the weather was coming. I tried a great many remedies that were recommended, but they did not help me. One day while at work and complaining of my pain in the presence of Mr. Elias Bishop, a neighbor, he asked me if I had ever tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People; I told him no. I had never heard of them. He advised me to try them, saying they had benefited him and might help me. I replied, that I had no faith in any medicine as I had tried so many different remedies without receiving any benefit that I did not think it worth while to throw away more money.

"Time passed on for nearly a year until one night I was suffering intense pain and I

THE COMBINE SOUGHT TO BE MADE

All the Anti-Republican Forces Trying to Make a Dickering With Each Other.

The Democratic Harmony Committee and Mr. Wanamaker's Mugwump Organization Meet on the Same Day in Philadelphia—Mr. Wanamaker Gets Off the Same Old Sour Grapes Speech and the Democrats Have One of Their Same Old Fights. How the State Treasurer the Local Taxpayer.

Philadelphia, Aug. 20.—"If Donnelly says there ever was more than two policemen at any polling place in my ward he is a liar," shouted ex-Magistrate Jeter J. Hughes, the leader of the Delehanty Democracy, at the harmony meeting here last week.

Whereupon Magistrate Donnelly, of the Ryan Democracy, in a harmonious spirit of repartee and a geographicaly limited sense of judicial dignity, responded:

"If I had you outside I would punch your face."

The meeting of which this was a characteristic incident, and the meeting on the same day of Mr. Wanamaker's so-called Business Men's League, which seems to be an invention for pulling the business man's leg, together with the announcement of an attempt to make a truck-and-dicker deal between the two representative bodies, with Dr. Swallow between as the tongue of the wagon, made the last week a Democratic one, so far as news is concerned. For whatever is anti-Republican, by whatever name it is called temporarily, is Democratic, since it is the Democratic party which will profit in the state and nation by every vote cast against Republican candidates.

Moreover, there is no longer any concealment of the terms of the bargain that is sought to be made, nor of the stake which each party to the combine is expected to throw into the pot. The Democrats have already, at the Altoona convention, turned their backs on the national principles upon which they fought the last campaign. True, they did not do so without consulting the national leaders of their party, for I happen to know that in response to an inquiry from Colonel Guffey, as to how far they could go without being cast out of the fold, National Chairman Jones gave him full liberty to adopt or denounce any doctrine as might seem to him good, adding plaintively that he didn't see "the chance for Democratic success was very good anywhere this fall fall anyhow." Nor would they be, in the face of the magnificent Republican administration which the people are to vote their opinion in November, but that the discordant efforts of a few disappointed Republicans, who think their membership in the millionaires' club ought to make them the dictators of the party, and of a servicable lot of others who are always willing to shout for anybody who will pan out for "the legitimate expenses of the campaign," are enough to give interest to the situation and challenge every local Republican to do his duty.

Doctor Swallow, for his share, has already cast into the pot the distinctive principles of the Prohibition party, and is too busy abusing and maligning everything Republican (with the same reckless tongue which brought him trial in the Williamsport conference of his church upon the charge of being both a common and a specific and particular liar), to intimate to his hearers that whisky ought not to flow free as water.

The sacrifices which Republicans who are asked to leave their party will be expected to make were clearly outlined in Mr. Wanamaker's speech which was received with enthusiasm almost amounting to a tumult among the select gathering of 25 people to whom he read it. They are expected to see the Democrats and go them one further; to cast behind them not only their national but their state principles; to forget that there are such things as Democrats and Republicans, and to enter into secret alliance with any and every force which in the past has shown itself hostile to their party or the principles it represents, to the sole end of overthrowing the present leadership of their party, under which it has won the grandest and greatest victories in all its victorious history. That's all, and with the frankness of a tall that has determined to wag the dog, or was itself off a-trying, they brandish the declaration in advance that the men they hope to elect to the legislature under the guise of Republicans will all be pledged in advance not to go into the Republican caucus; in other words, not to abide the judgment of the party majority on any party question.

Whom they will vote for governor and the other state positions, and for congressmen-at-large, and for congressmen in the various districts, they do not say. The presumption is that their Democratic allies have made silence upon this point a condition of fellowship, leaving the matter open for separate dickering in various districts, according to circumstances. Well, it may be possible to make people forget all about the war and the tremendous questions which it leaves yet to be settled; forget that there is such a thing as Democracy and Republicanism, and turn a campaign whose issues are as important as any in 30 years upon the mere question of how many pasters and folders the legislature should employ, and what it should pay them per day, but the success of the scheme is open to doubt as clearly as its motives are open to suspicion.

It is said that "Hell hath no demon like a woman scorned," but she is good company alongside of a disappointed office-seeker, whose wrath would command the sun and the moon to stand still until his vengeance was satisfied. Garcia, taking his hungry Cuban army to the hills in a pet because Shafter wouldn't let him run the town, doesn't compare with these men demanding the heads of the Republican leaders under whose leadership they were fairly, squarely and completely debauched by the party in their negotiations for office. It is more like a man from Spain that Dewey and Schley shall be not promoted, but dismissed from their commands.

Mr. Wanamaker's speech at his little gathering, as a matter of fact, was disappointing, although it was much admired by the city papers, which get from four to six columns of good advertising from him every day. It was brilliant and vigorous, but it was the unprofitable vigor of a kicking mule. It was full of vituperative abuse of Republican administration of state affairs, but alleged nothing specific, and only repeated in general and more picturesque terms the old and discredited charges for which Dr. Swallow, when he put them in definite form, was criminally convicted in the Dauphin county court. It set up a ghost of dishonesty in state affairs, and then scared at it, although not one dollar has been lost or stolen from the state treasury by mismanagement or dishonesty in all the years of Republican administration, and it cried out against alleged extravagance and oppressive taxation under which the people are groaning, although not a man in all the state of Pennsylvania, except he has money at interest, pays a special license for conducting a particular business, or is a stockholder in a bank, a railroad company, or some like corporation, pays one cent of tax toward the support of the state government, directly or indirectly. If anyone will take the trouble to look at the official records he will see that there is only one county in the state, that of Philadelphia, which does not get directly back from the state in appropriations for local purposes, and which go to lighten the burden of local taxation, thousands of dollars more than it pays in, running in some of the poorer counties as high as eight times as much. There are only two counties, Philadelphia and Allegheny, which do not get back more money for common school purposes alone than all that their citizens pay in. The individual citizen in Pennsylvania, under the legislation which the Republican party has made, pays nothing as an individual toward the support of the state government. The corporation taxes and the special taxes and the license fees upon particular classes of business for the entire bill, and amount to over $3,000,000 besides, which is divided among the counties to lighten the burdens of local taxation.

This is the sort of a Republican record which anybody has to go up against who undertakes to make anti-Republican fight on state issues. The truth is that the state of Pennsylvania is not the oppressor of its citizens, but their benefactor, and nobody is "groaning" under anything worse than an unsatisfied ambition to hold office, or something he has eaten that doesn't agree with him. There are a good many people, you know, who mistake their inactive liver for an active conscience.

Mr. Wanamaker's speech was brilliantly composed, however, and as a piece of vituperative English reflects credit on the man who wrote it. "But that," as Mr. Kipling would say, "is another story."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local application as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed it has a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Blood-Cleaning.

House-cleaning is a duty in every well regulated household. People don't wait until the dirt becomes painfully apparent, but it stands to reason that in every day use more or less dirt or dust accumulates. It is so with the human blood. From the enormous variety of eatables taken into the stomach, a quantity of useless material is bound to accumulate in the blood and clog the free and wholesome flow in the vessels. Every person should, from time to time, take into the system the best cleanser and blood purifier in Cascara and Candy Cathartic. We recommend them to all our readers.
