Nothing Succeeds like Success.
The success of the Spear N. J. Wine Co. in producing an extra quality of Grape Brandy is marvellous. They rely alone on the grape for body and flavor, and hence there is a wide and growing demand for this Brandy which rivals the old brand of Cognac, France.

A Doctor.
'I suppose,' said Mr. Meekton's wife, who had been getting some new clothes, 'you are one of these men who complain because the fashions change so fast.'
'No,' he answered. 'When I look over some of the later ones I wish they'd change faster.'—Washington Star.
Just One Thing More.
Willie—Aunt Dinah, would you need anything to make your joy complete if you had a circus ticket and half a watermelon?
Aunt Dinah—Well, Ah sh'uld say dey would be something else.
Willie—What?
Aunt Dinah—De othah half o' dat meylum!—Up to Date.
Before and After.
'I am going to be married,' said Miss Trotter to Miss Kittish.
'You! You going to get married? I thought you were an inveterate man-hater, who wouldn't marry the best man living.'
'Yes, but that was before one of the horrid men had proposed to me.'—Tit-Bits.
What She Was.
Tommy—Come, Bridget, play with us. We're playing soldier.
Bridget—G'wan, yez little imp. Oi ain't no soldier.
Tommy—No, Bridget, but you're a red cross nurse.—Harper's Bazar.
And Him Scre.
'Do you expect there will be any men at the seashore, Isabel?'
'Of course; there was only one man there last year, but he promised me on his knees to be there again this season.'—Chicago Record.
Proof of It.
She—Do you think Friday is an unlucky day on which to get married?
He—Yes, very. I had a friend who got married on Friday and he had to go clear to Dakota to get a divorce.—Chicago Daily News.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.
SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. F. BUTLER, of pack train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23rd, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at a critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."
The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. Forward by all druggists.

Farmers Break the Guggy Monopoly.
It is claimed that for some time manufacturers have been selling their Guggy goods, but recently, through the assistance of the Agents of Iowa, Illinois and other States, they are selling down to $1.50. Top Guggies $2.25. Top Guggies $4.75 and upwards, and they are selling them in lump sum numbers about 1/2 price in every State. They send a printed copy of the new price list, to any one who writes for it. This certainly is a big victory for the farmer, but a severe blow to the carriage manufacturers and dealers. 7-14-11.

New Book Free.

GRAPE HARVEST IN PORTUGAL.
THE PORT GRAPES CARRIED TO THE TREADING VATE.
Scene at the Vineyards of Boa Viste, valley of the Douro: Women cut the bunches of grapes into small baskets, carry them a short distance and fill large baskets holding near 100 pounds. Then men with sheepskins thrown over their backs, and plaited straw knots on their heads, shoulder the baskets and move off in single file down the rugged winding paths and flights of steps to large vats, where the grapes are mashed for wine. The soil containing a large amount of iron.

Spear's Port Grape and Burgundy Wines are made from the same grapes grown on an eastern mountain slope in Passaic valley, New Jersey, the soil also abounding in iron produces the real Blood-making, Life-preserving Wines of the World—the old, original Port wine grape of Portugal. No other wines equal these for invalids, weakly persons and the aged. None put in market until nine years old. FOR SALE BY Druggists and Grocers.
Also the P. J. Sherry, Burgundy, Socialite, Claret vin. 1881, and Climax Brandy vin. 1878, all used extensively in Hospitals and among the Medical faculty as the best to be obtained. The unferrimented Grape Juice is extensively used in New York churches for communion service.
