Recentment.
"My friend was asking me whether you were an officer in the regular army," said the Kentucky gentleman's friend.
"No, sir," was the prompt and indignant reply. "The title I wear was bestowed upon me in appreciation of my personal qualities and not because I happened to be somebody's son."—Detroit Free Press.

He Had a Reason.
It was evident that something puzzled her.
"John," she said, at last, "why do you persist in calling me a torpedo boat?"
"Don't you remember that it was after midnight when I got home last night?" he asked, by way of reply.
"Yes, but—"
"And don't you also recall that you blew me up?"—Chicago Post.

She Took the Hint.
"To the barber I've been," says the knave, "I've just had a pretty clean shave."
The maid is not slow.
She turns the light low.
In the darkness, she knows love is brave.
—Up-to-Date.

IT WAS STRANGE.
"I say, waiter, this salmon cutlet isn't half as good as the one I had here last week."
"Can't see why, sir. It's off the same fish."—Punch.

Some Scoffers.
He scoffs at scars who never felt a wound;
He scoffs at woman's wiles who never fell a prey;
He scoffs at crying children who is not
Kept up all night when he has worked all day.
—Chicago Daily News.

A Thoughtless Remark.
It's remarkable," commented Mr. Meekton's wife, "how many men are anxious to leave home and engage in war."
"Yes," he answered, absently. "Some people never seem to know when they have enough of anything."
—Washington Star.

He Knew the Cause.
The Romancer—My hair turned white in a single night of speechless agony.
The Dyspeptic—What had you eaten for supper?—Up to Date.

A Domestic Surprise.
I kissed and called her "dear,"
And in her soft hazel eyes
There stole a look of real surprise—
We'd married been—one year.
—N. Y. World.

An Indictment.
Singleton—Now that you have been married to the heiress for several months, I want to ask you: Is marriage a failure?
Benedick—Well, my wife has suspended payment.—Brooklyn Life.

GRAPE HARVEST IN PORTUGAL.
THE PORT GRAPES CARRIED TO THE TREADING VATS.
Scene at the Vineyards of Boa Vista, valley of the Douro: Women cut the bunches of grapes into small baskets, carry them a short distance and fill large baskets holding near 100 pounds. Then men with sheepskins thrown over their backs, and plaited straw knots on their heads, shoulder the baskets and move off in single file down the rugged winding paths and flights of steps to large vats, where the grapes are mashed for wine. The soil containing a large amount of iron.

Speer's Port Grape and Burgundy Wines are made from the same grapes grown on an eastern mountain slope in Passaic valley, New Jersey, the soil also abounding in iron produces the real Blood-making, Life-preserving Wines of the World—the old, original Port wine grape of Portugal. No other wines equal these for invalids, weakly persons and the aged. None put in market until nine years old. FOR SALE BY Druggists and Grocers.
Also the P. J. Sherry, Burgundy, Socialite, Claret vin. 1881, and Climax Brandy vin. 1878, all used extensively in Hospitals and among the Medical faculty as the best to be obtained. The unfermented Grape Juice is extensively used in New York churches for communion service.
