

A GRAND FALL OPENING

—OF—Clothing
—AT—

BROSIOUS BROTHERS,
Sunbury, Pa.

Saturday, October 1st, 1898, will be just five months we have been searching the country for Clothing and Furnishing Goods for the occasion. We can then say: Not a stone has been left unturned in our effort to excell all others, not only in style, but quality and prices. You will then see here the Largest and Handsomest display of nobby Suits and Overcoats that have ever, been your good fortune to look at. The prices have been made to please and astonish all.

Men's Suits, $2.50 to $20.00.

Youths' Suits, $2.00 to $15.00.

Boys' Suits, 98 Cents to $6.00.

Children's 3 to 8 year Suits.

98 Cents to $5 00.

Overcoats, $198 to $30.00

We extend a Hearty Welcome to all to Call if Only to Look.

COUNTY GULLINGS.

Breezy Items Picked up Here and There about the County and Noted for Your Enlightenment.

Davis H. Gift of Paxtonville found a half-cent bearing the date of 1809.

David Kerstetter of Perry township was bitten by a copper snake last week.

Capt. L. C. Edmunds, of Canaan, Ohio, is visiting friends in the upper end of the county.

Isaac Fisher caught an eel in the river at Shamokin Dam which weighed nearly nine pounds.

Dr. E. M. Miller has purchased the John C. Small property at Beavertown for $1115.

Two grand concerts will be held in Selinsgrove on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

Chas. O. Lenig, one of the 12th Regt. boys, who had been in the Sunbury hospital sick with typhoid fever, is able to be about again.

There is some talk at Adamsburg about erecting a local telephone line and perhaps extending it to Middlecreek and Troxleville.

The Shriner postoffice has been named, the postmaster having been commissioned and the service will be inaugurated the first of October.

Miss Kate Wagenseller of Selinsgrove has moved her millinery store into the room occupied by the late Judge J. G. L. Shindel for a drug store.

Dr. L. E. Wolfe who resided at Beavertown for the past three years intends to locate at Kinzer, Lancaster County. He will leave about Oct. 1st.

The shoe factory firm at Selinsgrove is advertising for girls to work at the factory. Girls can make good wages after learning to manipulate the machines.

Some old coins have been unearthed at Adamsburg lately. William B. Woodling found a copper coin bearing the date of 1794 on his farm and Clarence Klinepeter has a similar coin dated 1792, found along the run west of Adamsburg.

Rev. I. P. Zimmerman was installed last Sunday as the pastor of the Beaver Springs charge of the Lutheran church. Rev. Dr. J. R. Dimm, President of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, delivered the sermons at Beavertown in the morning and at Adamsburg in the evening.

Prof. George Fisher of Salem has inaugurated a series of Sunday evening meetings to be held in the S. S. room of the church for the discussion of Bible subjects.

By a sudden lurch of the train while rounding a curve below Paxtonville, Conductor Ewing was hurled from the car in which he was standing, landing upon head and shoulders he received contusions, that at the time were thought fatal. Later reports, however, say that he will recover.

J. Albert Swartz, an employee in the general passenger department of the Nickel Plate Railroad, located at Cleveland, Ohio, is spending a two weeks' vacation at Troxleville—the home of his childhood. It is four years since he left there. He was single then, but now he is married and Mrs. Swartz has accompanied him on this visit.

The Salem correspondent to the Tribune last week says: "The sale at the church on Saturday last drew an interesting gathering of buyers. Some mementoes and curios were disposed of to competitive purchasers. On May 28, A. M. 1816, the trustees held a sale of effects and sold the altar of the church of 1775 to Martin Rau for 74 cents; the corner stone went to Jacob Schoch for 17 cents; the old church to Frederick Enterline for $24.00, &c. In the year of our Lord A. D. 1900 we are going to have a rousing memorial service for the church and her historic association, all depending on the vim of the people and A. V."

SELINGSGROVE.

Dr. William Ulsh, surgeon on the U. S. Torpedo boat Yankton, spent Sunday with his parents. The Misses Hill of Hughesville are being entertained by Dr. Dimm's. Frank Good and wife have returned home from their two months' trip in the west. The Susquehanna football team was defeated at Carlisle by Dickinson by the score of 24-0. William Keys of Stanton, Va., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Rev. Barb. Murray Smith and wife returned from their wedding trip on Saturday evening. Mrs. Samuel Pawling, who spent two weeks at Beavertown, is again among us. The Jewish holidays were appropriately celebrated. Mrs. William Miller and daughter have returned to their home in Brooklyn. Ray Crouse and friend of Philadelphia are spending two weeks in town. The fat and lean men of town played a game of base ball on Friday in which the fats won 28-13. Miss Helen Bentz, who has spent the past month with her uncle, Joe Schari, has returned to her home in Philadelphia.

ADAMSBURG.

Mrs. Daniel Smith from Yeagerstown, is being entertained by her sister, Mrs. L. R. Haines. Messrs. Dreese, Branthofer, Oles, Nelson and Finch from Lewistown, were guests at Reuben Dreese's on Sunday. The Oyster Supper given by the Odd Fellows, in their beautiful hall on Saturday evening was highly enjoyed by all present. Clark Boyer and Miss Bertha Osann, from Paxtonville, called on friends at this place on Sunday afternoon. Miss Nellie Smith has gone to Lewistown, where she will enter a millinery store. Rev. Dimm from Selinsgrove, spent Sunday in town. He assisted in installing Rev. I. P. Zimmerman. Mrs. A. C. Landis, nee Dessie Helfrich, from Altoona, is visiting her many friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Banks Dreese is visiting her son, Daniel, at Chillisquaque. Drs. A. M. and C. G. Smith removed a tumor from the throat of Mrs. Joel Gearhart on Monday morning. She is getting along as well as can be expected. Jas. Aurand and Miss Lizzie Baker from Dormantown were the guests of J. M. Baker's over Sunday. Miss Carrie Stumpf from near Sunbury, was a recent visitor at the home of her grandparents, Isaac Aurand's. A. M. Aurand moved into his handsome residence on Thursday. John Lloyd, wife and child from Wagner attended the Oyster Supper on Saturday evening. Mrs. John Rauch, from Bloomsburg is visiting relatives in town.

KREAMER.

Chas. Lenig, the soldier boy, is home of a thirty days' furlough. We are glad to see Charlie back again. Prof. F. C. Fisher of Salem was calling in this vicinity on Saturday evening. A. D. Kreamer is the owner of a fine breech-loader shot gun and rifle combined. J. F. Walter and G. C. Stuck were to Selinsgrove last Saturday. George Aurand is making preparations to build a new barn to replace the one destroyed by fire some time ago. John Kreger and Miss Lillie Stetler rode to this place last Sunday on their wheels. Mrs. Maude Bussom of Williamsport is the guest of Miss Izora Walter. Philip Roush's new house is on the way toward completion. It will be a cozy and comfortable looking house when completed.

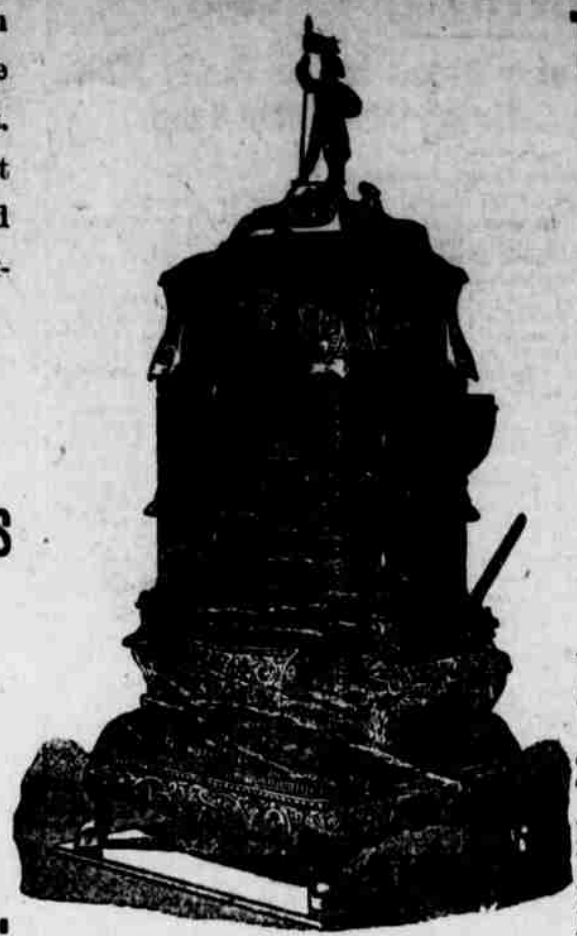

WANTED—SEVERAL TRUSTWORTHY persons in this state to manage our business in their own and nearby counties. It is mainly office work conducted at home. Salary straight $200 a year and expenses—definite, bonafide, no more, no less salary. Monthly 975. References. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. Herbert E. Hess, Pres., Dept. 11, Chicago.

MIDDLEBURGH STOVE MARKET

The Largest Stock of High Class Stoves and Ranges ever Brought to Snyder County.

We defy competition in the Stove Market. We show you what you get. We set up the stove, put it where you want it and guarantee you a satisfactory article.

Sunshine and Red Cross RANGES AND HEATERS.

THE ACORN HEATERS Are the Pride of the Owner.

Every brand of we keep in the Middlecreek Valley. We deal also in all of Graniteware, Tinware, Stove pairs and every usually kept in a regulated store line.

SCHOCH & STAHLNECKER,
Opposite County Jail. Middleburgh.

O. E. CONVENTION

Harrisburg, Sept. 24.—The General Committee having charge of the arrangements for the great State convention of the Society of Christian Endeavor, to be held in Harrisburg, October 4th, 5th, and 6th, are delighted to announce that the railroad companies have conceded one fare for the round trip on card orders, which will be furnished on application to J. N. Hetrick, of Lancaster, State C. E. transportation agent.

It was decided to arrange for an excursion to Gettysburg, to leave Harrisburg via the C. V. R. R. at 7:30 A. M., Friday, October 7th, the day after the convention closes. The special train is to stop at the Indian Training School and remain there for a band serenade, to be given by the Indian boys. At 10:15 they will arrive at Gettysburg, where dinner will be served at 11 o'clock. At 12 o'clock the excursionists will take the trolley line and, under guides and lectures furnished by the company, will visit the battlefield, returning in time to leave for Harrisburg at 4 P. M., where they will arrive in time to take supper before leaving for home points. Wednesday, at some hour hereafter to be set, an excursion will be run to Camp Meade to enable the Endeavorers to see the army at our doors. Thursday evening a two-hours' carriage drive will be given to those who wish to go up the east shore of the Susquehanna, a rate of twenty-five cents having been made for the round trip.

Wednesday and Thursday mornings sunrise meetings will be held in the Fourth Street Church of God and at 8:30 A. M. a quiet hour service will be held in the Market Square Presbyterian Church.

On Wednesday simultaneous conferences will be held for those who are interested in special lines of committee work beginning at 10:30 A. M., prominent leaders in the special lines being in charge. At 5 P. M. Wednesday, a children's evangelistic meeting, which will be largely attended, will be held in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church. At noon Wednesday and Thursday thirty-five evangelistic services will be held in as many different places in the city.

The programme will be a twenty-page book well illustrated with half-tone cuts of prominent places of interest in the city and is to be bound in a handsome gold-colored cover with title printed in purple.

Secretary D. D. Hammelbaugh reported that the school board had decided, in view of the very large number of pupils who would attend the junior rally, over twelve hundred of the school children taking part, that they would close the public schools Thursday afternoon.

One of the greatest events will take place Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when more than twelve hundred juniors, led by a cornetist,

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

Desiring to go out of business between now and spring, I will positively

CLOSE OUT MY ENTIRE LINE OF GOODS at unheard of low prices. If you are in need of clothing for your family and children.

Now is The Time to Buy as you may never have another such an opportunity.

R. GUNSBERGER,
MIDDLEBURGH, PA.

will assemble on the streets contiguous to the hall and marching far enough to get properly in line, probably around the square, will enter the convention hall, where they will render a programme entitled "The Juniors and Father Time," arranged by Miss Minerva J. Early, of the Memorial U. B. Church.

Thousands of people are coming and Harrisburg will entertain them royally.

DIED.

Sept. 12, in Monroe twp., Carrie May, infant daughter of Thomas and Heneretta Hummel, aged 11 months and 13 days.

Sept. 15, at Dry Valley X Roads, Clyde Beaver, son of B. F. and Sadie Doek, aged 2 years, 3 months and 9 days.

On Sept. 18, 1898, near Richfield, Annie Sophia, daughter of Willis and Agnes Shrawder, aged 6 years, 4 months and 4 days. Funeral was held on the 21st inst. at Arbogast's Church, Rev. O. G. Romig officiated.

Sept. 19, at the Red Cross Hospital at Camp Meade, of typhoid fever, Philip Pontius Baker, son of Sarah Baker of Lewisburg, widow of John Baker, deceased, aged 23 years, 7 months and 5 days. Interment at the Lewisburg cemetery.

Sept. 8, at her home, near Laurelton, Mary Lorena Diehl, wife of Samuel Diehl, aged 41 years, 10 months and 13 days.

Sept. 15, near Sunbury, Daniel M. Wilt, brakeman, the result of an accident, aged 35 years and 9 months. Interment at Shamokin Dam.

Stop, Look and Listen

So the Supreme Court has before you come to a Railroad, but when you come, place you need not stop, listen, but come right in and advantages of my reduced prices.

Seven Days Only, Oct. 1-7.

inclusive. I will reduce my prices as follows: That which I reduced to $2.50, to $2.00; that which I reduced to $2.00, to $1.50; that which I reduced to $1.50, to $1.00; that which I reduced to $1.00, to $0.75; that which I reduced to $0.75, to $0.50; that which I reduced to $0.50, to $0.25; that which I reduced to $0.25, to $0.10; that which I reduced to $0.10, to $0.05; that which I reduced to $0.05, to $0.01. Do not forget the dates: Oct. 1-7, inclusive. Everybody a Court with your jug prepared advantage of the prices.

J. L. MARKS, Dist.
MIDDLEBURGH, PA.

A Pastor's Annual Report

The following is a brief of the annual report which G. Romig, pastor of Freeborn, United Brethren in Christ, presents to the annual conference which meets at Reading, Pa. Members received during the year, 26; Members died during the year, 6; Members at present, 300; ed for missions, $50.00; far conference assessments, sermons preached, 132; special dresses delivered, 30; office funerals, 20; Baptized 9 adults, 14 infants; pastoral visits, 350.

A. A. Ush and family of creek, on Sunday, were the Mrs. Barbara Yoder and