Lemons as Medicine.

Coughs and Other Ailments are Relieved by Them.

Lemon juice sweetened with loaf or crushed sugar will relieve a cough.

For feverishness and unnatural thirst soften a lemon by rolling on a hard surface, cut off the top, add sugar, and work it down into the lemon with a fork, then suck slowly.

During the warm months a sense of coolness, comfort, and invigoration can be produced by the free use of lemonade. For six large glasses of lemonade use six large juicy lemons, roll on a hard surface, so that the juice can be easily extracted. Peel and slice. Add sufficient sugar to sweeten, and stir well into the juice before adding the water.

Hot lemonade will break up a cold if taken at the start. Make it the same as cold lemonade, only use boiling water instead of cold water, and use about one half as much sugar.

A piece of lemon, or stale bread moistened with lemon juice, bound on a corn, will cure it. Renew night and morning. The first application will produce soreness, but if treatment is persisted in for a reasonable length of time a cure will be effected.

The discomfort caused by sore and tender feet may be lessened, if not entirely cured, by applying slices of lemon on the feet.

To cure chilblains, take a piece of lemon, sprinkle fine salt over it, and rub the feet week. Repeat if necessary.

Lemon juice will relieve roughness and vegetable stains on the hands. After having the hands in hot soap suds, rub them with a piece of lemon. This will prevent chapping and make the hands soft and white.

MASS MEETING.

Col. Stone, Gen. Latta, Mr. Fearless and Congressman Mahon Addressed the Republican Meeting Monday Afternoon.

A rousing Republican mass meeting was held here on Monday afternoon in which the issues of the campaign were discussed by the leading candidates of the state ticket. Notwithstanding the almost constantly falling rain during the day, the court house was filled to its utmost capacity. The Freeburg and the Middleburgh cornet bands were engaged for the occasion and enlivened the proceedings during the interim between the speeches. M. I. Potter, Esq., of this place was elected President of the meeting and a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries were also elected. The first speaker on the program was Col. W. A. Stone, the candidate for Governor. He exhibited to the audience that taxation upon Snyder county people was much less for State purposes now than formerly and that our county received from the State much more than it paid into the State Treasury. The next speaker on the program was Gen. James W. Latta, the candidate for Secretary of Internal Affairs. He alluded to his knowledge of some of the brave men whom he knew who in 1861 went to the front from Snyder County to fight to maintain the flag. He spoke eloquently of national issues and in general maintained his reputation as a forcible speaker. Mr. W. H. Fearless of Virginia was introduced and after expounding the record of the republican party, he contrasted the growth of Pennsylvania with that of his own state and explained that the slow development of Virginia was due to Democratic rule. Congressman T. H. Mahon then took the floor and owing to the short time until the train would arrive, he could not go into the details of the campaign, but promised to see the people again in this campaign. The meeting then adjourned.

TROUTMAN-SCHOCH.

Wednesday afternoon of last week at one o'clock, a very pretty wedding occurred at the residence of Dr. John Schoch of Hummel's Wharf, when his daughter, Nora Irene, was united in marriage by Rev. John Barb to Durbin Troutman of Newport, Perry County. Wm. G. Von-Neida of Selingsgrove was best man and Miss Carrie, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. May Schoch, another sister of the bride, played the wedding march. Hiram Sigfried of Selingsgrove was usher. The guests were made up principally of relatives and very close friends. After the two were pronounced as man and wife a sumptuous wedding banquet was served in Mrs. Schoch's best style. The bridal party accompanied by ten friends drove to Shamokin Dam and at Sunbury Mr. and Mrs. Troutman boarded the train for Philadelphia, Washington and other points South.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schoch. She is a graduate in music of Kee Mar College of Hagerstown, Maryland, and the groom is a prosperous young man from our sister county. They will make their home at Newport upon their return. The Post joins their many friends in extending to the young couple its best wishes for a long and palmy future.

Do Not Read Newspapers.

A county superintendent in a neighboring county asked every teacher at the county institute who took their local or county paper to hold up their hands, and only six responded. The superintendent expressed great surprise and said: "You don't spend a dollar with those papers, yet you expect them to print free of charge notices of all institutes, insert long programs, expect them to advertise you, thus assisting you to climb the ladder to a better position and salaries without paying a cent in return."

JUDGE SAMPSELL KILLED.

The many friends of the deceased were not so easily kept away. They had learned to love the departed one and now they proposed to use the last opportunity to pay their respects to the remains of their informant friend. All the camps of the Patriotic Order Sons of America in Snyder County were present and also four camps from Union County were in attendance. The home camp at Centerville had charge of the funeral. The deceased was elected Past President of the camp organized at that place about two months ago. The pall-bearers were William Hartman, James Spangler, Luther Stone, Henry Bowen, Calvin Bowersox and Luther A. Mertz. The remains were taken to the church where Revs. Kohler and Schoch preached funeral services. They were assisted by Revs. Price and Lee. Judge Sampsell's Sunday School class held a memorial praise service also at the church. A procession then moved to the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery where the remains were interred. The floral tributes were something elaborate and seldom seen in this section. The County officers and the Middleburgh lawyers expressed their token of esteem by presenting a beautiful floral lyre and a model of Gates Ajar. The P. O. S. of A. camp at this place presented a floral chair and a floral cross. The Centerville camp presented a floral shield of the order and the hosts of other friends gave other floral tributes as a slight token of esteem. The church where the services were held was very beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and flowers.

Judge Sampsell was a consistent member of the Lutheran church at Penn's Creek and for a long while was their deacon and at the time of his death was a trustee of the congregation. He was a regular attendant of Sunday School and a teacher of a class. For six or eight years he was the superintendent of the Sunday School and served in that capacity until the last few years. He was recently elected a delegate from Snyder County to the State Sunday School Convention to be held at the latter part of this month at Johnstown, Pa. He who calls one of all has called our brother home. Judge Sampsell added dignity and righteousness to the bench; he carried with him that reverential feeling that always commands respect and admiration and the loss sustained in his death is a loss not only to his family as a father and a husband where his place can never be filled, but on the bench and among his friends and acquaintances who are legion. While the funeral procession was marching to the tomb, all nature was clouded in gloom as if it were mourning with his friends for the departed.

The unhappy occurrence has cast a gloom upon the entire county and the court on Monday adjourned to Tuesday out of respect for the late unfortunate Associate Judge. It is in loving remembrance of faithful, honest, public officer to whom we now dedicate this edition of the Middleburgh Post as the Memorial to the late Judge Sampsell. We do it in behalf of his large circle of acquaintances and friends who appreciate this slight mark of esteem and affection.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom and goodness to call away, through death, our beloved brother, H. Sampsell, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That while we bow ourselves in humble submission to Him, who doeth all things well, we sincerely mourn the loss of one whose absence and patriotic spirit will be felt by all.

RESOLVED, That Camp 549, P. O. S. of A., in particular, loses a valuable and beloved brother, whose devotion and interest were always with the camp.

RESOLVED, That Snyder County loses one of its best officials, a community a highly respected citizen, and the wife and children a loving and affectionate husband and father.

RESOLVED, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days and that we extend to the bereaved friends our sincere and heartfelt sympathy.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be printed in the county paper the "Lewisburg Saturday News," recorded on the minutes of our Camp and a copy be sent to the grief-stricken family.

Brother dear, can it be,

Thy loving face we cannot see?

Those eyes that now are closed in death,

We'll think of until our latest breath;

And when we see your vacant chair,

Our grief, indeed, is hard to bear.

This May Save Your Vote.

The election this year comes on Tuesday, Nov. 8th. To have a vote at this election your tax must be paid thirty days before election. Hunt up the tax collector of your district and pay your tax. The law does not permit the payment of taxes by committees. Every voter must pay his own tax. Attend to this important business before it is too late.

There will be an echo meeting of the Reformed church Saturday, Oct. 8. At this time delegates who have attended the State C. E. convention at Harrisburg, will report. Rev. Kohler and Rev. McLain will speak concerning the C. E. work, and Cyril Haas of Selingsgrove will speak of evangelistic work and conduct the consecration meeting. All the Christian Endeavor Societies of Middleburgh are invited to be present and take part in the exercises.
