Secretary Edward's Fancies.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 1.—The funeral of Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Warren, at Dedham, Mass., last Wednesday, took place today from the Old Swede's church. All business places and many residences were decorated with emblems of mourning. The honorary pallbearers were Ex-President Grover Cleveland, Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles S. Fairchild, Ebe W. Tunnell, governor of Delaware; Chancellor John R. Nicholson, George L. Rives, of New York city; John V. Craven, and Thomas Craven, of Salem, N. J.; Judge Ignatius C. Grubb, Dr. James A. Draper and Henry G. Banning, of Wilmington.

Decided Against Governor Pingree.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 4.—The Michigan supreme court, in an opinion filed late yesterday afternoon, reversed the decision of the Wayne county (Detroit) circuit court in the case brought by Governor Pingree to compel the Michigan Central Railway company to sell mileage books at a flat two cent rate. The court holds that the company, under its special charter, has a right to fix its own tolls; that this is a vested right, which the state must pay for if it takes it away.

New York Paving Frauds.

New York, Oct. 4.—Mayor Van Wyck made a statement yesterday to the effect that the commissioners of accounts had discovered gigantic frauds in the asphalt paving contracts. The mayor turned over the papers in the case to District Attorney Gardner, who will prosecute the men charged with participating in the frauds.

Victory For Ohio Mine Strikers.

Columbus, O., Oct. 4.—The miners' strike at Dillonvale and Long Run has been settled, part of the men returning to work yesterday and the others today. Over a thousand men were out. The settlement is a victory for the miners as all points but one were gained by them.

M. Cambon's Successor at Washington.

Paris, Oct. 4.—Figaro states that Count D'Aubigny, now French charge d'affaires at Munich, will replace M. Cambon as minister to the United States and that M. Cambon will go to Madrid. These chances, the paper says, were decided upon at yesterday's cabinet council.

New Jersey's Republican Committee.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 4.—The Republican state committee met here yesterday and re-elected Franklin Murphy chairman, Augustus C. Barber, Jr., of Gloucester, secretary, and John Keen, of Union, treasurer. Acting Governor Voorhees was present.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i.e. Theory) says is best to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

Equal to the Occasion.

"I suppose," said Elder Knapplong, as he took a seat on a bench in Deacon Ironside's shop and glanced around with a humorous twinkle in his eye. "It has never occurred to you to get up a book of proverbs out of your old saws?"

"No," admitted the deacon, "it never has. Still," he added, "I generally put 'em on file."—Chicago Tribune.

A Rising Photographer.

"What you doin' out wid dat camera to-day, 'Rastus?"

"I been photographin' mammy, o' course."

"What you been?"

"Down back of Mr. Simmons' chicken coop."

"Take anything?"

"Jes' a pair o' pullets. I lef' 'em in de kitchen."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by all Druggists.

WANTED—SEVERAL TRUSTWORTHY persons in this state to manage our business in their own and nearby counties. It is mainly office work conducted at home. Salary straight $200 a year and expenses—definite, no more or less salary. Monthly $75. References. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope, Herbert E. Hess, Pres., Dept. M, Chicago. 9-15-19L.

Not An An Experiment.

First Humorist—I've tried to sell these jokes at nearly every office, but they won't work anywhere.

Second Humorist—What kind of jokes are they?

First Humorist—Oh, they're tramp jokes.

Second Humorist—Well, then it's not surprising that they won't work.—N. Y. World.

A Bad Attack.

"The bedbugs are awful at my place," said the lurid lunatic. "They got into the springs of my watch and stopped it."

"How did they get into the watch?" asked the man who bites.

"Through the tick," said the lunatic.

Then he laughed, hal hal!—N. Y. World.

Safe Presumption.

"When a woman," said the philosopher, "says that she really believes she is getting stout, and her husband reports that it is because she eats too much and doesn't do enough work, it is safe to presume that the honeymoon has ceased to be."—Tit-Bits.

She Knew Too Much.

Albert—I haven't seen anything in the papers lately about the dangers of kissing.

Winifred—Oh, I always knew there was nothing in those stories.

And now she wonders why he is so cold and distant.—Chicago Daily News.

Why She Thought So.

Bridget—O'm going to put a stop to the policeman's visits.

Mistress—Why, Bridget?

"O! think he's fooling me. He's been calling on me six months and his appetite is as good as ever."—Harlem Life.

Reasoning from Observation.

Miss Chatter—I knew you would be here to-day to see sister.

Mr. Cudler (interrog.)—Intuition?

Miss Chatter—No—observation. You always appear on the same day that Ethel refuses onions at dinner.

Scene in Speer's Vineyard.
AT PAXSON, N. J.

Gathering the Grapes for Speer's Port & Burgundy Wine.

Wrinkled faces, furrowed and aged, but this is just what they want, a genuine old-fashioned, rich Blood-making Wine.

Speer's Port & Burgundy Wine.

The Finest Wine in the world from his 56 Acres of Vineyards, where the soil is rich in iron, imparting it to the Oporto grape and the grape to the Wine—causes the dark, deep rich color, and blood-making property of this life-giving Wine. The Iron in it. This is the Wine that beats the world in its valuable medicinal qualities, for family use and evening parties; it is especially beneficial for females, invalids and aged persons.

The Port Wine is nine years old and the Burgundy, a rich dry wine eight years old.

The Claret equals the finest French product.
