State S. S. Convention

Johnstown, Oct. 8.—Active preparation is in progress on the part of all concerned for the great State Convention of Sunday School workers, which is to be held here on the 18th, 19th, and 20th of this month. The general officers of the State Association have now completed what is conceived to be one of the strongest programmes ever presented at a similar gathering in the State, and they report great interest in the coming meeting at the various county and district conventions which they are attending and at which delegates to the State Convention are being chosen.

The local workers are doing their full share to insure the success of the meeting. Preparations for the parade, a new and leading feature, are being made under the able direction of Rev. C. C. Hays, of the First Presbyterian Church, who is admirably fitted for the task by reason of his successful work with the Boys' Brigade. Committees on music, reception, and entertainment of delegates, which latter will be furnished free by the people of Johnstown, are all contributing their share.

Prof. J. M. Berkley, Superintendent of the city schools, will deliver the address of welcome on Tuesday evening, the 18th, on which occasion John Wanamaker, President of the Association, will make his annual address. The Methodist Episcopal Church, the largest in Johnstown, will be used as a place of meeting, and in case of overflow gatherings, which seem probable in view of the wide interest manifested, they will be held in other buildings near by.

With the leading Bible School workers in Pennsylvania and many from other States, it is confidently expected this will be one of the greatest conventions in the history of organized Sunday School movements in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. J. G. Moyer of Adamsburg is visiting J. W. Swartz's family.

Rev. O. G. Romig has been returned to the Freeburg circuit of the U. B. church.

Rev. W. H. Boyer has been selected as the pastor of the Middleburgh mission.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all Druggists.

John F. Stetler has removed the fence in front of his residence and is erecting a wall and will terrace the lawn. The Steinger Brothers have also removed their fences and will also erect a wall and extend the terrace.

The borough authorities are putting in a solid stone foundation and will lay a flag stone walk from James VanZandt's residence to the Sugar Street bridge. The grand jurors cost $164.84 or more than any grand jury cost for the last five years. The petit jurors cost $461.67. The amount of orders drawn on the county treasurer last week was $1918.46.

The Associate Society of the Red Cross of Philadelphia is maintaining its hospital at Camp Meade. Patients too ill to be moved to city hospitals are taken there. Its capacity to receive all these cases is inadequate because of the Society's inability to secure experienced women nurses for the nominal sum of sixteen dollars per month. Nurses willing to make the sacrifice and to engage in this laudable work will kindly apply by letter or report to "The Committee on Nurse," 1501 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Funds are needed to meet the increasing demands made upon the Society.

MT. PLEASANT MILLS.
The schools of Perry twp. opened on the 4th inst. under the most gratifying circumstances. The spirit of progress seems to have taken hold of teachers, directors and patrons. The schools are all well supplied with the best supplies which can be procured. The citizens of Potato Valley have raised enough money by subscription to procure a large bell to be placed on their school house. Enough money has also been raised to place a new Chamber's encyclopaedia, and a few other useful books in the Fremont schools. A musical entertainment will be held in the Lutheran and Reformed church on Saturday evening, Oct. 15th, for the purpose of raising funds to procure a suitable library for the Sunday School. A teacher's meeting will be organized in the Fremont Grammar school room on Friday evening next. Mrs. Albert Schnee was visiting relatives and friends in Georgetown last week. The coming election somewhat agitates the minds of some of our citizens, thus far the only candidate who had been here was mugwump Rohback. Geo. Rehrer had the misfortune of falling, and severely spraining his arm. Chestnuts are very plentiful this fall. Jerome Reitz of the upper end of the county spent Monday night here with his father, T. E. Reitz.

BANNERVILLE.

Apples are scarce in our community. Bannerville has two stores now. Come and see if you don't believe it. Did you hear of Tom Brandt's fall on Sunday. Enoch Baker of Lowell was in town last week. Frosts have not yet visited this place this fall. Good attendance at church on Sunday evening. How about those squirrels that are shot before the 15th? It will not be long until we have wintery blasts. John B. Shellberger's stave mill is now in running order. Knepp Bros. run it. Look at Tom Brandt's face for a lesson on bike riding. Moonshine business won't go here. Note the time of our District Sunday School Convention. On Sunday morning there was a coon shot. Who did it? Pay your bills as you go and you can go further. Quit your growling and Remember the Maine.

Brosious Bros. Exhibit

A Display of Clothing for Men, Boys and Children Well Worth Seeing.
The most magnificent display of Clothing and Furnishing Goods that has ever been made in Sunbury is to be seen at Brosious Bros. Store. Never before has there been such a bewildering exhibition of beautiful wearing apparel for the stylish dresser to select a suit or overcoat from the stock they carry is certainly much larger and of a different class of goods than has been our fortune to see before outside the large stores in the cities and the prices must be right as a visit to their store will plainly show you who does the business. Another great thing in their favor is, they are our own people.

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.

Desiring to go out of business between now and spring, I will positively CLOSE OUT MY ENTIRE LINE OF GOODS at unheard of low prices. If you are in need of clothing for yourself and children, Now is The Time to Buy, as you may never have another such an opportunity.
R. GUNSBERGER,
MIDDLEBURGH, PA.
