Sunday School and K. L. C. E. Convention Proceedings.

(Crowded Out last Week.)

The Snyder County S. S. and K. L. C. E. Convention of the United Evangelical church was held at Paxtonville, Pa., Sept. 27-29, 1898.

Quite a large number of delegates were present at the opening session which began at 7:15 P. M. Tuesday evening. After an excellent song service by the large and appreciative audience, Rev. J. H. Hertz, pastor of Middleburg Circuit, conducted devotional services.

The address of welcometendering the hospitalities of the homes, church and village was delivered by R. G. Bowersox. An earnest and impressive response thereto was made by Rev. L. Dice of Beavertown, Pa.

The topic "Convention as a Factor in S. S. and K. L. C. E. Work" was then presented by Prof. F. C. Bowersox, showing that every movement grows out of necessity; that conventions are held for the reason that the need for them was felt; contrasting good schools and societies and poor ones; to form closer union with the body of the church; to foster a Christian fellowship among workers in the cause whose field of operations lie in totally different communities. The discussion was further elaborated upon by Rev. Hertz, W. F. Howell, Revs. Dice and Lauver. An opportunity for question pertinent to the work was then accorded the delegates.

On motion of Rev. Hertz, the time fixed for the opening of the session was 8:30 A. M. and 1:30 P. M.

WEDNESDAY.

The convention assembled at the appointed time. Devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Daisy Gift of Paxtonville. Enrollment of delegates followed and the following persons responded to the call:

Mrs. Jerry Bowen,	Shamokin Dam.
Miss Lottie Fisher,	"
W. F. Mitchell,	Kreamer.
Miss Jennie Bollinger,	"
Miss Laura Hertz,	Middleburgh.
C. H. Dunkleberger,	"
Miss Annie Ewengle,	Paxtonville.
R. Wilson Gift,	"
Rev. J. Lauver,	Wagner.
Miss Pearl Lauver,	"
Miss Hoge Howell,	McClure.
Miss Hugh,	"
Miss Maggie Dice,	Beavertown.
Robert Feese,	"
Park Shambach,	Port Treverton.
Miss Carrie Keller,	"
Miss Effie Hornberger,	Aline.
Miss Kate Arnold,	"
Miss Lizzie Schrey,	Verdilla.
Allen Schrist,	Dundore.
A. A. Bingaman,	Penns Creek.

A few of the delegates selected by the various appointments were not present but those in attendance took a lively interest in the proceedings and contributed much to the grand success of the occasion.

lutions, viz: Prof. F. C. Bowersox, Rev. W. E. Brillhart and W. F. Howell.

R. G. Bowersox was appointed to serve as reporter for the county papers.

The topic "What Harm can the occasional Game and Drink do?" was assigned to Rev. Geo. Joseph, but on account of his absence, the chairman appointed Rev. J. Lauver to open the subject which he did in a pointed, forcible and characteristic manner. Many excellent thoughts were produced in the debate which ensued between Messrs. Howell, Schrist, Dunkleberger, Daisy Gift, Mrs. Bowen and Rev. Hertz.

After a spirited song by Miss Hughes, Rev. Lauver and Chairman Howell, the convention considered the topic "To what extent should the S. S. be controlled by the church?" In the absence of Rev. Kooz, C. K. Dunkleberger presented the opening address in which he affirmed that the church should have a controlling influence over the school and be the authority through which and by which the S. S. should act and be amenable.

The convention was delighted in having the presence of Rev. J. D. Shortiss, who has been a faithful attendant upon all the sessions of the convention since the inception of the organization, and who for the present convention traveled all the way from Hughesville to render efficient service in making this convention a special success.

After singing spirited songs, a collection was taken to meet the incidental expenses of the convention. Rev. Hertz pronounced the benediction and the convention adjourned for the forenoon.

In the afternoon devotional exercises were led by Rev. Lauver. A very interesting and profitable Children's meeting was conducted by Miss Daisy Gift and Rev. Lauver. A goodly number of children were present and by their eager responses to questions asked evinced that they were both pleased and earnest in the special meeting held for them. Considerable music by the little folks interspersed the interesting addresses of the conductors of the meeting.

The convention again resumed the discussion of the program prepared by the Committee and the next on the bill was the presentation of the topic "The Duty of Giving and the Sin of Withholding that which we owe to the Lord." In the absence of Rev. J. F. Shultz, Prof. Bowersox was appointed to open the same. The topic was further discussed by others.

"How should the S. S. Teacher appear before his class?" was then presented by Rev. J. M. Price and further debated by Rev. Shortiss and Maj. Rohback. Convention adjourned with the benediction by Rev. Shortiss.

In the evening the church was again crowded. The devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Mary Bowersox of Paxtonville. The next topic on program was "The dangers that threaten the Young People." This was presented very forcibly by Rev. Lauver. Some pertinent remarks were made by others.

The deep-sounding subject of "Enlistment, Equipment and Drill of S. S. and K. L. C. E. Work" was then introduced by W. F. Howell. Some very good things were said on this subject. A few of the leading remarks were as follows: We should study our character and our work, and see whether it is approved of God. We must be equipped with faith. Study your faith and see what it is composed of. Every individual ought to know where he standeth.

After singing a spirited song, the convention adjourned for the evening.

THURSDAY A. M.

The convention again assembled at the proper time. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. L. Price.

The topic "What can we do for the K. L. C. E. Work?" was assigned to Rev. W. E. Brillhart, but on account of his absence Rev. J. D. Shortiss opened the subject in a very fluent manner.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, W. F. Howell; Vice President, J. Lauver; Secretary, Allen Schrist; Assistant Secretary, A. A. Bingaman; Treasurer, F. C. Bowersox.

Beavertown was unanimously selected as the next place for holding of convention. The crowning teaducted by Rev. J. Lauver. Thus closed the 4th annual convention with hearty good will and encouragement attending each delegate.

R. G. BOWERSOX, Reporter.

Book Notices.

Lineage and Family Records of the Hoar Family.
The above is the title of a pamphlet that has just reached our desk. It has been compiled by Alfred Wyman Hoar (Lock Box 127) Monticello, Minnesota. It was published in Feb. 1898, pp. 56. This book traces the author's descent from Chas. Hoar of Gloucester, England, and contains some information about branches of the Hunt, Baleman, Wyman, Brown, Jackson and McCoff Families. The records are those of branches that were largely personally collected by the author and were never before published. The work was printed at Mr. Hoar's own expense and while he has set no price upon the work, he will appreciate a small contribution to pay postage bills. It is the only accurate record of the Hoar Family. Many records in the histories of New England towns are inaccurate. Mr. Hoar is still engaged in collecting data. He is anxious to have a complete record.

Chamberlain Genealogy.
One branch of the descendants of Thomas Chamberlain of Woburn, 1844, is the title of a pamphlet compiled by Geo. W. Chamberlain, member of the Maine Historical Society for Willis Brooks Chamberlain of Andover, Mass. who had it printed for private distribution. Published 1897, pp. 16. W. B. Chamberlain would like to hear from other branches of the family.

Spalding Memorial Errata.
In our issue of Sept. 15, we gave an extended review of the above handsome Volume and we regret to say that we made Rev. George B. Spalding say: "The whole appearance of the work shows almost good judgment and taste" instead of "utmost good judgment," etc. At the close of the article we gave the owner's address as Box 180. It should be, Walter S. Maher, P. O. Box 100, Chicago, Ills. Those interested will please note the error.

The Coleman Family.
Descendants of Thomas Coleman of Nantucket, in line of the eldest son for ten generations, 1603-1898, 295 pages. By Silas B. Coleman, Box 668, Detroit, Mich. 800 pp. 36. Mr. Coleman has compiled this neat little pamphlet for distribution among those most interested. It has a very good index.

The Ancestry of Lydia Foster.
Wife of Stephen Lincoln of Oakham, Mass., compiled by John E. Morris of Hartford, Conn., 1898. 800 pp. 26. Besides the Foster line, the book contains data concerning Stratton; Wheeler, Hartwell, Parlin, Sheldon, Horn, Skelton, Baxter, Felton, Wilkins, Aborne and Tompkins.

Baillie of Dunain.
"A History and Genealogy of the Family of Baillie of Dunain Dochfour and Lanington" with a sketch of the family of McIntosh, Bulloch and other families, has been received. It has been compiled by Joseph Gaston Baillie Bulloch, M. D., at present residing at Oneida, Wisconsin. The book was published 1898 and contains 111 pages. Besides the families mentioned in the title, there are short sketches of the Chisolm, Seton, Wyly, Kennan, Dunwoody, Fannin and VonHyerle families. The price of the work is $3.00. A discount is allowed to dealers. Dr. Bulloch is also author of "Bulloch Family," "Bellinger Family," "Deveaux" and other families.

The author is a physician of high rank to whom has been intrusted a great number of positions, chief of which are: Sanitary Inspector Marine Hospital Service, Agency Physician, Pima Agency Arizona, A. A. Surgeon M. H. S.; now Physician to Oneida and Oneida Episcopal Hospital; formerly H. O. Palatka, Fla., and member of Board of Health, Putnam Co., Fla.; now President of U. S. Indian Med. Ass'n; Ex-member, Rec. Sec. and Lib. of Ga. Medical Society; Ex-member Fla. Med. Soc. and Arizona State Med. Soc. and deputed to write articles before each; Organizer of Putnam and Alachua Counties Med. Soc.; Ex-member Ga. His. Soc.; a member of the Sons of Revolution of Ga. and formerly its Vice Pres. and Registrar; Ex-President Fla. State Sons of the Revolution and organizer of the the War of 1812 Penna.; Grand Commander of the Order of Washington; member of the Huguenot Society of S. C., etc.

Dr. Bulloch is a grand son of Archibald Bulloch, President and Commander-in-chief of Georgia, 1776-77 and delegate to Continental Congress. Theodore Roosevelt, named for Governor of New York, descends from President Bulloch and is a second cousin to Dr. Bulloch, the author. Dr. Bulloch is a profuse writer and his book is well worthy of a place in every library.
