A Wonderful Sale Will Now Begin.

69 CENTS IS THE PRICE THEY WILL BE SOLD AT.

HOW WE DONE IT. July 6th we made an offer to a well known Clothing House in New York for NINE HUNDRED Boys' Suits, sizes to run from 4 to 15 years. The number of suits first staggered them and they asked if we had not made a mistake and if not what we intended to do with them. SELL THEM was the two words we gave them for an answer, but when they seen the price we offered them they were amazed, as the suits formerly sold for ONE DOLLAR. They then responded with a big NO, we are sorry we cannot fill your order, as the price is certainly too little.

NOW THEY COME TO OUR TERMS.

October 1st they notified us they would accept our offer and make the first shipment the 15th. They are now here and we now invite everybody in the universe to come and examine them.

Resolutions of Respect.

The Lutheran and Reformed Sunday School of Centerville have passed the following resolutions on the death of H. C. Sampsel, their late Assistant Superintendent:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst by death who as a member of the Lutheran church for nearly twenty years, has during this time served us faithfully as a Sunday School Superintendent and as an officer in the Church Council, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That while we bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well, we sincerely mourn the loss of so faithful an officer and deeply lament the death of our generous and open-hearted brother, and of our

RESOLVED, That in the death of our brother, H. C. Sampsel, who has been so suddenly called from the midst of his usefulness, we are reminded that we have no Abiding City here, and that, sooner or later, we, too, will be called away.

RESOLVED, That in the death of our beloved brother the Church and Sunday School has lost one of its most earnest and devoted members, the community one of its most useful citizens, and the family a kind, indulgent and affectionate father and husband, and in their bereavement we tender them our earnest sympathies and commend them to the Father of all mercies and giver of all good.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be entered on the Church and Sunday School record, that a copy of them be sent to the family of the deceased brother, and that they be published in the county papers.

It Pays to Take a Newspaper

Some papers are of much account as to appearance. I never took one that did not pay me in some way, more than I paid for it. One time an old friend started a little paper away down in Southwestern Georgia, and sent it to me, and I subscribed just to encourage him, and so after a while it published a notice that an administrator had an order to sell several lots at public outcry, and one of the lots was in our county. So I inquired about the lot, and wrote to my friend to attend the sale and run it to fifty dollars. He did so, and bid off the lot to me at thirty dollars, and I sold it in a month to a man it joined for one hundred dollars, and so made sixty eight dollars clear by taking that paper. My father told me that when he was a young man he saw an notice in a paper that a school teacher was wanted away off in a distant county, and he went there and got the situation, and a little girl was sent to him, and after a while she grew up mighty sweet and pretty, and he fell in love with her and married her. Now, if he hadn't taken that paper, what you reckon would have become of me? Wouldn't I be some other fellow, or maybe not at all.—Ez.

What Do the Children Drink?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicate and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their system. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1/3 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c. and 25c.

DIED.

Oct. 1st, at Spring Mills, Pa., Sarah, wife of Wm. Wetzel of New Berlin, died suddenly, aged about 57 years. Interment at the latter place.

Kindness.

If we knew how many crosses,
All our fellow men must bear;
If we knew how much your mortal
Sands beneath some head of care,
Would we chide for each slight failure?
For each lack of thrift or gain?
By our coldness and unkindness,
Give them much unneeded pain?
Would we not help bear their burdens,
Lifting up the ones that fall?
Thus we add to our own pleasure,
While we give our help to all.
We would follow love's kin: promptings
In our dealings with each one;
Hearing in our hearts the whisper—
"Patience, strive, 'tis well done."
—A. L. K. C.

LITERARY NOTE
"Ev'ry Month" for October

Within the new and improved cover of "Ev'ry Month" we find the usual departments; "Interesting Women" and "Men of the Month." Under the latter is the best collection of portraits and the succinct summary of the American Peace Commission that we have as yet seen, together with photographs and biographical notes of M. Cambon, the singer of the peace protocol; Hon. John Hay, the new Secretary of State, and George N. Curzon, the recently appointed Viceroy of India. Lovers of handsome women will appreciate the illustrations of Maxine Elliott, Attalie Claire and Ethel Barrymore which appear in this number. An excellent descriptive article of the coronation of Queen Wilhelmina by an eye witness, under the title of "Little Holland's Great Celebration" is profusely illustrated; this is followed by "Dog Miniatures on Ivory," with examples of the artist's work and an account of her methods. Gilson Willets contributes a carefully written article of "Types of Feminine Cuba" with photographic reproductions of many social and political types; and an interesting sketch of "How the War Loan Bond Issue Was Made," helps us to appreciate the tremendous labor involved in placing the popular loan. "The Case of Loundes" offers a pathetic story to those who turn to fiction, and every woman reader will undoubtedly study the authoritative articles on "Fashion's Whims and Fancies."

The Music in the number consists of a ballad, "Sweet Kitty O'Neill" which has the genuine Irish lilt; a caprice for the piano,—"Dance of the Moonbeams";—a sentimental song "Heart's Ecstasy"; and an arrangement of the popular "China and Coon" for Mandolin and Guitar.

In short no one in the home can take up this periodical without finding something of interest either in the music, illustrations or reading matter. (Ev'ry Month New York. 10c.)

Try Grain-O! Try Grain-O.

Ask your Grocer to-day to show you a package of Grain O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee. 15c. and 25c. per package. Sold by all grocers.
