

WONDERFUL

OVERCOAT

AND SUIT SELLING
—AT—BROSIOUS BROS.

We have never experienced such a rush for Overcoats as the past few days has brought forth. We have sold more Overcoats than was sold up to Christmas last year, and still it seems to make little impression on the immense lot we have in stock—a few more than five hundred to select from, that's the reason.

WE SELL MORE OVERCOATS EACH SEASON as the styles grow nobbier and the assortment larger.

The Latest French Play.

Cyrano De Bergerac, by Edmund Rostand, which is being played in this country by Richard Mansfield and in England by Henry Irving, is just brought out in a dainty, handy cloth-bound volume at the price of 35 cents, and a cheaper paper edition at 15 cents, by Hurst & Co., New York, the well known cheap book publishers. They will send it post paid or it can be had at all dealers. It is generally pronounced the play of the year, and some rank it close after Shakespeare's masterpieces.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicates a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by all Druggists.

The auction last Saturday evening attracted a large crowd. Al. Keck will soon have all supplied with socks and suspenders. The Klondike Mining Company composed largely of farmers in and about Port Treverton, are in a dilemma, and have suspended operations indefinitely. The supposition is that a large amount of money was buried there by Indians, and therefore the miners were allowed to dig only at night. After a very deep hole had been dug the miners struck what seemed to be a large flat stone, presumably the cover of the money chest. The miners as well as the president were elated, but every time they struck the rock deep hollow groan was heard. This frightened them and to add to their horror, a large fiery ball was seen floating through the woods, over them. The Company is now hunting for lost tools and lanterns. We need braver men says Alexander.

FREEBURG.

The Orchestra had an interesting practice at the house of Prof. Wm. Moyer Friday evening. The convention in the opera house will be held last week in December.
