The Companion for the Rest of 1898.

The principal attractions offered by The Youth's Companion for the remaining weeks of 1898 provide a foretaste of the good things to follow in the new volume for 1899. To the first issue in November Frank R. Stockton will contribute a humorous sketch, entitled "Some of My Dogs," and in the issue for the week of November 10th will appear Rudyard Kipling's thrilling story of the heroism of soldiers in the ranks, "The Burning of the Sarah Sands."

Many People Cannot Drink Coffee at night. It spoils their sleep. You can drink Grain-O when you please and sleep like a top. For Grain-O does not stimulate; it nourishes, cheers and feeds. Yet it looks and tastes like the best coffee. For nervous persons, young people and children Grain-O is the perfect drink. Made from pure grains. Get a package from your grocer to-day. Try it in place of coffee. 15 and 25 cents.

At the residence of O. K. Meek, Selinsgrove, Thanksgiving day, a party of about forty-five jolly little tots were right royally entertained by Miss Florence and Master Forest Meek.

Mrs. Mena Spigelmyer, widow of Levi Spigelmyer, late of Co. D. 47th Regt. P. V., and Co. G., 172d Regt. P. I., of McClure, was last week made the happy recipient of a widow's pension; certificate being issued in three months from time of application.

The Tribune of last week says: Wednesday morning at about four o'clock, a fire was discovered in the store room in B. O. Kessler's building at Hummel's Wharf, kept by John Foye. The alarm was promptly given and the neighbors hastened to the scene and a battle royal was begun to save the building.—At one time it looked as though the building would be consumed, but encouraged by some of the cooler heads the fire was confined to the store room where after a hard fight the flames were extinguished and the building saved.—The stock in the store room is a total wreck.

THE OPENING OF CONGRESS.

Members Recently Elected Governors Warmly Congratulated.

Washington, Dec. 6.—When the senate convened yesterday to begin the closing session of the Fifty-fifth congress the chamber presented a notable and beautiful appearance. By 11 o'clock the public and private galleries were filled almost to their capacity with distinguished assemblages, including many ladies in brilliant attire. On the floor of the senate the display of flowers was unusually beautiful, even for the opening day of a session of congress. The odor of the flowers filled the chamber.

The reading of the president's message, which occupied two hours and eighteen minutes, was received with very careful attention for an hour, but after that the senators drifted to the cloak rooms or to the committee rooms, where they could peruse the message at their leisure in the printed copies which had been furnished them.

The opening session of the house was also a spectacular occasion, animated and brilliant. There were more than the usual number of distinguished personages in the thronged galleries. One of the most striking incidents was the cordial meeting between the floor leaders of the respective sides, Messrs. Dingley and Bailey. The speaker named Mr. Bailey as the minority member of the committee to wait upon the president, an honor always bestowed upon the recognized leader of the minority. Mr. W. A. Stone, of Pennsylvania, Mr. McMillin, of Tennessee, and Mr. Sayers, of Texas, who have been elected governors of their respective states since congress adjourned, were overwhelmed with congratulations. The floral tributes were unusually numerous.

Ship Aflame on the Ocean.

New York, Dec. 5.—The German steamer Dalecarlia, from Rio Janeiro, which arrived yesterday, brought news of bad weather and of sighting a burning ship at sea. Last Friday night the Dalecarlia was in latitude 37 degrees 46 minutes and longitude 70.52 and the glare of fire was seen. The Dalecarlia, altering her course, at 9:30 o'clock came alongside of a ship ablaze from the stern to the foremast, while a large yellow funneled German steamship was standing in nearby the flaming, pitching wreck. Nobody could be seen on the decks of the burning vessel, nor were there any boats struggling amid the waves, so it is probable that the crew were rescued by the steamship which was waiting to note the end. The steamer by the burning ship was either the Werra or the Fulda, of the North German Lloyd line.

Cleveland's Accused Judges.

Cleveland, Dec. 6.—Judge F. E. Dellenbaugh, against whom charges were made by the Bar association on Saturday in connection with the disbarment proceedings against State Senator Burke, was on the bench yesterday, as usual, in his court. Before opening court Judge Dellenbaugh, in discussing the charges, stated that he could prove his innocence before any tribunal, and that he would demand an investigation. It is understood that charges against Judge Blandin will be filed with the Bar association shortly for slandering Judges Ong and Disette.

Ex-Treasurer Childers Sentenced.

Muskogee, O. T., Dec. 6.—In the United States court at Wagoner Judge Springer passed sentence upon three persons convicted of complicity in the floating of over $97,000 of fraudulent warrants in the Creek nation. Ellis Childers, ex-treasurer of the nation, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the penitentiary and fined $10,000, to be paid into the Creek treasury. Burrell Cox and James Eagan, two of Childers' accomplices, were sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.
