OVERCOAT

SUIT SELLING

BROSIOUS BROS.

We have never experienced such a rush for Overcoats as the past few days has brought forth. We have sold more Overcoats than was sold up to Christmas last year, and still it seems to make little impression on the immense lot we have in stock—a few more than five hundred to select from, that's the reason.

WE SELL MORE OVERCOATS EACH SEASON
as the styles grow nobbier and the assortment larger.

There is a Class of People

Who are injured by the use of coffee. Recently there has been placed in all grocery stores a new preparation called GRAIN-O, made of pure grains, that takes the place of coffee. The most delicate stomach receives it without distress, and but few can tell it from coffee. It does not cost over 1 as much. Children may drink it with great benefit. 15c. and 25c. per package. Try it. Ask for Grain-O.

Phillips is still expecting to catch the rabbit that has been at his home all winter before the season runs out. We hope you may, Sam. On the fifteenth day they become stale... Some of the candidates for township offices have begun passing around the cigars. Keep it up, boys; you are all O. K. J. J. Stealy has now covered 600 miles and 4 laps in going to and from his school. At the end of his term he will have traveled 1400 miles and 2 laps. This does not include any extra walking which he often has to do... Every citizen of West Beaver should avail himself of the Post's great offer,—The Post from now till Jan. 1, 1900, for only one dollar. Make hay while the sun shines. A dollar sent to the editor will do the work.

HUMMELS WHARF.

Beating is closed for the season as they are taking the water out of the canal... Wm. Noll, who has been on the sick list, is convalescing... Albert Foltz had the misfortune of losing one of his horses which he brought along from Kansas last spring... Andrew Turtt and Chas. Seidler spent a few days near Globe Mills, hunting for rabbits. Their game was one rabbit... Misses May and Martha Schoch visited their sister, Mrs. Troutman, near Newport, recently... Wallace Teats spent last week with his brother-in-law, Mr. Holtzshew, in Shamokin... Misses Minnie and Katie Trutt attended the teachers' institute at Middleburg last week... Miss Minnie Wertz, who has been spending some time in Shamokin, is again in our vicinity... Daniel Seesholtz and wife have commenced house-keeping in Zuck Hettrick's house... John Faye disposed of his goods was partly destroyed by fire recently. He intends to make his future home in Sunbury... T. P. Hummel attended protracted meeting at Shamokin Dam on Saturday evening.

CENTREVILLE.
