SELINGSGROVE.

H. L. Phillips, wife and daughter were in Philadelphia last week. Mrs. Ush has gone to Bethlehem and Philadelphia for a two weeks' visit. Mrs. Minnie Laudenslager of Berwick is visiting her mother, Mrs. C. B. Miller. Mrs. H. Y. Fryling of St. Mary's is a welcome guest at the National Hotel visiting her brother, Z. T. Hettrick. The horse sale was well attended and horses brought fair prices. The last of the series of illustrated sermons by Rev. Barb was delivered on Sunday evening last. Miss Jessie Gerhart of Sunbury is being entertained by her grandma Schoch. The Herndon planing mill, sash and door factory will be removed to this place. The papers were signed by both parties last week. At a congregational meeting of Trinity Lutheran church held on Sunday last the resignation of Rev. Barb was accepted to take place the week after Palm Sunday. Dr. B. F. Wagenseller was in Philadelphia attending the Ex. Committee of State Rep. League. W. H. Richter and wife of Benvenue are visiting his father, J. P. Richter. Prof. B. M. Wagenseller of Centre Hall spent part of Friday and Saturday with his parents, M. L. Wagenseller and family. Mrs. Chas. Fisher (nee Jarrett) of Sunbury spent several days with friends. C. W. Mertz and Frank Keller, who were injured near Punxsutawney at a bridge they were helping to build, have returned home having been discharged from the hospital. They made a narrow escape. The University Glee, Mandolin and Guitar Clubs gave a very pleasing and enjoyable entertainment in the Chapel on Washington's Birthday to a crowded house. They were repeatedly recalled. They also gave one at Freeburg on Friday evening, where they were well received. L. C. Schoch and wife have returned from their trip to Washington, D. C.

UNION TWP.

Hathaway Kelly and family of Sunbury spent part of last week among friends here. Emanuel B. Aueker of Crowtown left for Nanticoke on Sunday where he has secured employment. A. S. Sechrist, postmaster at Verdilla, was a witness for the United States before the United States District Court at Philadelphia last week. Jacob Brubaker expects to move to Lancaster Co. this week. D. L. Neitz will move to near Port Trevorton and will start a truck farm. Rev. W. E. Brillhard preached his last sermon for the present conference year at Witmer's appointment last Sunday. Rev. J. G. Martin is away at conference. Solomon Brubaker intends to start a new store near our town. He will call it "The Klondike," because it is so near to the famous Klondike ghost mines.

KREAMER.

A. W. Smith, wife and daughter of Selingsgrove spent Thursday with relatives at this place. A. D. Kramer attended the horse sale at Selingsgrove last Thursday. A. A. Heintzelman, who is working at Lewistown, is home at present. J. F. Walter and wife spent last Thursday visiting their daughter, James Row, at Selingsgrove. Wm. PAXTONVILLE

Mrs. Charles Hare is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Howell. We had a quiet little wedding in our town on Monday noon. The contracting parties were Mr. William Cornelius of Lewisburg and Miss Sallie Dersham of this place. Rev. J. H. Hertz performed the ceremony. Frank Miller, who had been working at Lewistown for some time, is home again. Thomas Shemorry who is sawing for C. R. Spangler in Franklin County, came home sick last week. Mrs. Austin Gift is on the sick list at present. Mrs. J. O. Sterner visited her parents over Sunday. Charles Swengle is nursing sore foot. The members of the United Evangelical church gave their pastor, Rev. Hertz, a donation last Friday afternoon. Rev. Hertz preached his farewell sermon on Saturday evening. The foundation is being laid for the new store building. They expect to complete the building till May. Some of the citizens gave a surprise to Wm. McAfee and wife last Thursday evening. Their birthday came on the same day.

Does Coffee Agree With You?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I make Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c. and 25c.
