Delaney Acquitted of Murder.

Media, Pa., March 14 .- The jury in the case of Minus Delaney, charged with the murder of Mrs. Ann Leonard, of Chester, yesterday returned a verdict of acquittal. The jury had been out since Saturday evening. Mrs. Leonard was murdered and her husband terribly beaten by two colored men on Sept. 24. 1898. Joseph Brown and Minus Delaney were subsequently arrested, charged with the crime, and each blamed the other for the murder. The husband, after lying at the point of death for many months, was able to appear in court last week and testify. He said that Brown had struck him and that Delaney had struck and killed his wife. Brown was convicted of manslaughter.
