

GEO. W. WAGENSELLER, Editor and Proprietor.

MIDDLEBURGH, SNYDER CO., PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1899.

VOL. 36. NO. 16.

Interesting Items.

News Told in Brief Paragraphs for Our Readers.

Personal Pointers in Local and General News Concerning People More or Less Prominent.

Do you pay your subscription? Spring fever is hard at work. Straw hats have put in an appearance. Shower bath weather may be expected. Pretty line of Fancy Skirts at WEIS', Selinsgrove. The cellar for the new school building is being dug. Immense line of Embroideries at WEIS', Selinsgrove. The candidates are beginning to move, and the campaign is now open. Nice line of Spring Capes, in silk and cloth, at WEIS', Selinsgrove. John F. Stetler is putting up a stable on his premises in the Flats. Barber Simonton has taken possession of C. W. Graybill's store. Near Silks in all the leading shades at WEIS', Selinsgrove. The Central Hotel will again be offered at sheriff's sale May 4th. Immense line of Fancy Silks for Waists at WEIS', Selinsgrove. James Rogers, Jr., has gone Millersburg to work in the shoe factory. Wm. Good of Aline was attracted to the county seat on business on Monday. Lawns, Dainties and Organdies in large variety at WEIS', Selinsgrove. Clayton Wetzel, who had been working at Vicksburg for the last year, returned home. Lank Walter has quit work for W. B. Winey and intends working at his trade, masonry. P. J. Rothrock and C. M. Brosius of Fremont are attending the Bucknell University, Lewisburg. Latest style trimmed hats at Kate Wagenseller's Millinery store, Selinsgrove. Call to see them. It is probable that Rev. Gesner will be elected pastor of the First Lutheran church of Selinsgrove. Adam Howell has rented the Gunzberger house on Sugar St., where he intends to move in the near future. Charles E. Steininger has resigned as janitor of the court house. The place has not yet been filled. Novelty Joe Winters of New Berlin stepped around on the streets of our burg Monday. Josephat Walter whose barn was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, is making preparations to build again. John A. Stahlnecker and wife spent Sunday at Mt. Carmel, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Snyder. Sherman Bordner of Shamokin Dam has gone to Philadelphia to work in the Baldwin Locomotive works. Sephars Gemberling and W. A. Fisher, of Penn township, have purchased a farm near Nescopeck, for $3100. You will find a nice selection of Millinery Goods at Kate A. Wagenseller's Millinery store, Selinsgrove. We have now in stock the largest stock of spring goods ever shown in this town. S. WEIS, Selinsgrove. I want to buy one 2nd hand engine 10 to 20 horse power. Also a one horse power truck wagon. Write, A. H. ULSH, Middleburg, Pa.

Judging by the new woman's dress she wants to be a self-made man. A fellow generally has to run if he wants to keep ahead in his walk of life. A full line of Mandolin and String instruments at Oppenheimer's, Selinsgrove. When a man discovers that he has made a mistake he begins to look around for some one to blame it on. "Yerger" is the name of a new post office in this county. It is located near Erdley's church in Middlecreek twp. Subscribers changing their P. O. address this spring should notify this office promptly, giving their old as well as their new address. Hon. Dr. A. M. Smith of Adamsburg has been invited to deliver the Memorial address at McVeytown on May 30. William M. Specht has bought a lot in Beavertown, from Hon. S. A. Wetzel, and will erect a dwelling thereon. William S. Bickel, who had control of a hotel for several years, has moved to his farm in Washington township. FOR SALE: Sawed lumber for a barn 36x50 feet. Can be bought cheap. MRS. KATE JONES, Middleburg, Pa. W. E. Houseworth, Esq., of Selinsgrove, held an audit in Jay G. Weiser's office on Tuesday in the estate of Nathan Arbogast. Seth Winey of Beavertown has moved into Jas. B. Enterline's house in Swineford. He will assist his brother, Wilson, in the coal and grain business. Peter Garman of Mt. Pleasant Mills, one of the oldest merchants in the county, was in Philadelphia last week buying his spring and summer goods. Wallace Teats of Globe Mills was a Middleburg visitor last Thursday evening. He is agent for the Packer Bicycle and is advertising it in the "Post." Quite a number of people from Middleburgh attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary Bastian at Sunbury last Wednesday. Aged 74 years, 10 months and 10 days. The Reformed members, of the Fremont charge, lately served by Rev. H. H. Spahn, have elected Rev. Correll of Lancaster as their pastor. He will move to Fremont in June. A bill has passed the House finally providing for the licensing of transient retail merchants in towns and cities. It empowers councils to charge a fee of from $25 to $200 per month. It is rumored that a large factory for the manufacture of soap containing medicinal qualities is to be established in Lewisburg. A prominent physician with plenty of capital and push is back of the venture. Write on a paper the number representing your age, multiply by two, add 3,796, divide by two, then subtract the number representing your age, and before your eyes will besomething you will never see again. In order to clean out the shoe business I will sell out my entire stock of shoes at cost. A large line of soap will also be closed out at cost. Special bargains will be offered in all goods. BARBER SIMONTON. Messrs. James B. Sipe & Co., Allegheny, Pa., in order to introduce "Sipe's Japan Oil," and to demonstrate practically its superiority over linseed oil for all kinds of painting, will send free of charge enough of it to paint an ordinary building, to the two first addresses received from property owners in reply to this.

Sheriff Ritter was a Sunbury visitor on Monday. Abraham Gunzberger moved to Danville this week. Quite a large quantity of hail fell on Sunday. It was as large as peas. W. R. Gordon of Mt. Pleasant Mills was seen at the court house on Monday. It is funny that a fellow should feel put out when he finds himself taken in. A strange thing about the Faith Curists' doctrine is that it's no doctrine. Geo. F. Miller of Freeburg, one of the candidates for county commissioner, was in town Monday. The county commissioners are holding their annual appeal this week at the court house. Some of our young men left for West Virginia on Monday where they will work in the lumber woods. Miss Dilla Grimm went to Adamsburg last Wednesday where she is employed at the Merchants' Hotel. Jacob A. Leitzel of Kratzerville wears his hat on side of the head, all because a little girl registered at his hotel and calls him "pap." A complete history of the part taken by Pennsylvania troops in the late war is in process of preparation at the adjutant general's office. C. J. Fisher of Catawissa was in town last Thursday night and submitted a proposition to remove the Main Shoe Factory to this place. The timber to be used for the new battleship Maine was sold by Bloom & Weaver of Lock Haven. It is the finest quality of white pine, the raft containing 8000 feet. For the fourth time in eighteen months the office of the Atlantic Refining Co., at Sunbury, was burglarized on Tuesday. The only booty received was a revolver. The safe was unlocked and contained no money. The season is at hand for cleaning up, both indoors and out. Yards and alleys should not be overlooked. Cellars should also receive attention. A systematic, persistent crusade is necessary if good health and happy homes are desired. The Susquehanna river is still right for rafting, although it is now falling slowly. It is said that about two hundred and fifty will come down this spring. About sixty of these will be pine and oak timber. Some of them have already gone down. H. H. Grimm, Esq., and his son Geo. F. Grimm are spending the week in Harrisburg and Philadelphia. The son will consult a physician concerning an incessant pain in his chest. Several years ago, while playing foot ball, one of the players jumped on his breast. Do not miss L. Dunkelberger's Summer Millinery Opening which takes place Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, April 26, 27 and 28. Satin Ribbons No. 5 will be reduced to 3c. per yard on opening day, No. 12 to 6c. Sash Ribbons will also be reduced. Send in your items while they are fresh. We don't like to publish births after the child is weaned, a marriage after the honeymoon is over, a death after the widow remarries again, or the notice of an entertainment after it has been forgotten. The Farm Journal is cheap but not too cheap to be good; it is full of ginger and gumption, and has as many other good things in it that you can use at any price. It will be sent for the balance of 1899 and all of 1900, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years, to subscribers of the Post who pay one year in advance.

The Duncannon Record has a new babcock press. No matter how leisurely a doctor may plod through his earthly career you never catch him boasting that he takes life easy. The citizens along Market street were considerably annoyed Sunday night by the noise of a wheel barrow making numerous trips. It was explained next day when it was learned that there was a midnight flit. Goods reduced on Opening Days: Kid Gloves, Leather Belts, Hosiery, White Swiss Dress Goods, Linen Collars, Cuffs, Embroideries, Laces, Denim, Silkoline, Curtains, Ladies' Vests, Counterpieces, Floss, etc. etc. L. DUNKELBERGER. Persons in need of Carpets will do well to examine our stock before purchasing as we have a large line of Brussels, Ingrain and Rag Carpets at prices to suit all. Brussels Carpets from 45c. upwards. S. WEIS, Selinsgrove. A smooth, easy shave, genteel hair cut, or other tonsorial work, is always obtained at Soles' Barber Shop, in Bank Building, next door to the Post office. Go to Soles to buy new razors or exchange for old ones. Razors honed and guaranteed to give satisfaction. A. E. SOLES. The Farm Journal is cream, not skim-milk, and just the paper for the man who keeps cows. We give it for the balance of 1899, and all of 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, nearly five years to every subscriber to the Post who will pay a year ahead. Walk right up to the captain's office without delay. FOR SALE.—The best pacing mare, with foal, in the County. She can't be beat as a driver, also a fine two year old colt out of the same mare and a very fast horse. Will make a fine driver. For information call on J. P. Kantz, Selin's Grove, Pa. 4-20-2t. FOR SALE.—I offer for sale fifteen acres of farm land, twenty acres of partly cleared land and twenty-four acres of timber land, all situated at New Berlin in Limestone township, Union Co. If so desired, it will be sold in lots. For particulars inquire of A. T. Taylor, Kishacoquillas, Pa. 3-23-3mo. Trexler's Store, Sunbury,—5000 yards best prints at 2 1/2c per yard, 2 bales brown muslin at 2 1/2c per yard, 2 cases evert ceasing gingham at 6c per yard, 45 pieces all wool cloths at 25c per yard, 75 pieces organdies, new styles, at 8c per yard, 350 pieces carpets at 12 1/2c per yard to $1.25, 75 pools matting at 10c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c. 240 pairs lace curtains at 50c, $1.00 up to $7.50, 90 pieces table oil cloths at 12 1/2c per yard, window shades at 10c to $1.00. This store shows the largest line of new goods in Northumberland Co. On Monday afternoon, what might have been a rather serious fire, was prevented by its timely discovery. The aged widow of Mr. Samuel Fisher, and who resides with her son S. A. Fisher in Sweet Hope, had placed some wood in the oven of the stove to dry, and having afterwards returned it to the woodbox. The old lady then went out into the garden to plant some little onions. Her supply becoming exhausted, she returned to the house to get more onions when she discovered that her kitchen was full of smoke. She gave the alarm and her neighbors hastened to her assistance. Charles C. Moyer and his brother, Peter, caught up the woodbox and carried it into the yard. The box was badly burned and the fire was had been communicated to the surbasing which was also pretty well charred. The wood must have been in the stove oven until it took fire and was then thrown into the box, and thus igniting it.—Tribune.

29th Annual Convention of Sunday School Association of Snyder County. The Sunday School Convention will be held at Selinsgrove in the M. E. church, Selinsgrove, Pa., Monday and Tuesday, May 8th and 9th, 1899. MAY 8. 7:30 p. m. Opening Exercises, Pres. Prof. Wm. Moyer. Address of Welcome, Rev. W. Haas. Response, Rev. O. G. Romig, P. M. Teats, Esq. Home Department—Address Field Secretary, Rev. Charles Rhoads, D.D. Reception of Delegates. May 9. 9:00 a. m. Devotional Exercises, Rev. W. E. Brillhart. 9:30 a. m. Normal Work, M. L. Wagenseller, Rev. Fortney. 10:15 a. m. Appointment of Committees. Report of Secretary of Home Department, Rev. J. H. Barb. Home Department—Open for Discussion. 11:00 a. m. The Best Method of Conducting a Sunday School, N. T. Dundore, Rev. G. D. Drueckemiller. 11:30 a. m. Adjournment. 1:30 p. m. Praise Service, W. L. Bassler. 1:45 p. m. The Sunday School in Relation to Good Citizenship, Rev. I. P. Zimmerman, Rev. John Shellenberger. 2:30 p. m. How to Induce Regular Attendance of Teachers and Scholars upon the Services of the School, Rev. H. H. Spahn, Rev. L. Dice. 3:00 p. m. Primary Work and Children's Meeting, Mrs. J. W. Barnes. 3:45 p. m. Business, Election of officers, Selection of place of next meeting, Report of Committees. 7:30 p. m. Praise Service, Cyril H. Haas. Report of Secretary. Address, Rev. J. Yutzy, D. D. Convention chips gathered by, Rev. D. E. McLain. Sacred Songs No. 1 will be used during the convention. Musical Director, Cyril H. Haas. Each school is to be represented by at least two delegates. All Superintendents are members of the convention by virtue of their office. Each school is expected to contribute at least 1c per member for state and county work. The names of all delegates should be sent to the chairman of entertainment committees, Miss Algie D. Lamberson, Selinsgrove, Pa. The state workers will be with us during the entire convention. The coming Convention is the greatest opportunity of the year for Sunday school workers. Pray for the success of the Convention, then come. CYRIL HAAS, M. L. WAGENSELLER, D. E. McLain, Ex. Comm. Notice to Soldiers of 208th and 51st P.V.I. Comrades.—I am officially informed that the unveiling of the Hartman statue will take place at Harrisburg, Pa., Friday, May 12th, 1899. Comrades of Cos. A and D, 208th Regt. also! comrades of 51st are cordially invited to attend. Write Sec. J. E. Vancamp of the 208th Reg. P. V. I. for excursion orders and information relative to hotel rates. Address 120 Louthier St., Carlisle, Pa. J. F. HOFFMAN, Late Lieut. Co. A, 208 Regt., Chapman, Pa.

COURT HOUSE CHIPS Deeds Entered for Record. Joel G. Stahl and wife to Richard B. Lenig, 4 acres and 25 perches in Chapman twp., for $70. Chas. A. Sholtzberger and wife to Jefferson D. Lenig, 3 acres and 20 perches, for $150. Union Cemetery Co. of Selinsgrove to Rebecca J. Holmes, Lots 419 and 420 for $35. Rev. W. A. Haas to John Schart, house and lot in Selinsgrove, for $600. Charles A. Meiser and wife to George A. Aurand, three tracts of land in Middlecreek twp., for $1125. Heirs of Jacob Arbogast, deceased, to John A. Ehrlicht, 50 acres and 110 perches in Perry twp., for $700. Wm. Troutman and wife to Mollie Grayham, 65 acres in Perry twp., for $1450. Wills Probated. The last will and testament of Elizabeth H. Dumbaugh, late of Penn twp., deceased, was probated last Friday. Her daughter, Emma Jane Weis, is named as Executrix. Her daughter, Emma, and husband are the heirs. Marriage Licenses. (George A. Glass, Freeburg, Annie L. Roush, " (Henry Goss, Sinking Valley, Pa. Lydia Bankwitz, Troxville, (Charles Walter, Centre twp., Kate Bilger, " (John E. Kunkle, Kratzerville, (Mary A. Erdley, Globe Mills. John G. Shaffer of Aline was at the county seat last Friday. John W. Farnsworth of Danville spent Sunday in this village. H. D. Swineford of Mt. Pleasant Mills was a Middleburgh visitor on Monday of this week. Miss Jennie Charles of Port Trevorton is visiting her brother Edwin Charles at this place. A. R. Trexler, Sunbury has a new advertisement in the Post this week. Read his announcements elsewhere. Henry P. Boyer of Penns Creek was in this place on Friday of last week attending to business interests. Hon. A. M. Smith and W. E. Stahlnecker of Adamsburg were prominent visitors in the town on Sunday. D. Edward Kremer and wife of Philadelphia spent Saturday in town the guest of Mrs. Kremer's parents, John Stetler and wife. The trout season opened on Saturday and quite a number of sportsmen availed themselves of an opportunity to catch a few speckled beauties. Willet Boyer of Freeburg was a Middleburgh visitor on Saturday and became a cash-in-advance subscriber to the Post. He is going in the memorial business. Amos Bailey and I. E. Boust, two of Monroe township's reliable citizens were at the county seat on Tuesday of last week. They are pleasant gentlemen and a credit to any community. H. D. Stahlnecker and A. W. Aurand have purchased a clipping machine to clip horses. They offer to clip horses at $1.50 each. Any one desiring to have their horses clipped will do well to have these gentlemen do it for them. Cyril Haas and Mr. Fisher of Selinsgrove were in Middleburgh over Sunday in the interest of Foreign Missions. On Sunday morning Mr. Haas delivered a lecture on the Student Volunteer Movement in the Missionary work. They are active young workers who carry with them a great deal of vim and activity.