

BUFFALO'S BIG STRIKE.

No Agreement Reached Between Employers and Employed.

CONFERENCES WITH A BISHOP.

The Employers Invited the Strikers to Submit a Proposal, But as This Proposal Demanded Absolute Surrender It Was Promptly Rejected.

Buffalo, May 9.—The strike situation is practically unchanged. All efforts made to bring about a settlement have been balked by the absolute refusal of the strikers to consider any proposition that did not include the abrogation of Contractor Connors' contract and the refusal of the Lake Carriers' association to cancel the contract.

Bishop Quigley had been asked and had consented to receive a delegation from the different interests affected by the strike, and at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning the state board of mediation and arbitration, together with Harvey D. Gouider, attorney for the Lake Carriers' association; Captain Thomas Wilson, James Corrigan and H. Conroy of Cleveland, members of the Lake Carriers' association, and Gibson C. Douglas, of the Western Transit company, waited upon him at his residence. The bishop was asked to intercede with the men and advise them to accept the terms offered by the contractor. A delegation from the Grain Shovelers' union, headed by President McLahan, it was learned, had been to the bishop's residence earlier in the morning.

The conference lasted until noon. All but Bishop Quigley refused to make any statement concerning what had taken place. In reply to a question the bishop said: "Nothing but the fundamental principles of the situation were discussed. We did not go into details. I have no proposition to make to the men."

At the conclusion of the conference the Lake Carriers' association asked the representatives of the striking scoopers to submit to them a proposal, which would be considered at a second conference to be held at Bishop Quigley's residence.

President McClendon, of the scoopers' union, immediately reported to a meeting of the strikers in St. Bridget's Hall, and on his suggestion a committee of nine was named to draft an agreement to be submitted to the Lake Carriers' association, and the committee was given full power to enter into a contract should their proposition be accepted.

This action on the part of the Lake Carriers' association was hailed with delight by the strikers, as indicating that the vessel men had about concluded to cancel Mr. Connors' contract and deal directly with the scoopers.

Last evening's conference was held at Bishop Quigley's residence. The bishop acted as chairman of the meeting. Remarks and suggestions were made by almost all of those present, and when the conference closed Mr. Gouider stated that the bishop would prepare a report of the conference and would submit it to the parties interested some time today. Mr. Gouider declined absolutely to say anything as to the result of the conference or the propositions made by each side.

It was learned, however, that the propositions submitted by the striking shovelers provided for the abrogation of the contract with Mr. Connors and the letting of another contract to the Grain Shovelers' union at the same price bid by Mr. Connors. It also provided for the appointment of a paymaster not connected with any saloon interests, and the appointment of a local board of arbitration, with power to settle all differences in the future that might arise in connection with the contract or among the men.

The proposition also provided that this board should consist of three members, one to be appointed by the Lake Carriers' association, one by the shovelers' union and the third by the other two. The proposition was rejected.

MILES AND EAGAN CENSURED.

The Beef Investigators' Report Adverses No Further Proceedings.

Washington, May 8.—By direction of the president, who approves the findings, acting Secretary of the War Merit/John yesterday made public the report and findings of the military court appointed to investigate the charges made by Major General Miles, commanding the army, that the beef supplied to the army during the war with Spain was unfit for the use of the troops.

The most important features of the report are:

The finding that the general's allegations that the refrigerated beef was treated with chemicals were not established; that his allegations concerning the canned fresh or canned roast beef were sustained as to its unsuitability for food as used on the transports and as a long continued field ration; censure of General Miles for "error" in failing to promptly notify the secretary of war when he first formed the opinion that the food was unfit; censure of the commissary general (then General Eagan) for the too extensive purchases of the canned beef as an untried ration; censure of Colonel Maus, of General Miles' staff; the finding that the packers were not at fault, and that the meats supplied to the army were of the same quality as those supplied to the trade generally, and the recommendation that no further proceedings be taken in the premises.

A Protest From China.

Washington, May 9.—The Chinese legation here has made a strong protest to the state department against the extension of the exclusion act to Cuba, this having been one result of a recent executive order extending the immigration laws of the United States to Cuba and Porto Rico. Mr. Yung Kwai, an attaché of the legation, said that in view of the fact that the Chinese would make the best kind of citizens for the settlement of Cuba, he believed the order would be modified so as not to exclude his countrymen.

ONE OF THE PROFESSOR.

College Episode Narrated in Glee by the Boy Who Thought It Funny.

"I wonder if I told you how Young fooled 'Old Roots,' the Greek professor, exam. time?" asked Billy, and no one could truthfully say that he had heard it, Billy called him: "'Roots,' as we call him, thinks, always, that some one is cribbing in exams. Now, in reality, he's away off, because the fellows don't crib up there now, but 'Roots' is always looking for a chance to catch some one, and he got it last week. We were having an exam. in Greek and he was sneaking up and down the aisles watching everyone. He was at the end of the room furthest away from Young when he happened to look over and see Young take out his watch. You can't work that old watch crib game on 'Roots,' he's too old, and when he saw Young's watch appear he sneaked up back of him to see if there was anything wrong. He could walk almost as quietly as a cat, and was behind Young without having made a sound, just as he touched the spring and the cover of the watch opened. There surely was a piece of paper in that watch case and 'Roots' saw it. That was enough. He leaped over, grabbed it and told Young to come to the desk with him. We immediately came to the conclusion that there was something wrong, so everyone stopped writing and watched 'Roots' and Young. Up to the desk they went; then 'Roots' sat down and without looking at the watch, which he held in his hand, looked at Young and said: "'Mr. Young, I find that you have been trying to use aid in this examination.'"

"I beg your pardon," Young answered. "I haven't used anything in an unfair way."

"'Roots' was taken back for a moment at the fellow's nerve when he had been caught red-handed. But what have you to say about this paper, Mr. Young?" said he. "You were about to make use of it and it has written upon it"—Here he paused and looked at the paper, then blushed and appeared to grow angry, and finally told Young to take his seat and go on with his paper.

"What it all meant was more than we could make out, and it was not until after the exam. that we found that the paper had contained but one word, and that word was 'foiled.'"—N. Y. Sun.

A Famous Drummer.

Probably the most remarkable drummer who ever lived was Jean Houri, the famous tambour major of Emperor Napoleon. One of his feats was to play on 15 different toned drums at the same time in so soft and harmonious a manner that, instead of the deafening uproar that might have been expected, the effect was that of a novel and complete instrument. In playing he passed from one drum to the other with such wonderful quickness that the eyes of the spectators could hardly follow the movement of his hands and body.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the system and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces, such as the head, never use except on prescription from a reputable physician, as the damage they will do is too fatal to be proved by any possibility of cure from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in T. S. Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. What Shall We Do.

A serious and dangerous disease prevails in this country, dangerous because so deceptive. It comes on so slowly yet surely that it is often seated before we are aware of it. The name of this disease which may be divided into three distinct stages is, First, Kidney trouble, or Embargo, frequent desire to urinate, often with a burning sensation, the flow of urine being copious or scant with strong color. It follows to advance, this reaches the second stage, or Bladder trouble, with heavy pain in the abdomen, low down between the navel and water passage, increasing desire to urinate, with scalding sensation in passing, small quantities being passed with difficulty, sometimes necessary to draw with instruments. If uric acid or gravel has formed, it will prove dangerous if neglected. The third stage is Bright's Disease. There is comfort in knowing that Dr. Kilmer, the great kidney and bladder specialist, has discovered a Remedy famous for its marvelous cures of the most distressing cases and known as Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root. It is sold by all druggists. As a proof of the wonderful virtues of this great discovery, Swamp Root, a sample bottle and book of valuable information will be sent absolutely free by mail on application to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N.
