Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then rein his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay besides; one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by all Druggists.

Bright Little Boy.
A suburban widower married a second time, and his choice was a wealthy lady about 50 years of age. When the bride and bridegroom returned home from the wedding the husband, introducing the wife to his children, said: "My dear children, kiss this lady. She is the new mamma I promised to bring you."
"After taking a steady look at the 'new mamma,' little Charlie said: "Pa, you have been cheated! She isn't new at all!"—Tit-Bits.
He Wasn't Doing the Talking.
"Do you take this woman to be your wedded wife?" asked the justice when the proper point in the ceremony had been reached.
"You've missed your guess, judge," answered the prospective benedict, who was there principally because he had been threatened with a breach of promise suit. "I'm the one that's being taken."—Chicago Post.
After Dark in Manila.
All you maidens, fair to see:
You with eyes a la Chinese,
You with Malay blood so free,
You that slip in Japanese,
You who grew on Spanish tree,
From my presence do not flee;
You are different, you'll agree:
Stop and hear my earnest plea—
You all look alike to me,
After dark.
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
TOOK HIM LITERALLY.

Ethel—I don't think Johnnie can be fond of fruit, Miss Trainem.
"Why not, my dear?"
"Because he said the other day he didn't care a fig for you."—Fun.
The Inevitable.
She has made her own hat; and she looks in the glass,
While the anxious frown on her brow increases.
She has carefully put it together, alas!
For the other women to pick it to pieces.
—Judge.
Genius.
First Clubman—Heapeck has the most marvelous command of facial expressions I ever saw.
Second Clubman—Can't say I've noticed it.
First Clubman—Well, you would have yesterday. His wife gave him a new tie and he looked grateful.—N. Y. World.
All Talk.
Questioning a lad of 12 years about his studies and school life the other day, a friend said:
"No corporal punishment there. I suppose, Jack?"
"No, m'm," replied the boy. "Moral suasion. They just jaw us."—Cincinnati Enquirer.
She Wanted to Know.
Mrs. Crimsonbeak—You don't believe that there will be any animals in the next world, John, do you?
Mr. Crimsonbeak—Of course I don't.
"What was the use, then, in telling that dog you just tried to kick to go there?"—Yonkers Statesman.
He Deserved It.
Tenderfoot—What has that man been doing? Stealing horses?
Native—Now, we're too civilized to lynch people for stealing horses nowadays. That fellow thinks he can sing soon songs.—N. Y. Journal.

The Girl of To-day will be the woman of to-morrow. She does not know it, perhaps her mother does not fully understand it, but between the "to-day" when she is a girl and the "to-morrow" when she will be a woman, her life's happiness and health are in the balance. If she is to be a full-breasted, strong, healthy woman she must develop rightly now. She is at a crisis. She needs more strength, more blood to tide it over. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the one medicine that will give her the strength and make the new blood.
Our new book, PLAIN TALKS TO WOMEN, explains why these pills are of special benefit to growing girls. A copy will be sent to any address. FREE on request.
Miss Frankie Hathaway, of Sixteenth Street, Holland, Mich., said: "I am 21 years old, and I was pale and weak and did not gain under the doctor's care. Other treatment brought no better result and by the time I was nineteen years old I was so weak I could not walk across the floor. I was terribly emaciated and my skin had lost all color. The doctor pronounced the disease anæmia. One of my friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I bought a box and before I had taken all of the pills I found that they were doing me good. My appetite increased and the healthy color began to show in my cheeks and lips. I continued to use the pills until I had taken fifteen boxes and found myself permanently cured. Since then I have had no return of my old trouble and cannot remember when I was so strong and healthy as now. I know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People saved my life, and I believe that no other medicine could have done it."—FRANKIE HATHAWAY.—Ottawa Times, Holland, Mich.

Nearly Fifty-Eight Years Old!
It's a long life, but devotion to the true interests and prosperity of the American People has won for it new friends as the years rolled by and the original members of its family passed to their reward, and these admirers are loyal and steadfast to-day, with faith in its teachings, and confidence in the information which it brings to their homes and firesides.
As a natural consequence it enjoys in its old age all the vitality and vigor of its youth, strengthened and ripened by the experiences of over half a century.
It has lived on its merits, and on the cordial support of progressive Americans.
It is the "New York Weekly Tribune," acknowledged the country over as the leading National Family Newspaper.
Recognizing its value to those who desire all the news of the State and Nation, the publisher of THE POST, (your own favorite home paper), has entered into an alliance with "The New York Weekly Tribune" which enables him to furnish both papers at the trifling sum of $1.25 per year.
Every farmer and every village owes to himself, to his family, and to the community in which he lives a cordial support of his local newspaper as it words constantly and untiringly for his interests in every way brings to his home all the news and happenings of his neighborhood, the doings of his friends, the condition and prospects for different crops, the prices in home markets, and, in fact, is a weekly visitor which should be found in every wide-awake, progressive family.
Just think of it! Both these papers for only $1.25 a year.
