King O'B.cefe L. Though Born in Ireland, is an American Citisen-His Kingdom.

David B. O'Keefe, king of the small islands Yap, Olia and St. David, which are about 300 miles from Pelew, has had an adventurous career, says the London Leader.

He is by birth an Irishman, by paturalization an American, and is 68 years of age. When he settled at Yap he married a native princess, who is a shrewd woman and rules when he is away.

The islands over which he rules are his by right of discovery and the acquiescence of the native rulers, and may become the cause of complications. He holds them against the rival claims of Spain and Holland. Over his islands his single trading schooner he flies the O'Keefe is known in Hong-Kong as the copra king. He has accumulated on immense fortune in the cocoanut trade, and is a millionaire aside from his claim to the islands. He wishes to sell his territory either to the United States or England.

O'Keefe has complete control over his chiefs, and has suppressed the slave traffic which used to be carried on.

All Regular. Pirst Passenger (on railway train)-I have an idea that is an cloping couple. Second Passenger-No, they're married. He's been in the smoking car for the past two hours.-N. Y. Weekly.

He Was Posted. "Now, Harry," asked the teacher of the juvenile class, "what is the meal we eat in the morning called?" "Outmeal," was the little fellow's prompt reply.--Current Literature.

Reminiscent.

Mother-I distinctly heard sounds of kissing in the hall last night. Daughter (archly)-It must have reminded you of the old times, marama .-Philadelphia North American.

Tough Luck. "Madam, it is my painful duty to inform you that your husband has been eaten by a bear." "That's too bad; he had on his best clothes."-N. Y. World. Beginning Early,

Yeast-They say the Toodles baby has her mother's chin. Crimsonbeak-Indeed! I didn't know the little thing had begun to talk yet!-

Yonkers Statesman. Losing Interest. "Dorothy has given up all expecta-

"Has she quit crimping her hair?" "No; but she doesn't save cooking recipes any more."—Chicago Record. It Was Diluted.

Doctor-Can you get pure water at your boarding house.

Patient-No. not always; I frequently detect just a flavor of coffee in it.-Detroit Free Press. A Queer Characteristic. Nan, in describing to the family her new teacher, who lisps, said: "She purrs awfully funny when she speaks."

His Prediction Verified. "I see there is talk of a plow trust with a capital of $60,000,000."

"Well, haven't I been telling you right along that they would run this trust business in the ground?"-Chicago Evening News. The Beathen Chines. Mrs. De Fashion-What perfectly horrible creatures the Chinese are! I am told that in China the men actually buy their wives. Mrs. De Style-Yes, isn't it horrible?

By the way, when is your daughter to marry Mr. Bullion? Mrs. De Fashion-Just as soon as he recovers from this last attack of gout.

-N. Y. Weekly.

Revised History. "Grandpop," he began, turning the leaves of his book, "did your history used to say that the Spaniards settled this country?" "I believe it did, my boy?" "Well, the new ones won't say that." "What will they say, Ostend?" "This country settled the Spanlards."

Then grandpop gave him a dime-Brooklyn Life. Very Likely.

She-I see an eminent German physician has found that women require more sleep than men. He-Yes, and I'll bet he's been bribed by somebody who wants to furnish some reason why her husband should get up and build the fire in the mornings."-Chicago Daily News.

The Only One. Jackson-Penwell is the most remarkable literary man I know. Johnson-Oh, he writes good stories, but there's nothing remarkable in that

Jackson-No, but he doesn't insist on reading them aloud to his friends.-N. Y. World. A Stranger Present. Struggling Minister-There w tranger in church to-day.

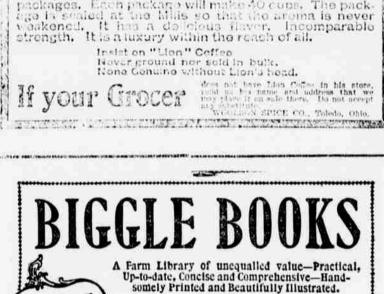

Wife-What did he look like? "I did not see him." "Then how do you know there was stranger among the congregation?" "I found a good quarter in the contri-bution box."—N. Y. Weelst.
