A Washington girl has invented a method of sending kisses by mail—a method by which she can present to the favored one the living image of a kiss from her own rosy lips.

UNCLE SAM'S DOMAIN.

The idea that Uncle Sam is at present a landless old fellow has generally taken possession of the people throughout the country. This, however, is a great mistake.

About one-half this vast amount of land lies in the State of Alaska, and it is very certain that this will never be available for homestead purposes.

Man's Best Friend.

The horse, the most useful and highly prized of all our domestic animals, deserves our best care and consideration.

They Will and They Won't.

"I'll tell you what a woman will and will not do in my line of business," said the man who was selling clocks and rugs on the weekly installment plan.

The Domestic Cat.

The prominent attention lately bestowed upon the domestic cat by fashionable society, and the great success of several cat shows, have induced Mr. John E. Diehl, the well known authority in domestic animals.

Where Early Planting is Desirable.

"I tell a well meaning, but perhaps not yet perfectly persistent young friend, who asks me about it," said Mr. Staybolt.

After the recent fighting north of Manila the American soldiers found the lull that followed and the rest they were accorded very enjoyable.

A Ness City (Kan.) man had an original way of bequeathing his effects to his heirs. He requested that all meet at his house at a given time after his death and open the safe in which he kept his valuables.

"There is something," writes a warrior from Manila, "which has been bothering me for a long time. Will you please allow enough space in your heart-to-heart talks to answer one question: Owing to the fact that I live in the Philippines I am known as a Filipino."

Up to the day of his first entering school Booker T. Washington's name was Booker Tallafarro. Then the teacher said that all the colored boys of the section had three or four names.

A man at Redding Cal., has just secured a divorce by telephone, his wife having obligingly over the telephone wire admitted service of the summons, waived time and formally agreed to the proceedings.

If salt revives drowned animal life, as an Englishman thinks he has discovered, the man who falls into the ocean ought to be easily restored, especially if he happens to be an old salt himself.

The New York woman who cut her husband's throat to prevent snoring has at least placed an effective cure on the market.

RAW AS BEEF FROM ECZEMA!

No Torture Equal to the Itching and Burning of This Fearful Disease.

Not much attention is often paid to the first symptoms of Eczema, but it is not long before the little redness begins to itch and burn.

Eczema—which is more than skin-deep, and can not be reached by local applications of ointments, salves, etc., applied to the surface.

Mr. Phil T. Jones, of Mixersville, Ind., writes: "I had Eczema thirty years, and after a great deal of treatment my leg was so raw and sore that it gave me constant pain."

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—is superior to other blood remedies because it cures diseases which they can not reach. It goes to the bottom—to the cause of the disease—and will cure the worst case of Eczema.

Chance for a Rest.

Mrs. De Fashion—Is Mrs. De Style at home? Servant—No, mum. "Will she be back soon, do you think?"

"No, mum; she'll be away all day, I'm thinking. Ye see, I've given her notice, an' she's gone out ter find a gurrul good enough to take my place. Yez might come in an' rest y'rself. There's none o' the family home to talk ye to death."—N. Y. Weekly.

Of Course Not.

Hewitt—I am the son of poor but honest parents. Jewett—Well, if they hadn't been honest they wouldn't have been poor.

Drink Grain-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it because it is healthful, invigorating and appetizing.

AT THE CLUB WINDOW.

"That lady going along there is my mother-in-law." "Great Scott! you don't say so? I thought she was a walking advertisement for a new lamp shade."

MEN Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, disallows ambition: beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Complaining Woman. Down in the madding throng's ignoble strife It is his lot to labor day by day; He's sending all he earns unto his wife, Who's closed the house and hid herself away.

Some Basis for It. Mr. Perkasee—Young Skidmore thinks that telephone girl of his is a perfect angel. Mr. Poindexter—Well, there is a "Hello" around her head constantly when she is on duty.—Judge.

Does Coffee Agree With You? If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I make Grain-O I did not like it after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee."

The crops harvested at Chicora, S. C., this year were most bountiful. High prices were realized for the large crops of midwinter fruits and vegetables.

Missed the Opportunity.

Mrs. Bargane—Haven't you got a toothache, John? Mr. Bargane—No, my dear; why?

Mrs. Bargane—Oh, I am so sorry that you have not. I bought a new toothache cure to-day at a bargain, and I wanted to try it.—Baltimore Jewish Comment.

Just What She Said.

"Did your sister say she's 20 yet?" asked the young man. "Yes; she says she's 20 yet," replied the young brother.—Yonkers Statesman.

He Had Been There.

Walker—It must have been a horrible torture to be broken on the wheel. Wheeler—It is. I went broke on a wheel once myself.—N. Y. Journal.

No Danger.

Mrs. Gableton—I am afraid that I am a pretty poor whist-player. The Professor—Don't be afraid! I never hit a lady.—Puck.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. Jas. Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice.
