MANY EMINENT GUESTS

At Chicago's Festival Banquet at the Auditorium.

TRIBUTE OF SECRETARY LONG

To the Many Unknown Heroes of the War-The Work of Wainwright and the Gloncester Commended - Premier Laurier's Friendly Speech.

Chicago, Oct. 10.-Chicago's great Auditorium never held a greater gathering than last night, when the Chicago day banquet was held within its walls under the auspices of the fall festival committee. The great stage, upon which 1,000 people can easily find standing room, had been enlarged and a great floor built out over the seats of the parquet, quadrupling the floor space of the stage. President Mc-Kinley, who was the guest of honor, sat at a raised table on the right of Melville E. Stone, the toastmaster.

Other distinguished guests were at the same table, among them being Vice President Don Ignacio Mariscal of Mexico, Premier Wilfrid Laurier of Canada, General John C. Black, Governor John R. Tanner, Mayor Carter H. Harrison, Senor Manuel De Aspiroz, Secretaries Hay, Gage, Smith, Long, Hitchcock and Wilson, Attorney Gen-eral Griggs, Generals David B. Henderson, Merritt, Anderson and Alger. Carl Dentzer, Dr. Emil G, Hirsch, minister to Brazil, Charles Page Bryan, W. T. Buchanan, Japanese Minister Jutaro Komura and Senators Mason, Allison, McMillan, McEnery, Penrose and Cullom.

The opening hour of the banquet was eet for 6 o'clock, but the streets were so densely packed by the great throng that had come down to witness the laying of the corner stone of the new federal building and the afternoon parade and remained in great part to see the parade of the evening that it was with difficulty one could make his way along the streets, and as a consequence it was nearly an hour later than that originally set when the banquet was in full blast.

The material part of the banquet occupied two hours, and it was nearly 10 o'clock when Mr. Stone rapped for order, and brought the intellectual portion of the program to the front in an eloquent address. He was followed by Governor Tanner, Mayor Harrison, Senator McCullom, President McKinley, Premier Laurier of Canada, Vice President Mariscal of Mexico, Secretary Long, D. B. Henderson and General Thomas M. Anderson.

Secretary Long evoked thunders of applause by his tribute to the unknown heroes. He said in part:

"You cheer for the men behind the guns; you give swords and banquets here and there to an admiral—and both most richly deserve the tribute but remember that all up and down the line there are individuals whose names never come to our ears, or if so, are already half forgotten, who have earn-ed unfading laurels. No man in the navy has rendered such service, however great, that others were not ready to fill the place and do as well. The navy is full of heroes unknown to fame. Who repeats the names of the young officers who pleaded for Hobson's chance to risk his life in the hull and hell of the Merrimac? Who mentions the scores of seamen who begged to be of the immortal seven who were his companions in that forlorn hope? In the long watch before Santiago the terror of our great battleships was the two Spanish torpedo boat destroyers. Yet when the great battle came it was the unprotected Gloucester, a converted yacht, the former plaything and pleasure boat of summer vacation, which without besitation or turning attacked these demons of the sea and sunk them both. I have always thought it the most heroic and gallant individual instance of fighting during the war. And yet who has given a sword or spread a feast to that purest flame of chivalrous heroism, Richard Wainwright?"

Premier Laurier, in the course of his address, made this reference to international disputes:

"I am proud to say, in the presence of the chief executive of the United States, that it is the belief of the Canndian government that we should make a supreme effort to better our relations and make the government of President McKinley and the present government of Canada, with the assent of Great Britain, so to work together as to remove all causes of dissension between us. May I be permitted to say here and now that we do not desire one inch of your land, but if I state, however, that we want to hold our land, will that be an American sentiment, want to know? I am here to say above all, my fellow countrymen, that we want not to stand upon the extreme limits of our rights. We are ready to give and to take. But though we have many little bickerings of that kind, I speak my whole mind. and I believe I speak the mind of all you gentlemen, when I say that after all, when we go down to the bottom of our hearts we will find that there is between us a true genuine affection. There are no two nations today on the face of the globe so united as Great Britain and the United States of America.

The most spectacular feature of the entire fall festival, the parade of all nations, took place last night, and was viewed by thousands, the streets in the down town district being literally a solid mass of humanity for the entire length of the parade. The parade, in which marched representatives of 14 countries, including Germany, Vene-zuela, Switzerland, Brazil, the Netherlands, Austria and Hungary, Scotland. Armenia, Asyria, Belgium, China. Italy and the United States, included nearly thirty floats, some of them extremely beautiful and novel. The one that attracted the most attention was the great Chinese dragon, which was shipped here from San Francisco for the all-nations parade. The dragon, which was nearly three hundred feet long. was carried on the shoulders of 200 men, and in its immense jaws and nos-trils were burned red and green fire in quantities that lit up the parade

THE REBELS RETREAT, AS USUAL

THE BRITISH POLICY

In South Africa May Meet Radical Opposition in Parliament.

ONLY FIVE THOUSAND RESERVES

Will Be Retained With the Colors-The Authorities Have Contracted For Eight Months' Supply of Bread and Other Military Regulaites.

London, Oct. 10 .- The dearth of news since yesterday afternoon from the Cape, on which all attention is rivetted, is poorly compensated for by the mass of minor details published concerning the preparations for the dispatch of the army corps and speculalon as to the length and character of the debates when parliament meets. In official circles there is said to be apprehension that the radicals will offer protracted opposition to the government's policy in South Africa, which will possibly make prorogation and Christmas near neighbors.

There is a pretty general feeling that ammunition ought not to be allowed to be fur-

Some indication of the war office estimate of the duration of the campaign is given by the fact that the authorities have contracted for eight months' supply of bread and other military requisites rendered necessary by the absence of the bulk of the army service corps, whom the war office thus evidently calculates will be at home again by the beginning of May.
It appears that although the war office called up 25,000 reservists, only the pick of them, some 5,000, will be retained with the colors. The authorities are pleased at the application of a number of reservists belonging to the unmobilized classes who are volunteering for foreign service. The war office announces that wives of reservists will get six pence and each child two pence daily while the husbands and fathers are retained with the colors.

The scarcity of news from South Africa appears to be due to a heavy when 67 years old. She had a won-block on the telegraph lines, which derful memory, and always enjoyed may mean that the lines are occupied by official dispatches, and that negotiations are being actively carried on. From Durban it is announced that no code messages will be accepted for any part of South Africa without the production of the codes.

HAILED AS HEROES.

Americans Who Defeated the World at Rapid Bridge Building.

Philadelphia, Oct. 7.—Superintendant Wennas, of the Pencoyd iron works, of this city, and the seven skilled iron workers who accompanied him to Egypt to erect the bridge over Atbara river, in the Soudan, arrived in New York Thursday wening on the steamship Servia and vere given a royal welcome when they reached the Pencoyd works yesterday. They are looked upon as heroes by their thousands of fellow workmen, and the whole force turned out to greet them. Work was suspended, whistles were blown and quite a demonstration was made. The rapidity of the completion of the Atabara bridge by the Pencoyd company has attracted the attention of the world, though Superintendent Wennas remarked that he did not regard the achievement as a great one. He said that if he could have had a big force of American helpers to assist him in the erection of the bridge, instead of the convicts, the only help available, he could have finished the work even quicker than it was done.

The English government wanted a steel bridge built for its military road in Egypt, and wanted it built in a hurry. No English or European constructors could be found with capacity or sufficient energetic action to undertake the work, and the Pencoyd company took the contract on Feb. 6 last. The structural parts of the seven spans, each 170 feet long, weighing 650 tons, and the cylinder caps, weighing 64 tons, were rapidly prepared and were shipped from New York April 20. The material arrived at its destination in the latter part of May. Superintendent Wennas and his seven skilled assistants were on hand. and in two months after their arrival the completed structure was turned ever to the English government, an almost unprecedented piece of engineering enterprise.
