ADAMS WITHDRAWS.

Josiah R. Adams, the nominee for Judge of the Superior Court, last Wednesday withdrew as a candidate on the Republican ticket. The stimulus that led to this hasty retreat was the publication in the Philadelphia North American of some very serious charges against the American Investors' Company of which Mr. Adams for quite a time was the president. Whether Mr. Adams profited by these shady transactions or not has not been shown, but while Mr. Adams denies having received any profit from these illicit transactions, the public is at liberty to think for themselves on this important point. Mr. Adams in his letter of withdrawal says that he is willing to sacrifice personal ambition for the good of the party. This is certainly a commendable position to take, but it still will not compel the public to believe that he was entirely innocent. It is unfortunate that political leaders either do not study and understand the characters for public office or else are willing to defy public opinion to such a marvelous extent. The leaders, however, have shown good judgment in retiring. Mr. Adams, as no man should be on the bench against whom there should be even a shadow of suspicion, even though he is innocent. The time has come when the bench should be above the slightest inclination of reproach and the people of Pennsylvania owe a debt of gratitude to the North American for getting Mr. Adams off the ticket. There is not another newspaper in existence that won such laurels and accomplished their aim in less than three days.

The Republican Standing Committee of the State met in Philadelphia and unanimously nominated Hon. John L. Mitchell of Tioga county to fill the place on the ticket. Judge Mitchell served his county in the State Legislature, two terms in Congress and also as United States Senator and as Judge of his district. He is in every way fitted for the high and honorable position for which he has been named and we place his name on the ticket at the head of this column.

B. Franklin Crouse Passes Away.

On Monday morning at about four o'clock B. Franklin Crouse, one of the well known men of the county and an old citizen of this town, passed away from the effects of a stroke of apoplexy that he had several years ago, and which left him an invalid from that time.

At one time Mr. Crouse was a successful mail route contractor of the Star routes, and made money. He at one time had about all the routes in this county, but of late years he over reached in the mail contract business, and lost money and gave his bondsmen trouble.

Mr. Crouse is survived by three sisters and two brothers, Daniel and Jerry Crouse, both of this county. The funeral will take place on Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m., from the late residence. His age was about 63 years.—Selingsgrove Times.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Missingill, of Beaumont, Tex. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by all Druggists.

Splendid Advice to Hunters.

As the game season is about to open, and in view of the many human lives that are taken yearly by careless sportsmen, the following from the Sportsman Magazine for September is worth reading by all who go gunning: Do not shoot at a noise or moving object in the bushes, but wait until the object is clearly recognized before you pull the trigger. Better lose your only chance at a deer than to lose your peace of mind forever through remorseful consciousness of having caused the death of human being. Aside from the costly lessons that have been taught, remember there are other hunters roaming the forest as well as yourself.

Popular Falsity Exploded.

The Scientific American states that the venerable bogey of the crystallization of steel and iron in bridge structures is persistently trotted out. It is probable that a large percentage of the passengers daily crossing Brooklyn bridge believe that the metal of the bridge is deteriorating—"crystallizing"—and that the wire cables, unless they are renewed, will in the course of time give way and precipitate the whole bridge into the river. Tests in the laboratory and half a century's tests in the field, supplemented by the recent careful tests made by Prof. Carpenter, of Cornell, prove that this view is no longer tenable. There is no reason why, with careful inspection to prevent oxidation by the weather, the metal of such structures as the Brooklyn and Forth bridges should not last as indefinitely as if it lay imbedded in the ore from which it was extracted.

Hon. G. A. Schoch and wife attended the funeral of Christian Mensch in Union county last week.

SNYDER COUNTY MARRIAGES,

1835-1899,

—COMPILED BY—

GEO. W. WAGENSELLER, A. M.,

—AUTHOR OF—

"HISTORY OF THE WAGENSELLER FAMILY IN AMERICA," FERRY AND ORWIG GENEALOGIES.

The record of the marriages published in this book have been carefully gathered from various sources and represent those who were married in Snyder County, Penna., during the time specified, but also many from adjacent counties. It is the first volume of this character published in any county in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. There is a record of more than 7,500 Marriages or 15,000 Names, of persons who resided in this county and who are now residing here. It is not represented to contain every marriage solemnized in this county during that period, but only such whose records could be secured, but for the greater period the record is nearly complete. The records consulted are as follows:

1. From 1868 to Oct. 1, 1885, the marriages are taken from the files of the Middleburgh Post.
2. From Oct. 1, 1885, when the license law went into effect, to April 16, 1899, the record was taken from the license docket of Snyder County, Pa.
3. Rev. Adolf B. Casper's Marriage Record.
4. Rev. John Peter Shindel's (Jr.) Marriage Record.
5. Rev. Charles Gustavus Erlennyer's Marriage Record.

An Index of Surnames.

has been made and published in the book enabling easy access to any name in the volume. There are represented 1813 different surnames.

Points to be Considered.

There are a great many points to be considered which demonstrate the value of having this publication at your finger's ends. We can name only a few at this time:

1. It is a ready reference book of marriages which recalls many pleasant events and also places a permanent record in the hands of your posterity with which they will never be willing to part.
2. It is a very useful guide to assist you in fixing the dates of collateral events.
3. It is an indispensable book for the genealogist and the historian.
4. It is of incalculable value to the politician who should be thoroughly posted concerning the "dear" people.
5. The Lawyer, Doctor, Clergyman, Editor and Teacher will find it a convenience, and, in time, almost a necessity, nearly every day of his life.
6. Not a store, hotel, nor a business place of any kind in Snyder County should be without a copy of this book.
7. No historical or genealogical, nor any other public library is complete without a copy of this work.

Special Offer.

This book like many others that will be called for only by a limited number of people will of necessity cost more per volume than those whose circulation run into tens and even hundreds of thousands of copies. There will be only about three hundred copies of this work and those who wish a copy should not delay placing an order early. The preparation of this book has entailed a great deal of labor and expense and so far as the remuneration is concerned, we should have at least Five Dollars per volume for it. We do not, however, desire to make the price a barrier, and imbued with the idea of placing the book within the reach of all, we have decided to offer it for

Only Three Dollars a Copy.

Orders by mail will have our prompt attention. An agent is wanted in every district of the county to solicit orders. Address all communications to the compiler,
