

SPEAK

SECRETARY OF WAR ROOT.

"Republicanism this year means, as it has ever meant, loyalty to our country, belief in the inviolability of public faith, an unflinching adherence to honest government and honest money, and an undying devotion to the honor and integrity of the flag, wherever it floats, carried by our soldiers or sailors on land or sea. This year all these qualities are accentuated in a marked degree, and the Republican who fails to go to the polls and cast a stalwart Republican ballot will ever regret having failed to take advantage of one of the greatest opportunities of his life to show his devotion to and practical and timely allegiance to the party, which means so much to the continued welfare of our people. The greater the Republican vote this fall the greater will be the incentive to Republican leaders to prepare for the great national struggle next year."—Secretary of War Root, in a recent interview.

FOR

SECRETARY OF NAVY LONG.

"It is the indifferent and stay-at-home voter that the party managers should direct their attention to this fall. These are the men who are so preoccupied with their business interests that they frequently do not appreciate the importance of a political campaign until after the election returns are announced. Then, if the result is not as they desired, they feel the sting of remorse and realize the result of their own negligence. This fall there is more than usual danger to the Republican party from the indifferent citizen. Our prosperous conditions naturally divert the minds of many from matters of public moment. The party workers should single out these voters and at the proper time see that they go to the polls. If they get them there, we need have no fear of them voting the Democratic ticket. The thing to do is to get them there—the intelligence of the voter will do the rest."—Secretary Long, in a recent interview.

THEIR

GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT.

"Are the people so short sighted that they forget the miseries of six years ago? Do they forget the bread riots, the squallid want even of those able and anxious to work? We cannot by any laws bring happiness and prosperity to every one, but we can do what the Republican party has done; that is, by wise legislation and wise administration secure the chance for the bulk of our people to live out their lives and do their work with the odds as much as possible in their favor. This is a national contest. We appeal not merely to party, but beyond party; we appeal to all good citizens, to all patriotic Americans, to stand with us as we uphold the financial integrity and the conditions which stand for material prosperity at home, as we uphold the honor of the flag and the interests of the nation abroad."—Governor Roosevelt, in his recent Akron, O., speech.

PARTY

REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN HANNA.

"There is no doubt that the state elections this fall will be taken as an index of the sentiment of the American people upon the issues of the approaching national campaign. It is, therefore, important that every Republican vote shall be cast in November for the candidates on the Republican state tickets in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Iowa and other states in which there are local contests for important offices. All our Republican majorities this year should be as large as possible to emphasize the popular feeling. The industrial conditions and the Philippine war will prove factors in the coming campaign. The Philippine war has been made an issue by the Democratic party, but we have nothing to fear. I would as lief have so-called anti-expansion made an issue as I would have the silver question, for silver is an old man of the sea. I am not afraid of the outcome among the people. They will not, I believe, by their own act, change the condition of the country. Republicans everywhere should go to the polls this fall."—Republican National Chairman Hanna, in recent interview.

A SMALL SPOT MAY BE CANCER.

MOST VIOLENT CASES HAVE APPEARED AT FIRST AS MERE PIMPLES. The greatest care should be given to any little sore, pimple or scratch which shows no disposition to heal under ordinary treatment. No one can tell how soon these will develop into Cancer of the worst type. So many people die from Cancer simply because they do not know just what the disease is; they naturally turn themselves over to the doctors, and are forced to submit to a cruel and dangerous operation—the only treatment which the doctors know for Cancer. The disease promptly returns, however, and is even more violent and destructive than before. Cancer is a deadly poison in the blood, and an operation, plaster, or other external treatment can have no effect whatever upon it. The cure must come from within—the last vestige of poison must be eradicated.

Mr. Wm. Walpole, of Walshtown, S. D., says: "A little blotch about the size of a pea came under my left eye, gradually growing larger, from which shooting pains at intervals ran in all directions. I became greatly alarmed and consulted a good doctor, who pronounced it Cancer, and advised that it be cut out, but this I could not consent to. I read in my local paper of a cure effected by S. S. S., and decided to try it. It acted like a charm, the Cancer becoming at first irritated, and then discharging very freely. This gradually grew less and then discontinued altogether, leaving a small scab which soon dropped off, and now only a healthy little scar remains where what threatened to destroy my life once held full sway." Positively the only cure for Cancer is Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—because it is the only remedy which can go deep enough to reach the root of the disease and force it out of the system permanently. A surgical operation does not reach the blood—the real seat of the disease—because the blood can not be cut away. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place. S. S. S. cures also any case of Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Ulcers, Sores, or any other form of blood disease. Valuable books on Cancer and Blood Diseases will be mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

election day and vote the entire party ticket, from top to bottom. There never was a time when a national administration deserved more thoroughly the hearty and cordial support of the party organization to which it naturally looks for indorsement.

The best way to indorse the administration at Washington is to go to the polls on Nov. 7 and vote the whole Republican ticket, and no Republican should omit the performance of that duty.

CREASY NOT POPULAR.

The candidacy of W. T. Creasy, the Democratic nominee for state treasurer, represents the radical wing of the Democratic party. He is being ardently supported by his fellow silverites and by that element of the party which is publicly proclaiming against President McKinley and his administration. Many of them are co-operating with the Atkinson movement, which is giving encouragement to the insurgents in the Philippines by the circulation of treasonable literature and otherwise attempting to create sentiment against the policy of the president.

Creasy himself is cutting a small figure in the canvass. He is getting speeches into the Democratic and assistant Democratic papers, which are being prepared for him, and is talking a great deal about what he knows very little.

Following up its arraignment of Creasy upon his antagonistic attitude toward the old soldiers, comes a plain, matter-of-fact statement from the editor of the Columbia Republican, published at Creasy's home, which tells its own story as to his popularity with his neighbors. This is what it says in this week's issue, under the caption, "What the Official Vote Demonstrates:"

In 1894 W. T. Creasy was a candidate for the legislature the first time in Columbia county, and was elected. His majority compared with Singler's is as follows: Singler had 1,334 majority over Hastings, Creasy had 1,010 majority, or 324 less than Singler.

In 1896 Creasy was a candidate for the second term. Bryan had that year 1,542 majority over McKinley and Creasy had 1,091 majority, or 451 less than Bryan.

In 1898 Creasy was a candidate for the third term. Jenks had 2,127 majority over Stone and Creasy had 1,404 majority, of 723 less than Jenks.

This is the verdict which his neighbors and acquaintances registered on three different occasions. The campaign which is being made in the interest of Creasy has been a veritable frost.

An interview with former Republican State Chairman Gilkeson, of Bucks county, published in the New York Tribune, has attracted some comment.

"Only a few years ago," said Mr. Gilkeson, "40,000 was considered a normal majority in Pennsylvania. Since the Democratic factions have become so bitter the better element of their party has come over, so that Pennsylvania may be put down as normal at 150,000. The 300,000 majority may be drawing the line a little too far, but still in a national campaign the steady business Democrats who want no nonsense in politics can be counted on either to vote the Republican ticket or not to vote at all.

"I notice one thing in our district, and I think it is growing everywhere—that is the more active part taken by the farmers in political matters. They are beginning to wake up to the fact that manufacturers are not the only products of toll and skill to be safeguarded by putting the right party and principles in authority. They begin to realize that the great staples, cereals, dairy and meat products, cattle, sheep and hogs, and now chickens and eggs, are not articles of sale on market days or by street hawkers only in cities, towns and villages, but have become the leading articles of export to Europe. That being the fact a stable financial system, based on the coin of commerce, becomes as important to them as it is to the business interests of the country at large, if it wishes to maintain its lead in the commercial affairs of the world.

ON THE FIRING LINE.

Stalwart Republican Editors in the Pennsylvania Campaign.

HOT SHOT FOR THE ENEMY.

They Lead the Advance For the Battle of the Ballots on Tuesday, November 7.

The control of the Democratic party, in the national and state organizations, says the Citizen Press, of Franklin, Pa., is in the hands of the disreputable and anarchistic element, which is placing the honest, intelligent and patriotic Democrats in a false position, so long as they silently permit their names to be used as the supports of the platforms erected and the policy expressed by the Altgelds, Bryans and other "statesmen" who assume to speak for the party. However, one by one of the heretofore prominent Democrats are placing themselves on record as opposed to the copperheadism which is manifested by the rabid leaders of the party and will emphasize their protests by voting the Republican ticket in November, hoping by such action to relegate to the rear the wild eye repudiationists now in control, and thereby save the party organization for the future. This course seems to be the only one open for them to pursue at this time and maintain their self respect.

Ex-Governor Pattison, of this state, is the latest to repudiate the policy laid down for the government of the party by Altgeld and Bryan, points out that patriotism is higher than party. "My duty as an American citizen," says he, "commands my support of the country's president at this juncture. When the president said in his Pittsburg speech that the Philippines were just as much American soil as were Texas and Alaska he spoke the truth. The islands are ours by title of treaty, and we have no title to Louisiana or Alaska except that confirmed by treaty. As they are ours, we are bound to see them pacified, to set up law and order in their midst."

This is the solemn fact, and people who throw obstacles in the way of the pacification of the Philippines are aiding and abetting the rebellion, and those Democrats who are of the same opinion should show their patriotism by voting the Republican ticket this fall. It is the only way to make themselves effective. Votes count.

A REPUBLICAN YEAR.

"This ought to be an easy year for Republican success. It does not require oral or written argument to induce men to vote the Republican ticket," says the Everett (Pa.) Press. "Argument and appeals fall on listless ears in the face of well known facts. When free traders cry out that the tariff robs you, the laborer answers with a shrug, 'Well, under your free trade we had no work and nothing of which to be robbed. Now, under protection, work is plenty, wages are good, and the goods in abundance with Democratic times, and we have plenty to eat, clothes to wear, and can send our children to school.' The tramp days of Democratic ascendancy are over. When they tell you that free silver will bring greater prosperity, the answer is, well let well enough alone; you have fooled us already too often to our sorrow; we will want more than theories now to induce us to leave the party under whose sway we have received and are enjoying the present good things. No Mr. Democracy for us."

FARMERS AND THE TARIFF.

"The American farmers should be pretty well satisfied with the new tariff law," remarks the Wilkesbarre Times. "Here is the official record of the exportation of leading farm products in the last year of the Dingley law, compared with those of the last year of the Wilson law:

	Wilson Law, Dingley Law, Fiscal Year 1897.	Fiscal Year 1898.
Breadstuffs all...	$197,857,219	$273,999,659
Wheat	58,929,173	104,229,159
Flour	58,914,247	73,083,870
Corn, bushels.....	176,816,365	174,089,994
Oats, bushels.....	35,096,730	30,309,680
Rye, bushels.....	8,560,271	10,140,876
Oatmeal, pounds..	47,310,151	58,042,505
Provisions.....	138,652,736	175,968,606
Live animals.....	43,568,461	37,880,916
Cotton, bales.....	6,176,865	7,733,169
Cottonseed oil, gal.	27,198,883	50,637,219

"And this is the sort of prosperity the Democrats condemned at their last county convention."

DON'T FORGET THE DATE.

Free trade and soup houses. Protection and prosperity. We had the first under Democratic rule and prosperity came with Republican success," says the Franklin (Pa.) Citizen-Press. "Vote to continue the latter party in power, on Tuesday, Nov. 7. Don't forget the date."

THE STATE ISSUES.

A Good Man to Administer the Office of State Treasurer.

"Republicans are not afraid to take up the state issues or to discuss the necessity for Governor Stone's action in cutting down the most liberal item in the budget so as to make expenditures in income balance each other," says the Wilkesbarre Times. "We have already been too liberal at the expense of the state treasury, and if the action of the governor will draw attention to this subject he will have performed a public service. Money gotten by indirect taxation is apt to be lavishly spent, and we know something of this lavish expenditure by many of the school boards and townships in our own county."

"Nor are we afraid to discuss the management of the treasurer's office. Under the new laws there is no possibility of wrong doing, and the method of depository, together with the payment of interest to be turned into the treasury, makes everything so plain that only a reputable business man is required for the position of custodian. We have such a man in Lieutenant Colonel Barnett, the Republican candidate, who besides possessing all qualifications named is all right on the protective system, an advocate of sound money and a supporter of the McKinley administration. This is the man for the times, and the people of Pennsylvania will undoubtedly say so on the 7th of November."

THE AMERICAN REPUBLIC.

Significant Address by Archbishop Ireland as to the Philippines.

Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, was shown much attention during his recent visit to Pennsylvania. This distinguished prelate is a staunch Republican. In an address which he made at the banquet of the Marquette club, of Chicago, given in honor of President McKinley on his trip west, in responding to the toast "The American Republic," Archbishop Ireland, among other things, said:

"The American republic is the best form of organized democracy revealed in humanity's history; as such she claims homage from her own citizens; as such she draws to herself the attention of the world.

"And surely there has been in America no lowering of the highest standard of patriotism. Where is the country at whose call for heroes citizens with such speed, with such forgetfulness of self and in such numbers rally to the flag? Defeat is unknown in America; defeat is impossible in America.

"We proclaim that in Asia, as in America, the American flag means liberty and all the blessings that go with liberty. Some say it means in Asia the repression of liberty.

"It means in Asia order restored, and it must be restored; the flag of America may be trusted to be for the Philippines the harbinger and guardian of the liberty and the rights of the people."

AN HONORABLE RECORD.

Review of the Career of Hon. Josiah R. Adams.

ABLE AND UPRIGHT LAWYER

The Republican Nominee For Justice of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, Who is One of the Leading Citizens of the Quaker City.

Owing to his determination not to take the stump, but to adhere to the precedent of candidates for the judiciary not making a political canvass, the citizens of Pennsylvania, says a special dispatch from Philadelphia, will not have an opportunity until after the election of naming one of the most polished and accomplished gentlemen, Hon. Josiah R. Adams, the Republican nominee for the superior court. He is well and favorably known in the Quaker City and by members of his profession throughout the Commonwealth. Like the Republican nominee for state treasurer, Colonel Barnett, Mr. Adams is a son of a clergyman, His father, Rev. Ezra E. Adams, D. D., was of Puritan stock, and was engaged in the missionary service of the American and Foreign Christian Union, and it was while his parents were in Havre, France, that Josiah R. Adams was born. After his labors on the continent were finished Dr. Adams came to Philadelphia and founded the North Broad Street Presbyterian church. Josiah was then only 10 years old. He attended the Friends' school on Spring Garden street and subsequently attended the select school in the building of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, on Chestnut street. Afterwards he attended different institutions and was graduated from Princeton college in 1873, winning a gold medal in each of the four years of his course. He was admitted to the bar in 1874 and quickly became a successful practitioner, particularly in the civil courts.

"In his early legal career Mr. Adams became a counselor in bankruptcy, commercial and maritime law. Upon many occasions he served under appointment of the courts as examiner, auditor and receiver. As receiver of the Penn Safe Deposit and Trust company he collected $86,000 for the depositors by suits against the Spring Garden National bank and the directors. He is receiver for Pennsylvania for the Granite State Provident association. As auditor of the Remington estate he supervised the distribution of a quarter of a million dollars. A notable case won by him was that of Worrell vs. Bailey, in the courts of Mifflin county, this state, in which he succeeded in having overturned a deed for valuable property on the ground that it was obtained without consideration. He has a large practice, and is a director of the Lawyers' club, of Philadelphia. He was one of the founders of the University club, and is a member of the Art club, Philadelphia Yacht club, Clover club, the Knights Templar, Ancient Order of United Workmen, Royal Arcanum and other organizations. He is accounted one of the best informed attorneys of Philadelphia and a most skilled practitioner. In addition to these requirements Mr. Adams is a literateur who has given much study to the literary productions of the authors of the day, and who is thoroughly familiar with the productions of all the best authors.
