Bad Boys Want to Entice Editor Moyer's College Girls.

Last week's Freeburg Courier says: Two of Selinsgrove's smart young men, whom we designate as Mr. B. and Mr. G., came to Freeburg on Monday night for the purpose of enticing some of the College girls from their rooms. They placed their horse in one of the private stables of one of their accomplices. At eleven o'clock when all was quiet, and the town boys gone to their homes, these smart young men approached the College building, throwing stones and cans on the veranda to attract the ladies' attention, but they were soundly asleep and the boys returned home sorrowfully. As this is not the first time the Director has been annoyed by similar attempts, he gives notice that a repetition of the offense will bring all concerned before the Judge of the Courts for his consideration. Persons who are so low and mean to assist the boys in their annoyance should be dealt with in accordance with Delaware justice—meted out at the Whipping Post.

Can We Get It?

A shirt manufacturer in a town in the eastern part of the state employing about fifty hands with about $2,000 monthly pay roll, is looking about for place to locate with his factory. He wants an $800 bonus from the town to locate such a plant. Cannot Centre Hall's energetic citizens get sufficient movement on them to have this plant locate here? It would be the greatest benefit to all lines of business, and give employment to the many young people who are compelled to seek employment outside the place. A board of trade might succeed in securing such enterprises. A fitting example may be cited in across the Snyder County line in Middleburgh, a town of little more population than Centre Hall, where its citizens secured a shoe factory which went a-bidding. The plant now employs sixty hands and is one of the best things the town ever had.—Centre Hall Reporter.

The Millerstown Journal, after an existence of just two years, suspended publication with its last issue. We are sorry Mr. Feese could not make his paper a success. Mr. Feese was a good citizen, and no matter where he goes, he will carry the good will of our people with him. He will move back to Middleburgh, his former home.—Newport News.

Dearest mother, thou hast left us, And thy loss we deeply feel: But 'tis God that has bereft us— He can all our sorrow heal. Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life has fled, When in Heaven with joy to greet thee Where no farewell tears are shed. Loving friend, weep not for me, I long to be at rest; How happy, happy I shall be, When pillowd on my Saviour's breast. Oh! the hope, the hope is sweet, That we soon in Heaven may meet There we all shall happy be— Rest from pain and sorrow free.

MASONS HAVE A JUBILEE.

Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of Lafayette Lodge of Selinsgrove.

Owing to an extra rush of work last week, we failed to write an account of the Masonic Banquet at Selinsgrove and we apologize for the oversight.

The members of Lafayette Lodge, No. 194, Free and Accepted Masons, of Selinsgrove, Wednesday, October 25, 1899, celebrated their seventy-fifth anniversary of the lodge's existence by a grand reception and banquet in honor of the event. Three hundred visiting Masons from Milton, Northumberland, Lewisburg, Millifinburg, Middleburgh and other points were present and participated in the festivities of the day. Wednesday afternoon a meeting of the lodge was held in their hall, when H. H. Schoch, P. M., read a history of Lafayette Lodge.

The main event was an eloquent address by Judge Michael Arnold, P. G. M., of Philadelphia, on "Masonry in Pennsylvania."

The banquet was held at night in the Opera House, with A. W. Potter, of Selinsgrove as toastmaster. The following toasts were responded to: "The Grand Lodge of the Most Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania and the Masonic Jurisdiction Thereunto Belonging," Edgar A. Tennis, A. D. R. W. Grand Master, of Philadelphia; "Masonry in Pennsylvania," Judge Michael Arnold, R. W. Past Grand Master; "Lafayette Lodge, No. 194," Prof. John I. Woodruff, Worshipful Master of Selinsgrove; "The Bond of Brotherhood," J. Thompson Baker, of Lewisburg; "Masonic Influence on Society," F. E. Bower, Past Master, of Lewisburg; "To the Memory of Our Deceased Brother, George Washington," drunk rising, in silence. The menu was elaborate and covers were laid for $300.

The event surpassed all former fraternal and social convocations ever held in this section.

Mrs. Susan Solomon.

On Tuesday evening of last week, Oct. 24, Mrs. Susan Solomon, of New Berlin, departed this life after an illness of several months, aged 78 years, 2 months and 28 days. She was a daughter of John and Sarah Kunkle, born at Dry Valley Cross Roads, July 26, 1821. Her brother is the only survivor of once a large family. She was married to John Solomon in 1880 and died February 1892, since that time she lived with her sister, Magdalena Kunkle until her sister's death last July, when she moved to town and lived there till her death.

Her funeral took place at the residence of Geo. Penny, at Dry Valley Cross Roads, on last Friday, at 10 A. M. The services were conducted by Revs. W. H. Schoch and S. Sidney Kohler, interment at Guyer's cemetery.—New Berlin Reporter.
