LESKER'S IDLE DREAMS.

In last week's Selinsgrove Times, the editor of that paper, as usual, makes some statements he knows are false. It is needless for us to deny that we received any money from Congressman Mahon in his '98 fight as it is well known that we had none of Mahon's money to spend. We did not receive one cent of money from Congressman Mahon except position at Washington at the open- him. ing of Congress, we knew nothing interested.
