THE KENTUCKY CONTEST

Both Sides Still Claim the State by a Small Plurality.

EXCITING DAY AT VANCEBURG.

Two Thousand People Gather in the Town and Prevent an Alleged Effort to Threw Out the Vote of Lewis County on a Technicality.

Louisville, Nov. 14.—The tangle growing out of last week's election grows worse with each day. Yesterday was the third day of the official count, but the work of the county boards of canvassers disclosed little information to clear the situation. Chairman Long, of the Republican campaign committee, repeated his claim of a plurality of 3,111 for Taylor, based on official returns from 110 counties and unofficial returns from the remaining nine. The Democratic papers and leaders here have ceased to give figures, but specials from Frankfort quote Candidate Goebel and other

The complexion of the returns to be presented to the state board of elec-tion commissioners, when it meets in Frankfort next month, still depends upon the determination of the contests which are being raised in several parts of the state, notably the strongly Republican counties of the Eleventh district, where the Democrats claim tissue ballots were used. There are several other equally important contests. Yesterday was an exciting day at Vanceburg, county seat of Lewis county. An effort was made to throw out the entire vote of the county. which gave Taylor a plurality of 600. on a technicality, it being claimed the paper on which the ballots were printed was too thin. On this ground the election board last week threw out the vote of Mowers and Burtonville precincts, which gave Taylor 209 plurality, and adjourned until yesterday, Word was passed through the county and yesterday about 2,000 citizens flocked into Vanceburg and gathered around the court house when the election board met. News reached the crowd that the commissioners were about to throw out the vote of another precinct, and tuere was an angry demonstration. Trouble seemed imminent, when it was announced that the election board had reconsidered its action by which the vote of certain precincts had been thrown out, and that the entire vote of the county would be counted as cast. This prevented any further dem-

DEATH SOON FOLLOWED DISGRACE.

Died While Being Taken to Prison in a Patrol Wagon.

Cincinnati, Nov. 14.—About seven years ago the Rev. Adolph Foith came to Cincinnati from Austria. He first took charge of a Lutheran church here as its pastor. He was soon made su-perintendent of the "Altenheim," or home for aged Germans, and subsequently himself and wife were transferred to the superintendency of the German Orphans' Home. Here they bore the titles "Father and Mother of the orphans." A few weeks ago Mrs. Foith died suddenly under mysterious circumstances. Rev. Foith said she was in the habit of taking morphine, and armored train returned to Estt at 6'clock. Captain Hensley official at San Francisco, has declined asylum, after thorough investigation, asylum, after thorough had been found that Father Foith had been guilty of gross improprieties at the Orphans' Home. He was arrested, and the United States court. while in the patrol wagon on the way to prison Father Foith fell in a violent convulsion. Then in rapid succonvulsion followed convulsion until he died. One theory is that he took some quick poison, another is that remorse and nervous excitement caused his death.

Five Murderers Await Trial.

Baltimore, Nov. 14.—One of the most unusual occurrences in the criminal court in many years was the arraignment yesterday of five persons charged with murder and one accused of manslaughter before Judge Wright. All pleaded not guilty, and were remanded to jail for trial. The prisoners are Harry W. Harris, 29 years old, charged with wife murder; Julia Brennan and Kate Brady, accused of causing the death of Joseph Burns, 21 months old, by placing him over a hot stove; William H. Lewis and Randolph Walker, colored, charged with caus-ing the death of Charles Williams, also colored, by hitting him on the head with a stone; John Geisenkotter, manslaughter, in causing the death of James H. Deane, whom it is said he struck with his fist.

Hoping For Molineux's Acquittal. New York, Nov. 14 .- The trial of Roland B. Molineaux for the murder of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams was begun today in the court of general sessions. "This case must be tried as soon as possible," said District Attorney Gardiner before court opened. 'If Molineax is guilty he will be convicted, and if he is innocent he will be acquitted as soon as all legal forms can be complied with. If he should be acquitted there will be no one more pleased than I, because of my long friendship with his father, General Molineaux."

Murdered an Innocent Babe. Caruthersville, Mo., Nov. 14.-News reaches here of a distressing tragedy at a levee camp below here. Charles Pearman, 21 years old, who had for some reason become angry with a family named Poe, came to Poe's tent with a double barreled shotgun and fired both barrels into the tent, striking and dangerously wounding seven out of the family of nine. One small child was killed instantly, one has since died and the mother is not expected to live. Pearman was captured.

CHEAP RAILROAD PARES.

A Pennya Mile For Travelers to Philadelphia's Export Exposition.

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—Governor Stone having designated Thursday, Nov. 16, as Pennsylvania day at the National Export exposition, the railroad companies whose lines enter the city have united in an effort to make the occasion memorable from the standpoint of attendance, fixing the lowest rate of fare that has ever been offered for any event in Philadelphia. Excursion tickets, good on Thursday and Friday, will be sold at a rate of one cent a mile, plus the price of admission to the exposition. The exercises in connection with Pennsylvania day will include addresses by Gover-nor Stone, Mayor Ashbridge and exposition officials, interspersed with music by Innes' band.

Yesterday was New York day at the exposition, and several hundred of the most prominent business men of the metropolis came over in a body, while the attendance of merchants, bankers and manufacturers from other parts of the state was very large. Although neither Governor Roosevelt nor Mayor Van Wyck were able to be present, each sent a representative to take part in the auditorium exercises, Randolph Guggenheimer, president of New York's city councils, speaking for the city and Colonel Archie Baxter for the state. The exposition will close at midnight Dec. 2, notwithstanding the appeals of exhibitors that it be continued until the end of the month. None of the features on the esplanade or in any of the building will be discontinued until the doors are permanently closed. Some of the buildings will remain as the home of enterprises connected with or growing out of the

MURDEROUS MASKED ROBBERS.

Fatally Wounded Two Policemen and

One of the Trio Was Killed. Titusville, Pa., Nov. 3.-Three masked men entered the station of the Dunkirk, Allegheny Vailey and Pittsburg railroad early Saturday morning, overpowered the watchman, blew open the safe, almost wrecking the building, and secured only $20 for their trouble. Then they went to a house of ill fame in town, held up the proprietress and secured $1,000 worth of jewels and $500 in cash. While the robbers were holding up other inmates of the house the proprietress slipped away and telephoned the police. Policemen Sherry and McGrath arrived and the robbers showed fight. Both policemen were dangerously shot. One of the burglars, said to be named Blake, was killed. The other two robbers escaped, but one has since been captured.

James Mabin, one of the deputies who was searching the woods around Grand Valley for the robber who es-caped, yesterday, accidentally fell over a log, discharging his shotgun, the contents of which tore through his lungs. His recovery is almost impossible. Both policemen are still living, with but little change in their condi-superintendent's deposition. Pittsburg, Nov. 14.-Five counties in the Pittsburg diocese are affected by the recent reapportionment of the state by the council of bishops of the Roman Catholic church at a meeting held recently in Philadelphia. Thirty parishes will be taken from Bishop Richard Phelan's care and added to the new diocese, the headquarters of which will probably be at Altoona. The counties transferred are Bedford, Huntingdon, Blair, Cambria and Somerset. Several counties from the diocese of Erie will be contributed, as well as those of Schuylkill and Carbon, of the Philadelphia diocese, and several of the Harrisburg diocese.

Irwin, Pa., Nov. 11 .- A sensation was sprung here yesterday in regard to the absorption of the Youghlogheny railroad by the Pennsylvania com-pany. Local officials of the former line have received from Philadelphia orders directing the local officers of the Penn Gas Coal comapny, operating the road, to turn it over to the Pennsylvania. Employes were ordered to go to Pittsburg for instructions and the Pennsylvania rolling stock was put on the road. Now comes the report that the big corporation took possession without legal right, because the sale was not ratified by the board of directors of the company operating the Youghhiogheny railroad, and a big battle will follow. It will be a fight between the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.-Complete figures from every county in the state, nearly all of them unofficial footings of the official returns, show that the plurality of Barnett, Republican can-didate for state treasurer over Creasy, didate for state treasurer over Creasy, Democrat, is 106,217. The full vote was: Barnett (Rep.), 436,790; Creasy (Dem.), 330,573; Caldwell (Pro.), 16,863. The total vote, 784,226, a slight increase over the vote for state treasurer in 1897 and 185,941 less than the urer in 1897 and 185,941 less than the vote for governor last year. Barnett was the victim of considerable cutting, he failing about 28,251 votes below Brown, the Republican candidate for supreme judge. Barnett carried 40 out of 67 counties in the state. His pluralities in the two large counties of Philadelphia and Erie were 69,543 and 14,709, respectively.
