CHANGES AT THE COURT HOUSE.

On Monday of this week was the day set apart for the induction into office of the new officers elected at the last election.

The retiring County Commissioners have had a very successful term and we are assured that the auditor's report will show a careful consistent manner of transacting the county's business.

William H. Riegler, the retiring County Treasurer, goes out with the same feeling of confidence and esteem which he has entered into the duties of his office.

Just a Cough. Not worth paying attention to, you say. Perhaps you have had it for weeks.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Quickly conquers your little hacking cough.

The new board of County Commissioners organized on Monday by electing John N. Brosius of Mt. Pleasant Mills, Clerk at a salary of $500 per year.

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieved me after a doctor had failed. It is the best ointment I have ever known of.—J. A. DODD, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain.

A Passenger's Opinion.

Lady (at railway station)—Is there any objection to dogs in this car, conductor?

Gentleman (on platform)—I am not the conductor, madam, I will say, however, that there is a crying baby in this car, and if your dog is big enough to swallow the baby, I think he will be welcome.—N. Y. Weekly.

Sure to Find It.

"Bridget," he said to the family maid, "I am unexpectedly called out for the evening, and I want you to see that your mistress gets this note."

"Yes, soor," responded Bridget, "I'll lave it in the pocket of the trousers ye've just taken off, then she'll be sure to find it."—Spare Moments.

The Brute.

Mrs. Youngblood—How did you know the pie I made for dinner to-day wasn't the same as the one I made yesterday?

Youngblood—Because it gave me a different kind of pain in my stomach.—N. Y. World.

A Frugal Soul.

"Where's your bottle of cough medicine, Josiah?"

"What do you want with it?"

"Well, you won't take it, and as it cost 65 cents it shan't be wasted. I'm going to polish the piano with it."—Chicago Record.

"Campaigning in the Philippines"

A book of over 400 pages with nearly 300 beautiful illustrations of troops in action and scenes in the Philippine Islands, published by

The Hicks-Judd Publishing Company

of San Francisco, the only publishers in the United States who sent representatives to Manila especially to compile a history of the war. As many as 23 writers were engaged in the work in Manila, many of whom were with the troops of their various engagements and they were permitted to use official records to verify their reports.

Maps of Battlefields made by an official map-maker in the 8th Army Corps enables the reader to follow closely the movements of troops.

Description of Philippine Islands giving statistics and other information as to climatic conditions, resources, etc., and an account of the trip to Manila, taking the reader to Honolulu and through Japan and China, are interesting features of the book.

The Pennsylvania Special Edition

contains a complete history of the 10th Pennsylvania Volunteer Reg't in the Philippine campaign and also the name, postoffice address and occupation of every member of the regiment, together with lists of killed and wounded, deaths and disease, promotions, discharges, etc., and also cuts of each company and officers of the regiment. It is vouched for as officially correct by a certificate from the Colonel.

Advance Sale of 6000 Volumes in Manila shows the faith of soldiers in the publication. It is sold by subscription only and returning soldiers have been employed almost exclusively thus far and have found in this lucrative employment. A few more agents wanted in the State. Address The Hicks-Judd Publishing Company, 21 First St., San Francisco.
