men of snow, the heaviest up to date this winter.

Our old veteran teamster, Andy A. Donal, passes through our town almost every day, hauling props.

Frank Baker is much pleased ith the little girl that came to his use on Christmas as a boarder.

It has been reported West Beawill have one dozen candidates supervisor at our next primary election.

Our obliging miller (George) never finds it too cold to deliver flour and feed to his many customers. Good for George, Tine Waguer and family of Warrior's Mark, paid some of their Snyder County friends a visit duriog the holidays.

Warren McGlauglin spent last week visiting his friends in Yeagertown, Mifflin county, and reports having had a good time.

W. H. Knepp says he did not know what day Christmas was until told in the evening, as he was too busy on that Cay to think of anything but work and the money coming in.

Joseph Beaver has been working in Mifflin county for the past year, and did not forget his little boy with a Christmas present. It was a pig weiging about 300 lbs. Joe says he wants to try and make a hog of it by Christmas next.

J. P. Fisher's fox dog strayed away a week or two ago, for which John says if returned to him or any information that will lead to its reeovery there are 10 yards of No. 1 sausage waiting for some one to claim the reward.

SALEM.

Miss Cora Meiser of Meiserville is visiting her brother, Ezra, this

Is this (1900) the beginning of the 20th century? Ans. N-> Don't know.

Jac. seems to be a good nurse, when Mrs. attends the Christmas cercises.

Miss Kate Dock, a young lady of

.rec and r isner | drilling | run a stave linit i 4 116 machine is again seen on our streets; they intend to put down a well for Rev. Schnable.

On Christmas evening, a number 13, 1900. of the people around here attended the Christmas exercises at the Reformed church at Selinsgrove.

At a wheeling match one day last week the following were winners of ducks: D. V. Laudenslager, B. F. Luck, Clyde Row and G. C. Wood-

The old year has gone to its grave, and the new year hastaken its place; so let us be thankful that we are permitted to live in an age so prosthat our forefathers and many of our tathers could not do, viz. write 1900.

MT. PLEASANT MILLS.

And now we write 1900.

B. L. Steffen's had a party on Saturday evening.

Miss Stella Hoover spent Christmas in Selinsgrove.

Some of our people are getting their ice houses filled this week.

Quite a number of our young boys enjoyed skating on the mill race Sunday.

Miss Mary Snyder, who is employed at Sunbury, is spending several days at home.

H. H. Heim and Ira Arbogast, who were working at the Central Hotel, Suubury, returned home to in the L. & R. church on Xmas eve was well attended and a good time was spent.

Some of our champion marksmen attended a shooting match at Meiserville on Saturday and brought five fine turkeys home.

Jacob Rine, who was visiting relatives and friends in this locality for several weeks, left on Thursday for his home in Bristol, Ind.

The St. John's Sunday school was reorganized on Sunday, Dec. 24th with the following officers: Supt., J. L. Varner; Asst., B. F. Arbogast; Sec., Mabel Schnee; Asst., J. A. Shaburg, is visiting at Samuel dle; Treas. Joseph Lenich; Librarian, W. A. Harding; Assistant, Alvesta Sunday Schnee; Organist, Cora E. Schnee;

The West Bear School Convention will be Evangelical church Saturday,

1900 Always in the Lead 1900

The Philadelphia Inquirer desires to call attention to a few of the many features that will appear in its columns during 1900, and which will materially help to keep it in the position it has held for a number of vears past, that of being Pennsylvania's leading and best newspaper. In the daily issue will be found all perous and beautiful and as time news items of interest from Philadelhas advanced we can do something phia, from all parts of Pennsylvania and adjoining States, in fact, from all parts of the world. It will contain special articles for the ladies; sports of all sorts by competent reporters; clever, up-to-date cartoons and editorials on all important happenings of thedate, written by gentlemen of ability in the interest of Inquirer readers.

THE SUNDAY INQUIRER

from its first issue has stood in the toremost rank of Sunday journalism, and its publishers' will continue to see that it always leads-never follows. In addition to all the features of the daily, the Sunday Inquirer will contain many specials; among its contributors being the greatest living writers, thus enabling the Inquirer to secure the freshest and most absorbing stories obtainable. Am mg the famous authors who will contribrte to the Inquirer during The Christmas entertainment held 1900 are Robert Barr, Joel Chandler Harris, General Charles King, Bret Harte, Cutcliffe Hyne, Joseph Conrad, Frank Nooris, S. R. Crockett, Hamilin Garland, Stephen Crane, Harriet Prescott Spofford, Morgan Robertson, Herbert E. Hamblen, Cy Wyarman, Frank T. Bullen, Octave Thanet, W. W. Jacobs, Ella Higginson and H. G. Wells.

MIDDLEBURGH MARKET.

	Man
Butter 20	Wheat 68
Eggs 20	Rye 50
Onions	Corn 35
Lard 6	Oats (old) 00
Tallow 4	Oats (new) 25
Chickens 6	Potatoes 30
Turkevs 10	Bran per 100. 80
Turkevs 10 Shoulder 8	Middlings " 90
	~

.... ways acvives them and cept eve. w that saves his then mary money. Ted-I know. That's the reason I'm spending mine.-N. Y. World.

A Way Out of It.

Boarder-Really, madam, I cannot wipe myself dry with such a small Landlady-Very well; I'll tell the chambermaid to bring you less water. -Tit-Bits.

Sights to See.

"Gracious-is that a milliner's window coming down the street?"

"No; it's that girl next door-she always wears her big flower hat on her wheel."-Detroit Free Press.

Not Sparing of It.

"Mrs. Jawger seems to be quite a Hberal-minded woman."

"O, yes; she's always willing to give other people a piece of it."-Philadelphia Bulletin.

Her Cunning Scheme.

"You have such exquisite taste in hanging pictures and selecting and arranging your draperies, Mrs. Marston. How in the world do you manage always to have things so becomingly con-

"It is the easiest thing in the world. I got my husband to tell me how he would have things put and then I have them arranged in as nearly the opposite way as I can."-Chicago Daily

A Respected Maxim.

"Early to bed an' early to rise," murmured Meandering Mike; "them's my sentiments."

"But you've been asleep in a barn all day," protested Plodding Pete.

"Which is jes' what I'm tellin' you In dis warm weather de only proper programme is to retire early in de mornin' an' git up jes' before de evenin' shadows gather an' makes travel cool an' comfortable." - Washington

It bas been demonstrated repeat edly in every state in the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventative and cure for croup. It preventative and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of time."

drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Covgh Remedy to stop the cough, head up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its promote

.c Sales

Notices of bases will be inserted free under this heading when the bills are printed at this office. When the bills are not printed at this office St cents will be charged. Persons expecting to have sale should select a date and have it insert;

TUESDAY, Jan. 16. 1900, three miles west of Middleburg, Robert H. Rearick will sell on mare, 4 head of cattle and farming imple

SATURDAY, Jan. 27, in Franklin township, David A. Steininger, administrator of the estate of Jacob H. Steininger, will sell 100 acres of land and grain in the ground. See

THE PRESS ALMANAC.

The Most Valuable Compendium o Happenings, Facts and Figures Published in Pennsylvania.

The Philadelphia Press Almanac for 1900 is now ready for distribution. To those acquainted with previous volumes it is only necessary to say that it embodies improvements suggested by the past, together with much entirely new and exclusive material. For those not familiar with the work there is awaiting a great treat. It is a volume of over five hundred pages filled with information which makes it related to all knowledge; it contains maps and diagrams, charts and tables by the aid of which, the Boer war, the political situation nationally, the diplomatic relations with other countries, the industrial and agricultural questions before the country for solution, in brief, all current affairs can be understood in all completeness and elegrness. No question based on the doings of men or the march of events can remain nnanswered to those who possess the Press Almanac for 1900. For sale by all newsdealers or sent by mail, postage prepaid on receipt of 25 cents.

Having a Great Run of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is

ing BIOOLE

I have just receiv assortment of glasswa... sisting of Cake Dishes, Fr Stands, Celery Trays, But Dishes, Pitchers, Spoon Ho ers, &c., &c. at prices rangi from 5 to 15 cents.

Peerless Baking Powder, o pound cans, 8c. Axle Grease, 15c. cans at 10c

25c. buckets at 15c. Fine Gloves and heavy Men Mitts.

S. B. SIMONTON

efore making your sele tions

or Christmas look at o stock, uch as Jewelry and Ste ling Silver Novelties.

II and engraving done the premises.

verything in the Optical and Jewelry line.

nitial DIAMOND ops and Band rings, eautiful beyond comison.

adies' and and Cha legant a glass and

ou cann an assor