The medal to be presented to Elwell is now being designed by Adjutant General Stewart, and will be given on the first ceremonial occasion.

The counties of Tioga, Luzerne and Lackawanna are said to be in danger of losing their school appropriations for next year unless they take prompt action to avert it. As yet they have not made returns to the School Department of the school district statistics required by law on which to make calculations for distributing the State appropriations, and as the time limit has about expired there is danger of the three counties losing their share. In some districts the State appropriations almost cover the entire expenses of the schools and the tax levied is very small.

We acknowledge with thanks two copies of Lynn's "Annals of Buffalo Valley," one for our private library and another copy for the library of the Snyder County Historical Society from R. F. Brown, Esq., of Lewisburg. The book is a valuable one. It contains not only interesting data concerning Union county, but also a great deal concerning the early history of Snyder County. The Indian history, the record of many pioneers and the conflicts between the savages and our forefathers are copiously detailed in this volume. The book should be in every library in the county.

The Farm Journal is unlike any other paper; for one thing it prints no quack medical advertisements; for another it takes five-year subscriptions and gets the paper to its subscribers the full time if they are anywhere on this planet, even if they move two or three times; if they die their heirs get it. Now we are going to combine with the Farm Journal and the Post one year and the Farm Journal nearly 5 years (remainder of 1900 and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904) to every advance-paying subscriber, new and old, to the Post. This great offer had better be accepted before it is withdrawn.

Express Office.

For 27 years the Adams Express office at this place was in charge of G. C. Gutelius. Last week it was moved to the railroad depot. We understand that this move was made owing to some differences of opinion in regard to remuneration. We do not know anything about this matter, but we do know that 90 per cent. of the business done at this office has been done by the people of Middleburg and the moving of the office a distance of half a mile from them is a gross injustice to the patrons of the Express Company. The Express packages addressed to the people of town were delivered and now to move the office half a mile away thus compelling people to walk that distance for their express packages is unequal for and unless the matter is promptly changed, a decided falling off in patronage will result.

Mrs. Jarrett Dead.

Mrs. Mariah Jarrett, wife of Harry Jarrett, died Tuesday morning, aged 76 years and 2 months. She is a sister of Mrs. G. W. Row of this place. Her children are: I. Newton of Penn twp.; Rev. Percival who resides along the North Branch; Mrs. Alice Hepler of Freeburg and Mrs. Ed. Heiser of Monroe twp.

The funeral will take place Friday morning in the Reformed church at Selingsgrove.

Advertising Expressions.

A dry goods house says: "They won't last long at this price." A restaurant man says: "Dine here, and you will never dine elsewhere." And a grocer advertises: "Superior butter. Nobody can touch it."

M. L. Wagenseiler of Selingsgrove was in town Monday on business.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Frank Childs Caught in the Raging Waters of Middlecreek.

Frank E. Childs, of the wholesale grocery firm of Childs, Green & Childs, had an experience in the high waters of Middlecreek in Snyder county on Thursday, that he would not want to have repeated during the rest of his life. While on a business tour with horse and buggy he crossed the bridge at Middlecreek, where the waters were so high that they extended out over the road at the end of the bridge. On driving through them he either got off the road or the force of the stream swept him off, and horse, buggy and all were carried down with the angry torrent into waters beyond their depth, and the buggy was overturned. The horse swam and plunged until finally it reached shallow water and got out with Frank clinging to it and they were saved. Considering the height of the flood and the fact that Mr. Childs was bundled up for traveling, with a rubber protector from the rain enclosing the front of the buggy, it is remarkable that he escaped with his life. He lost his two satchels, the buggy robes, his eye glasses and other articles. A gentleman residing in the vicinity provided him with a dry outfit of clothing and he returned home to tell of the event, and his many friends rejoice with him that the result was not so serious.—Lewistown Sentinel.
