An Arkansas editor in a fit of desperation dashed off the following: The wind bloweth, the water floweth, the farmer soweth, the subscriber oweth and the Lord knoweth that we are in need of our dues; come a runnin' ere we go a-gunnin', this thing of dunnin' gives us the blues.

The Town Council has elected Jas. G. Crouse as their attorney for the coming year. Instead of electing a treasurer this year, to whom a commission would be paid, the council has made the cashier of the First National Bank the treasurer to handle the account as they would an individual's, viz. without commission.

Mrs. Lydia A. Romig and Aspen Glase of Kantz and Prof. Wm. Moyer of Freeburg were in the court house Saturday to probate the will of the late Isaac B. Romig. While here Mrs. Romig left an order for us to publish the executrix notice which will be found in the Post.

The Post last week gave its readers an idea of what Rev. C. M. Sheldon's edition of the Topeka Capital was like. As yet only one copy of the paper has reached this office. This week we publish a picture of Rev. Sheldon's home. We will soon begin the publication of Rev. Sheldon's story "Robert Hardy's Seven Days." This story has not yet been published and was purchased by us at an immense figure, because the story should be read by everybody. It will begin early in April.

After all, the farmer's lot is a reasonably happy one. He may have occasion to complain of tramps in summer; of cheeky and inconsiderate sportsmen, who go over his fields and tread down his grain and grass; of the weather that is too dry or too wet, thus injuring his crops, and of losses by sickness among his cattle, but every man that is in business meets with misfortunes. He has pure water and healthy air, both of which are denied to people in the cities, and if he has not good fruit and vegetable, excellent poultry and meats, and agreeable visitors, it is his own fault. There is not an editor anywhere who does not wish he was a farmer.

Lumber Wanted.

We are in the market for all kinds of lumber including pine, hemlock, ash, etc. We can use a lot of paper wood and we will pay the highest cash prices. Write for prices and specifications. M. E. Kulp & Co., 4-22-3t. Shamokin, Pa.

Henry M. Herman Dead.

Henry M. Herman, one of the oldest citizens of Franklin township, died Sunday at his home north of this place. He had been sick for five months with a complication of ailments. He leaves a widow and several children to mourn his departure. He was buried Wednesday morning at the Salem church in Centre township. Aged about 70 years.

To the Deaf.

A rich lady, cured of her Deafness and Noises in the Head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $10,000 to his Institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Address No. 10327 The Nicholson Institute, 780, Eighth Avenue, New York. 1-25-1y.

Mrs. Dr. H. H. Bordner Dead.

SHAMOKIN DAM, MARCH 20.
Shamokin Dam mourns over one who was loved by many. The angel of death ever reminds us of the uncertainty of life. We are compelled to chronicle this week the demise of a well-known lady of our little village. The deceased is Susannah Olivia, the only daughter of John and Mary Gross, who was born at Shamokin Dam, Snyder County, Pa. May 10, 1854. She was married to Dr. H. H. Bordner Jan. 9, 1877. This family was blessed with seven daughters and one son, as follows:

1. Lovetta Sedalia, born 1878.
2. Sherman Goodell, born 1800.
3. Mary Alvesta, born 1881.
4. Infant, died 1884.
5. Sarah Lillian, born 1884.
6. Minnie Minerva, born 1887.
7. Ella Dolena Gross, born 1895.
8. Olevia Evaline, born 1898.

Mrs. Bordner became a member of the M. E. Church while quite young having been led thereto by the loving hand of a true Christian mother. She departed this life on Wednesday morning, at 9:30 March 14, 1900. Two of her daughters preceded her to the other world fifteen years ago. She is survived by a husband, 5 daughters and 1 son. The members of the family extend their thanks to the choir and friends for assistance rendered during their mournful days.

She was buried in the cemetery at the Dam on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. B. Fortner officiated at the obsequies.

CYRUS SHIPLE.

The Sheldon Stories.

We have many good reports from our readers in behalf of Rev. Sheldon's "In His Steps," the religious story that the Post published from August to January. We also have been receiving requests to publish more of Sheldon's stories. We are always striving to please and we never turn down a popular request. In view of these things, we have purchased at a very large price the two popular stories from Rev. Sheldon's pen, "Robert Hardy's Seven Days" and "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong." In April we will begin the publication of "Robert Hardy's Seven Days" and "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong" will follow as soon as we can complete the former. These stories are copyrighted and the Post has purchased the exclusive use of the copyright of these stories in Snyder County.

Rev. Sheldon's "In His Steps" made him a reputation that is world-wide. Last week we published a synopsis of the Christian daily newspaper Rev. Sheldon published beginning March 13th and ending Monday of this week.

Get your friends to join the throng of Post subscribers and get the best religious stories written in the English language to-day.
