

Robert Hardy's Seven Days' begins in the Post This Week.

GEO. W. WAGENSELLER,
Editor and Proprietor.

MIDDLEBURGH, SNYDER CO., PA., THURSDAY, APR. 5, 1900.

VOL. 37. NO. 14.

LOCAL NEWS.

A Week's News Dished up in Small Quantities--Visitors in Town During the Past Week--Other News of Interest.

Editor Lumbard made a call at this office Monday.

Wm. Hassinger of Franklin twp. dropped in to see us Tuesday.

Swartz and Graybill are in the city this week laying in a new supply of goods.

State College of Centre Co., Pa., has an advertisement in the Post. Read it. 4-5-13t.

Don't forget Swartz and Graybill's opening day--next Tuesday. Look out for bargains.

Henry Laudenslager of Salem called by letters Tuesday enclosing a one dollar bill.

Maud Moatz and Mrs. Adam Showers are on the sick list. We hope for their speedy recovery.

Easter comes next Sunday a week, being April 15th. It is about time for the small boy to begin to hide eggs.

A. H. Klose, of Franklin township dropped in to pay his annual dues for the Post Saturday afternoon.

F. W. Thomas, former proprietor of the Kreamer Hotel, but now of Sunbury, was in town Saturday night.

Miss Ida Snyder of Selinsgrove last Thursday paid a short visit to Jas. G. Crouse's family on Market Street.

Levi Gelnett, the new Strouptown merchant, called Tuesday at this office to get his business stationery.

Mrs. Jas. Diemer of Franklin Saturday went to Globe Mills to spend a few days with her parents, John S. Meiser's.

J. Guy Bingeman of Dalmatia has been added to the force of compositors on the Post, having begun work Monday.

John G. Shaffer of Aline was at the county seat Monday and dropped in to order some bills for the Spanish Jack.

Wilson Stroup, formerly of Franklin township, has gone to South Dakota to cast his fortunes with the settlers of that region.

Martin Slear and wife and D. P. Ritter and wife of Shamokin Dam enjoyed the hospitality of Editor Ritter and wife Sunday.

Cyrus Courtney of New Berlin and B. Frank Row of Union County called by letter Monday with one year's advance payment.

We want every man, woman and child in Snyder county to read "Robert Hardy's Seven Days." It begins in this week's Post.

Irwin Buck of Ashland was in town over Sunday paying a visit to his father, D. G. Buck, on West Market St., this borough.

John A. Barner of Richfield was in town Thursday of last week and Monday of this week. John is an extensive dealer in lumber.

A teachers' normal school will open in Middleburg Monday, April 23rd. For particulars, address A. A. Killian, Middleburgh, Pa. 4t.

H. M. Rowe and wife spent a few days with Azariah Kreeger in Franklin. Mr. Rowe went home Monday and Mrs. will spend a few weeks with her parents.

Miss Libbie Dunkelberger went to Philadelphia Monday morning to purchase a new supply of Spring and Summer goods and take a careful look at the latest spring styles.

Mrs. A. S. Beaver will make her home with her father-in-law, William Beaver, until she recovers from her illness.

WANTED.—Good veal calves will be bought at highest market prices. J. L. WINEMAN, 3t. North 3rd St., Lewisburg, Pa.

Swartz and Graybill's grand opening will be Tuesday, Apr. 10, 1900. The public is invited to the cash store for bargains.

FOR SALE.—A new butcher wagon, one of the latest styles, will be sold cheap. Inquire of A. W. Bowersox, Middleburgh, Pa. 4t.

We have added quite a lot of new correspondents for the past few weeks. Where we do not have any correspondent, we desire to have one.

Chas. Roush, clerk at the Packer House, Sunbury, spent Sunday with his family in town. Charley caged a pair of squirrels and took them along.

Mrs. W. I. Garman, the wife of our enterprising shoe dealer, has been sick in bed several days of the past week. We hope she may have a speedy recovery.

S. P. Warner moved his household goods to Reedsville and Lester Wetzel, the new R. R. agent, has moved his goods to the house vacated by Mr. Warner.

Grant Yoder of Paxtonville dropped in to see us Wednesday of last week. Grant is a wide awake fellow and knows a good thing when he sees it.

The Luth. Sunday school will have appropriate exercises in the church Easter Sunday morning and Sunday evening the members will partake of Holy Communion.

Editor Leshner of the Selinsgrove Times called at this office last Thursday to get some books trimmed. There are times when big men call at small print shops.

All goods in our store will be sold at the lowest cash prices. We take in exchange all kinds of produce, railroad or mining ties. SWARTZ & GRAYBILL.

J. H. Troup of Aline and William Good of the same place were callers at this office Friday of last week. Mr. Troup paid up all his arrearages and one year in advance for the Post.

Merchant J. W. Runkle last week assisted in taking an inventory of the stock of merchandise of Manbeck & Manbeck at Adamsburg preparatory to Allen Fultz taking charge of the store.

Mrs. M. I. Potter is entertaining Mrs. Jos. K. Scharf and daughter of Selinsgrove. Mrs. Potter is noted for hospitality in entertaining guests and her guests always find a ready welcome.

The Democratic Standing Committee of Snyder County met in the court house Tuesday and elected W. H. Wendt of Perry twp. as delegate to the State Convention, which meets at Harrisburg to-day.

Our readers will find an interesting line of bargains by scanning the new advertisements in the Post this week. Merchants who are wide-awake enough to advertise always have some interesting bargains.

Adam Howell moved into the old school house; John Arbogast into the house vacated by Howell and Allen Hassinger moved into the house vacated by Arbogast; Boyd Stetler moved into the house with John Moyer.

Go to A. E. Soles for a smooth easy shave or up-to-date hair cut and head cleaned with a refreshing shampoo or dandruff removed with his tonic, clean towel to each patron, in bank building one door east of Post Office; satisfaction guaranteed.

Every advertisement in this issue contains something new. Read them.

L. Dunkelberger's summer millinery opening will take place Apr. 26, 27 and 28.

An original widow's pension was granted to Matilda E. Forman of Troxelville, for $8.

John Soles and wife of Millburg spent Sunday with Barber A. E. Soles of this place.

Mrs. S. B. Walter moved into the house vacated by A. L. Spangler on Sugar Street.

N. S. Bachman and H. R. Tobias are wainscoting the commissioners' office in the court house.

We received another article on the "Limitation of Wealth," but we have been unable to get it into type this week.

John M. Steininger, for many years the foreman of the Post, came in Tuesday to give us a lift on type-setting.

Chas. P. Ulrich, Esq., of Selinsgrove, dropped in to see us Tuesday while in town attending the meeting of the Democratic Standing Committee.

Mrs. J. L. Marks was at Lewisport several days assisting her son-in-law, Dr. J. C. Amg, to move. The Doctor crossed Market street with his flitting.

M. Millner of Kantz is in the Eastern cities this week purchasing a new supply of goods for his store. The people who will give him a call will find some rare bargains.

The P. O. S. of A. camp of this place held a banquet Saturday evening at their hall. Ice cream, cakes, oysters, etc. made up the bill of fare. A pleasant time was spent.

Spring here and our new goods are here, millinery, shirt waists, kid gloves, pulley belts, linen collars, summer hosiery, Swiss goods and goods too numerous to mention. L. DUNKELBERGER.

Isaac C. Burns, aged 68 years, died at his home in Selinsgrove Monday. Deceased was a descendant of one of the oldest and most prominent families in this section. He held the office of Justice of the Peace in that borough since 1878.

R. A. Kantz of Washington, D. C., who holds a responsible position in the War Department, was at the court house Tuesday of this week. Mr. Kantz is interested in local history and genealogy and purchased a copy of "Snyder County Marriages."

The town council met Monday evening and elected G. E. Hassinger to fill the vacancy on the council caused by the resignation of J. W. Swartz. J. W. Orwig was elected President and Henry Bickhart was elected High Constable.

Sarah A. Hornberger, daughter of Jacob and Mary E. Shemery of Franklin Township, was born Nov. 28th, 1876 and died March 30th, 1900 in West Perry twp., Snyder County, aged 23 years, 4 months, 2 days. She was married to H. S. Hornberger, of Perry Township. Their union was blessed with three children, the youngest of which predeceased her. Mrs. Hornberger was a Christian and has left the testimony that she has going to be forever with the Lord. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. J. Fenstermacher and Wm. H. Boyer in the Daniel's Church, April 2nd, 1900.

Marriage Licenses.
{ L.C. Arter, Rush twp., North'd Co.
{ Anna V. Troup, Mt. P'st Mills.
{ Arthur E. Aucker, Verdilla,
{ Fianna E. Brown, Pallas.
{ John Foltz, Dundore,
{ Cora Sechrist, "
{ Daniel L. Bailey, Centre twp.,
{ Edie E. Loos, "

The employees of the Northumberland cap factory are on a strike.

The Middleburgh shoe factory has all the orders they can fill. They are running full time.

Those who are not familiar with the remarkable career of Rev. Chas. M. Sheldon, the author of "Robert Hardy's Seven Days" can find a complete sketch and portrait of the author on the inside pages of this paper.

Dr. C. W. Heisler, President of Susquehanna University, was in town Thursday of last week. He made a pleasant call at this office and took a copy of "Snyder County Marriages" along for the University library.

A. B. Wolgemuth, a master mechanic of Selinsgrove, was at the county seat Saturday. Mr. Wolgemuth has been employed in Harrisburg since last July and his friends here were glad to see his smiling face among us.

Mrs. Adam Gordon of Mt. Pleasant Mills was at the county seat Monday morning. She formerly resided in this place and conducted a millinery business. Her friends are always glad to welcome her whenever she calls.

E. S. Stroup of Strouptown, having sold out his farm and store to Levi Gelnett, has moved to Swineford into the house he built there several years ago. One of his sons has gone to Lewisburg and another to South Dakota.

See the inside pages of the Post for "Robert Hardy's Seven Days." It is an interesting serial and will be concluded in six weeks. It begins this week. Preserve your papers. Get your neighbors to read it. No one should miss it.

Mrs. Julia Deininger, who has been spending some time with Mrs. A. S. Beaver and very philanthropically taking care of the sick, has gone to her home in Millheim. Mrs. Deininger is a devoted Christian lady whose friendships here are legion.

The new Post office at "Kissimmee" will begin operations Thursday of this week. The papers have all been approved and filed. The mail will be carried by John Walter and will leave Kissimmee at 1:30 P. M. for Middleburgh and returning will leave Middleburgh at 5 o'clock P. M. or after the arrival of the train from the west.

"Robert Hardy's Seven Days," Sheldon's great story, begins in this issue of the Post. Rev. Sheldon has won fame on his story, "In His Steps," a story that has been translated into at least eight different languages and several dialects. Those readers of the Post, who read "In His Steps," will not fail to read "Robert Hardy's Seven Days."

Charles F. Mensch, foreman of the mechanical department of the Bellefonte Gazette, spent a few days in town with John M. Steininger and wife and other friends in town. Under the ownership of his uncle, Thomas H. Harter, Mr. Mensch was a compositor on the Post and Charlie has many warm friends here who are always glad to see him.

The new Catalogue of the Pennsylvania State College which has just appeared shows not only the largest attendance in the history of the College, but many improvements in other respects. The steady and substantial growth of the College is due to the fact that, with an exceptionally able Faculty, it insists upon maintaining a high standard of scholarship and conduct, and the unusually fine record of its graduates is becoming known and appreciated, not only throughout Pennsylvania, but in the whole country.

COURT HOUSE CHIPS

Beeds Entered for Record.
Sephares S. Walter and wife to Dexter B. Weller, house and lot in Franklin, for $775.

David V. Bron and wife to Wm. A. Bron, 113 acres and 84 perches in Centre twp., for $1200.

Dr. J. S. Krebs and wife to Geo. N. Wentzel, 108 acres and 5 perches in Union twp., for $3955.

Geo. N. Wentzel, executor of Elias Wentzel, deceased, to Dr. J. S. Krebs, same as above.

Heirs of S. B. Walter to Wilson Walter, 70 acres in Franklin twp., for $700.

Same to Sephares S. Walter, 42 acres in Franklin twp., for $1700.

Mollie Troup and Isaac Troup to Catherine Troup, 25 acres in Perry twp., for $333.32.

Heirs of S. B. Walter to Henry H. and Geo. B. Walter, two lots in Franklin twp., for $1200.

Sarah W. Neitz and husband to O. G. Rice, lot in Port Trevorton, Union twp., for $180.

Theodore Erdley and wife to Allen Hassinger, house and lot in Middleburgh, for $700.

Geo. N. Wentzel, executor of Elias Wentzel, to David H. Snyder, 35 acres in Union twp., for $725.

Heirs of S. B. Walter to G. Alfred Schoch, 115 acres in Franklin twp., for $4700.

Wm. H. Bickel and wife and Chas. K. Bickel and wife to John Fields and Banks W. Yoder, 150 acres in Middlecreek twp., for $2,225.

Mary Ann Miller, Lewis Yeager and wife and Lewis Yeager, attorney-in-fact for Hannah Boyd, to Newton S. Graybill, 13 acres and 15 perches in Perry twp., Snyder county, and Greenwood twp., Juniata county, for $1300.

Barbara A. Zong and Philip Zong to Mary Gearhart, lot No. 4 in Markley's addition to Adamsburg, for $100.

Reuben Zechman and wife to Jacob A. Freed, 33 acres and 37 perches in Beaver twp., for $1100.

Thomas Koller and wife to Alfred Smith, house and lot in Beaver town, for $601.

Heirs of Caroline Gearhart to Reuben Hook, 1/2 acre in Spring twp., for $396.

Calvin Schotzberger to J. C. W. Bassler, 1 acre and 96 perches in Washington twp., for $397.

Will L. Bassler, et al. to Calvin Schotzberger, same as above, for $387.

Same to B. F. Harley, dwelling house and store room in Freeburg, for $3005.

David H. Snyder and wife to Kate M. Snyder, 35 acres in Union twp., for $725.

Sarah and F. M. Montelius to John A. Barner, agent for Elizabeth Barner, 74 acres and 109 perches in West Perry twp., for $200.

Elizabeth Reitz, executrix of John Reitz, to Gabriel Beaver, 12 acres and 110 perches in Franklin twp., for $1156.

W. Reed Jones and wife to James H. Diemer, house and lot in Franklin, for $1325.

K. C. Walter, attorney-in-fact for the heirs of Joseph Walter, to G. Alfred Schoch, 90 acres and 80 perches in Franklin twp., for $4650.

E. S. Troup and wife to Levi S. Gelnett, 61 acres and store property in West Perry twp., for $1625.

Nathan Fetterolf and wife to Mary S. Berge, lot in Troxelville, for $50.

Will Probated.
The last will and testament of Joshua M. Roush, late of West Perry twp., was probated Mar. 29. There is no executor. The widow is the sole heir.

IN COMBINATION WITH THE POST.

We give below some clubbing combinations with the Post. The rates quoted are very low.

The Farm Journal, monthly, for almost five years and the Middleburgh Post one year, paid in advance, $1.00.

The Farm Journal is one of the best agricultural papers published. It contains from 32 to 40 pages each month and treats of every subject of interest to the farmer, laborer and working man.

The New York Tri-Weekly Tribune and the Middleburgh Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.75.

The Tri-Weekly is published Monday, Wednesday and Friday, reaches a large proportion of subscribers on date of issue, and each edition is a thoroughly up-to-date daily family newspaper for busy people.

The New York Weekly Tribune and the Middleburgh Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.25.

The Weekly Tribune is published on Thursday, and gives all important news of nation and world, the most reliable market reports, unexcelled agricultural department, reliable general information and choice and entertaining miscellany. It is the "people's paper" for the entire United States, a national family paper for farmers and villagers.

The New York Tri-Weekly World and the Middleburgh Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.65.

The Tri-Weekly World comes three times a week, is filled with the latest news of the country and is well worth the price asked for it.

The Practical Farmer, one year, and the Middleburgh Post, one year, paid in advance, $1.50. Both of the above papers and the Practical Farmer Year Book and Agricultural Almanac for 1900, paid in advance, only $1.65.

The Practical Farmer is one of the best farm papers published, issued monthly, at $1.00 a year. The year book contains 600 pages in which there is a fund of information that is useful to the farmer. The price of this book alone is 50 cents. You get the Post, the Practical Farmer and the year book for only $1.65.

To the Deaf.

A rich lady, cured of her Deafness and Noises in the Head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $10,000 to his Institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Address No. 10327 The Nicholson Institute, 780, Eighth Avenue, New York. 1-25-1y.

Lumber Wanted.

We are in the market for all kinds of lumber including pine, hemlock, ash, etc. We can use a lot of paper wood and we will pay the highest cash prices. Write for prices and specifications. M. H. Kulp & Co., 4-22-3t. Shamokin, Pa.

The Best in the World.

We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisement in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half empty. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by all druggists.

Primary School Department.

The undersigned will open a primary school in the primary department on Monday, Apr. 30th. Pupils from the intermediate and primary departments are invited to come. The minimum tuition of seventy five cents for six weeks will admit any and all pupils from the primary and intermediate grades. 3-22-4t. WILLIAM ROMIG.

Will Run the Paper.

The editor of the Western Spirit, published at Paola, Kansas, has tendered his paper for a month to Brigham R. Roberts, who was elected to Congress from Utah but was not allowed to take his seat, "to be edited as a Mormon would run it." It is said Mr. Roberts will likely accept, and that he will rip the United States Congress up the back in a way to make the ghosts of Brigham Young and Joseph Smith crack a smile that can be heard a mile.