

PHILIP'S WILL.

Phillip Nace had the experience of moving twice last Tuesday. Miss Minnie and Katie Trutt visited friends in Sunbury Saturday. Miss Carrie Clark of Globe Mills visited friends in this place, Sunday. John Schoch and wife spent Sunday at Joseph Leply's near Kutztville. Miss Carrie Schoch is spending some time at Dr. Shetts' at Northumberland.

T. P. Hummel made sale of some winter apples Monday. Apples bring a fair price. Miss Ida Wagenseller of Selinsgrove is doing some needle work at Daniel Sasmann's this week. Harvey Reichenbach and Elmer Arbogast of near Fremont are working for J. L. Cooper and Levi Dressler. The members of the Sunday school are making arrangements to have a Box Social in the school house on the evening of the 21st inst. All are invited to attend.

MIDDLECREEK

Very little oats is yet sown this spring. H. H. Herbster made a business trip to Middleburg last Wednesday. Rev. Granley and wife were the guests of Wm. Bilger's Saturday. Reuben Knapp of Snook visited his friends in our section last week. Reports are that peaches will be few as the blossoms are nearly all frozen. Ambrose Peter and family of Maitland were the guests of H. S. Swartz's Sunday.

Chas. Helfrich and wife of Adamsburg were visiting his parents over Sunday. W. H. Heimbach and family were the guests of Geo. Rheam near Wagner Sunday. Mrs. Aaron Wagner and children of Huntingdon county are at present visiting their friends. Chas. Frock and family came back from Huntingdon county and now occupy Chas. Klingler's farm.

John Herbster and wife of Huntingdon county are spending a short time with their eastern friends preparatory to their moving to Blair County. A quiet wedding took place last week at the residence of Oscar Shultz. The contracting parties were Miss Maud Hultz and Mr. McCord of Lewistown. Now that fittings are over you will find Adam Thomas on Wm. Wagner's farm in West Beaver; Chas. A. P. Ush is the house vacated by Thomas; David Krebs on Reuben Smith's farm near Annerville; Wm. Wagner's house; Ferry Snook on the farm vacated by Jerome Reitz who moved on the farm vacated by who on the Kline farm near Logan.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be the means of saving other lives. For sale by all druggists

SALEM.

Geo. Gemberling is sporting a new buggy. Wm. Boyer is repairing his house at Middlecreek. Rev. Haas preached a good sermon on Palm Sunday. Maurer and Fisher are drilling a well for Rev. Schinable. The schools of Penn township have all closed this week. Fisher Walter of Kreamer was seen in this village Sunday evening. N. B. Stetler and H. A. Gemberling took a spin to Northumberland Sunday. R. M. Coleman moved his saw mill to Middlecreek mountains again last week. John Gearhart, by an accidental fall while breaking a colt, sprained his ankle.

Mrs. Milton Orwig and children of Houtzdale are visiting her mother, Mrs. Matilda Fisher at this place. Prof. J. I. Woodruff, Prof. T. C. Houtz and son Johnnie were callers at Mrs. Woodruff's Sunday afternoon. Quite a number of the people are complaining with colds thinking it is due to the warm sunshine these last few days. Garden digging, white washing and oats sowing is the chief occupation of the farmers and their companions at the present. The death records are apparent in our community at present. Three funerals were held at the Salem church since our last writing, viz: Mrs. Hackenburg, wife of Joe Hackenburg, aged about 43; Katie Ellen, daughter of Geo. Mail and wife, aged 9 months; Katie Ellen, daughter of H. W. Row and wife, aged 30 years.

Established LOEB'S. 1877. When You See a Man or Boy Extra Well Dressed Give Loeb's The Credit. LOEB'S Styles, Loeb's Qualities and Loeb's Prices are a great influence with people who know a Good Thing When they See It, and do not want to pay too much for it. There is a wonderful sale in progress here now. You may never again be able to clothe yourself at such money-making figures. LOEB'S IS A FASHION CENTRE! A FINANCIAL SCHOOL TOO. NEW SUIT. WHICH OF THESE FOUR DO YOU WANT? NEW SHIRT. NEW HAT. NEW TIE. These are some of the new Spring Goods here for you to see. Prices no higher than last year, but better Goods. Come and see them, whether you buy now or later. We will tell you what you will be worn. M. LOEB & SON, BELIEVABLE ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS AND GENT'S FURNISHERS, 318 E. MARKET ST., SUNBURY, PA.

W. H. Knapp expects to build a new blacksmith shop shortly. Howard Peter is saving another bill of lumber for Joseph Wagner. James Steely has now embarked in the fish business for the season. Our weather prophet claims one more snow to fill his quota for the season.

Wm. Peter and wife were the guest of Adam Baumgardner last Sunday. J. J. Steely spent a few days in Milflin county last week, visiting his sister, Mrs. Howard Gibboney. John Lash and family of Lewistown spent a few days here last week visiting some of their Snyder county friends. John H. Herbster and Warren McCaughrin start this week for Blair county, where they have secured employment. Jacob Erb was very poorly last Saturday night. He did not expect him to live through the night. Monday he was better.

We cannot give all the exchanges of residence made by our citizens this spring as they come under the head, too numerous to mention. Our fox hunters had poor luck in trapping the fox last winter. They have now turned their attention to musk rat trapping with better success. Mason Knapp had some corn stolen last Sunday in day light. The party is considered a bold gentleman. Mason says, "Call again, but not when I am absent." Frank Ewing and family passed through our town Sunday to attend the funeral of Perry Hassinger's father who was burned to death last Friday afternoon. Of course the illegal fishers have commenced already to deplete our trout streams so that when the fellow who tries to conform to the law comes along he finds the best of the fishing is gone.

PORT FLEMING

The water is again in the canal. J. H. Shaffer went to Shamokin. Our public schools closed this week. Miss Charles went to Shamokin Monday evening. Miss Toledo Houtz is spending a week under the parental roof. Clarence Leig is working for the P. R. R. at South Danville. E. C. Shaffer and wife of Shamokin are visiting parents at this place. Mrs. Andrew Herrold visited her sick husband at Shamokin Sunday. Miss Mary Rine of McKees Falls is visiting her grandmother at this place. The school closed Tuesday and the boys and girls are enjoying the open air once more. Mrs. W. A. Gordon and Mrs. J. E. Mugee attended church at Salem Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Gabriel Snyder of Shamokin was the guest of John Landis and family over Sunday.

Quite a number of Democrats from this place attended the convention at Middleburg Monday. The item in last week's Post which stated that G. C. Stuck moved to Freeburg was a mistake. It should have read that G. C. Stuck drove to Freeburg.

McCLURE.

Katie Benfer left for Lewistown Monday. Chas. Klingler is again working on the railroad. Some of the farmers have commenced to sow oats. James Hughes moved to New Hamilton last Thursday. James Wagner is spending this week at home with his mother. John Stuck is home from Lewistown being afflicted with the mumps. Mrs. Hurley Romig and child are visiting friends at this place at present. Mrs. Warren Maurer and child of Lewistown spent Sunday with her parents. Rev. Spangler of Salome preached a trial sermon in the St. Luke's church Sunday evening. Rev. Zweier celebrated the Lord's Supper Sunday forenoon in the St. Matthew's church. The St. Luke's and St. Matthew's Sunday schools will hold their Easter entertainments Sunday. Some of our people attended the funeral of Henry Hassinger, at Alfarrata, who was burned to death Friday afternoon, while burning brush.

MCKEES HALF FALLS.

Hon. Bill Kelley was here on a visit Sunday. Wm. Heintzelman moved to Lewisburg Tuesday. Henry Suffel left for Sunbury Monday morning. Harry Hummel moved to Northumberland Friday. Miss Minnie Suffel is working at the silk mill at Sunbury, Pa. The people of this place have been digging garden for the past few days. If you want to buy a good pony, come to Jacob O. Martz's office, Hotel Independence.

Catch Cold Easily? Are you frequently hoarse? Do you have that annoying tickling in your throat? Would you feel relieved if you could raise something? Does your cough annoy you at night, and do you raise more mucus in the morning? Then you should always keep on hand a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral If you have a weak throat you cannot be too careful. You cannot begin treatment too early. Each cold makes you more liable to another, and the last one is always harder to cure than the one before it. Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plaster protects the lungs from colds. Help at Hand. If you have any complaint whatever and desire the best medical advice you can possibly obtain, write the doctor freely. You will receive a prompt reply. Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.
