Card of Thanks.

Editor Post.—Please return my heartfelt thanks to all those who in any way ministered so graciously to me and children during the illness and after the death of my wife. If opportunity would permit I would at once answer these kind acts and deeds individually to each and every person who aided us so kindly in our recent sad bereavement. I am at a loss of words in expressing my appreciation of the many acts of kindness shown. Trusting at some future time I may be able to do some kind deeds in return. I remain Yours Sincerely, A. W. BOWERSOX.

IN COMBINATION WITH THE POST.

We give below some clubbing combinations with the Post. The rates quoted are very low.

The Farm Journal, monthly, for almost five years and the Middleburg Post one year, paid in advance, $1.00.

The Farm Journal is one of the best agricultural papers published. It contains from 32 to 40 pages each month and treats of every subject of interest to the farmer, laborer and working man.

The New York Tri-Weekly Tribune and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.75.

The Tri-Weekly is published Monday, Wednesday and Friday, reaches a large proportion of subscribers on date of issue, and each edition is a thoroughly up-to-date daily family newspaper for busy people.

The New York Weekly Tribune and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.25.

The Weekly Tribune is published on Thursday, and gives all important news of nation and world, the most reliable market reports, unexcelled agricultural department, reliable general information and choice and entertaining miscellany. It is the "people's paper" for the entire United States, a national family paper for farmers and villagers.

The New York Tri-Weekly World and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, only $1.65.

The Tri-Weekly World comes three times a week, is filled with the latest news of the country and is well worth the price asked for it.

The Practical Farmer, one year, and the Middleburg Post, one year, paid in advance, $1.50. Both of the above papers and the Practical Farmer Year Book and Agricultural Almanac for 1900, paid in advance, only $1.65.

The Practical Farmer is one of the best farm papers published, issued monthly, at $1.50 year. The year book contains 60 pages in which there is a fund of information that is useful to the farmer. The price of this book alone is 50 cents. You get the Post, the Practical Farmer and the year book for only $1.65.

Go to A. E. Soles for a smooth easy shave or up-to-date hair cut and head cleaned with a refreshing shampoo or dandruff removed with his tonic, clean towel to each patron in bank building one door east of Post Office; satisfaction guaranteed.

Biggle Berry Book, being No. 2 of The Biggle Books, is all about berries. A encyclopedia of berry lore, boiled down at the manner of FARM JOURNAL. Tells about varieties, about planting, growing, mulching, cultivating, picking and marketing. It gives practical pointers from the pens of scores of leading berry growers from all parts of the country who have contributed to its columns. It has colored representations of berries true to size and color, thirty-three portraits of practical berry men, and thirty-five other illustrations, handsomely bound in cloth. The price is 51 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

Murdered at Lewisburg.

LEWISBURG, Pa., April 22.—Jas. Lenhart aged 35 years, and Newton Motz, aged 30 years, who had long been friends, had worked together in a mill here and were almost inseparable when off duty, quarreled last night over a woman. Motz later on was stabbed to death, and Lenhart, who is a married man, is in jail charged with the crime.

As usual the two men were together on Saturday night. They were in the Cameron House when Lenhart began to tease Motz about a woman, whom, it is alleged, both called upon. Motz became angry and trouble seemed imminent. They afterwards decided to let the matter go and took several drinks together. The two men remained together for an hour longer when a reference to the woman again led to hot words. Then they separated, Motz joined a friend Aaron Weidensaul, while Lenhart entered a nearby restaurant. Motz and Weidensaul went to the Baker House. Lenhart approached Motz and, so the authorities allege, stabbed him in the neck. The jugular vein was severed and Motz died within three minutes. Lenhart was arrested by two officers at his home. Once in custody he begged the officers to shoot him. He declared repeatedly that he would rather be dead than alive. Today Lenhart declared that he did not stab Motz. He says that Motz first struck him and that he brushed him roughly away. The knife cannot be found, and Lenhart's clothing is free from blood stains.

Snyder County Clay.

Ner A. Feese of Beavertown was at this place last week and showed us an analysis of the clay taken from his mines near Beavertown. The analysis was made by M. C. Ihlseng, of Department of Engineering of the Pennsylvania State College. The analysis shows: Silicia, 63; Alumina, 22.05; Ferric Oxid, .94; Lime, 1.2; Alkalies, 3.4; Water, 8.2. The inspection shows that this clay is of a good quality and standard value for tiles and similar ware.

AN ORGAN CONTEST

The "Post" Will Present a Handsome Chapel Organ to a Church, Sunday School or Public School in Snyder County.

The Winner Shall be Named by the Subscribers of this Popular Newspaper.

The publisher of the Middleburg Post will present to some church, Sunday school or public school in Snyder county, one of the most handsome chapel organs manufactured. The organ which the Post will give away is manufactured by The Weaver Organ and Piano Co. of York, Pa. Their agent in Snyder county is Mr. Frank S. Riegle of this place, who has sold many of the Weaver organs throughout the county. The quality of the Weaver organs is well known by many of our readers, but for the benefit of those who are not familiar with the fine qualities of the Weaver organs we will say that by the close of this week we will have in Middleburg the very organ that will be given away by the Post. The organ will be placed in the music rooms of F. S. Riegle adjoining the Washington House in this place, where the organ will remain during the contest. Any of the readers of the Post can feel at liberty to call on Mr. Riegle, who will be pleased to show them not only the organ we propose to present to some church, Sunday school or public school, but he will also exhibit other organs, sewing machines, etc., and quote the very lowest prices on all kinds of musical instruments.

The organ we will give away is the style chapel No. 3, of the Weaver make, has five octaves, 2 full sets of reeds, octave couplers, and is guaranteed by the manufacturers for years.

The Post under its present management has already conducted three different contests and awarded at different times a total of six scholarship prizes amounting to almost $500.

The first contest was conducted Jan., Feb. and March 1895 and was for free tuition, board, heat, washing, furnished room, light and use of gymnasium at Bloomsburg State Normal school for 13 weeks valued at $69.50. The prize was awarded Mar. 20, 1895, to Chas. W. Smith of Troxleville. The second contest was conducted through the summer of 1895 and consisted of two prizes, first, free tuition, etc., as above for two terms, valued at $139, awarded August 1895 to A. W. Gill and second prize, consisting of one term as above awarded to W. I. Zechman. The third contest was for 81 weeks, free tuition, heat, furnished room, etc., at Susquehanna University, divided into three prizes, first, consisting of 39 weeks or one year awarded to A. C. Bowersox of Penns Creek. Second, 27 weeks or two terms to E. F. Snyder of New Berlin and third, 15 weeks or one term to J. H. Kreitzer of McKees Falls.

The details concerning this organ contest will be promulgated later. We will say, however, that the subscribers of the Post will have the sole power of awarding this elegant Weaver organ to some church, Sunday school or public school in Snyder county. A blank ballot will be published in the Post each week. This can be cut out and sent in and will count as one vote. There will also be premium coupons issued to new subscribers and to old subscribers paying in advance which will count toward awarding the contest. There will be no rules or restrictions except such as are absolutely necessary for the purpose of making the award honestly. The contest will begin as soon as the details can be arranged, perhaps next week.
