THE POST'S PRIZE ORGAN.

The above picture represents the Hanesome Weaver Chapel Organ that Will be Given Away by the "Post."

Jacob Cramer of Franklin township, died April 25, 1900, near Zion's church, aged 49 years, 1 month and 13 days. She was the mother of 9 children, 2 daughters having predeceased to the spirit world. Her husband, 7 children, 3 grandchildren and a host of friends mourn her departure. The cause of the death was consumption. She was born in Chapman township, Union (now Snyder) county, her maiden name having been Shelly. She was married Mar. 7, 1875 to Jacob E. Cramer. She was buried last Friday at the U. E. Zion's church, Revs. Aurand and Gramley officiating, the former in German and the latter in English.

MORTGAGED HER HOME.

Wife's Touching Devotion to a Man Who Says He Will Hang

The wife of James Lenhart, of Lewisburg, charged with the murder of Newton Motz, evidently cares more for her husband's life than he himself does.

Ever since his arrest Lenhart has declared, although he is innocent he will be hung. "It's no use in getting an attorney," he says, "they'll hang me anyway."

His wife does not take this pessimistic view of the matter. She saved enough money during her life to buy a house and lot, Thursday she mortgaged these for $300 with which to employ counsel for her husband. The best legal talent in this section has been secured. The authorities claim to have found a blood-covered knife near the scene of the tragedy, which they say belonged to the murderer.

Lenhart was given a preliminary hearing on Friday at Lewisburg and a number of witnesses were heard who gave damaging testimony against him. In the face of all this testimony Lenhart claimed that he never committed the deed and he does not care if they hang him or not.

He was taken from the place of hearing to the Lewisburg jail to be kept there until the next term of Union County court. The reports now being circulated to the effect that he will be taken to Sunbury or Williamsport for safe keeping are all incorrect as he will be kept in the Lewisburg jail and guarded day and night.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to return my heartfelt thanks to the kind neighbors and friends for their assistance during the sickness, death and burial of my wife.

JACOB CRAMER.

Cleaning Fine Lace.

Occasionally a piece of fancy-work on the lace order does not show soil enough to justify sacrificing its lacy newness to the process of washing. If such work is laid away for a week in a heavy book between blue tissue-paper, having had rubber into the soiled place calcined magnesia or pipeclay, it will come out cleaned and brightened by the process. This is a good way to treat Battenberg and point lace work which has become dingy or yellow.—May Woman's Home Companion.
